ARTICLES

CONFLICT, GLOBALISATION, NEEDS AND SECURITY

Anne Ardagh

The article examines the link between conflict and globalisation and rejects the notion that the world is becoming one civilisation. It explores some approaches to the satisfaction of basic human needs, to better understanding and cooperation in a globalised setting post-September 11, 2001 in order to diminish the security threats to non-Westerners and Westerners alike .....	230

THE ENFORCEABILITY OF ONLINE ARBITRATION AGREEMENTS

Richard Garnett

Arbitration is a well-established method for resolving commercial disputes. Increasingly internet traders are including arbitration clauses in their online contracts and seeking to enforce them against users. This article examines the formal requirements for a valid arbitration clause under Australian law and the enforceability of online clauses by reference to decisions in the United States and Canada. While generally speaking such clauses have been given effect to, courts have refused to do so where the user had insufficient

notice of the clause or would suffer a loss of legal rights through being compelled to arbitrate.....	239

CONSCIENCE AND MORAL DEVELOPMENT – AN EXPLANATION OF RISE RECIDIVISM RESULTS WITH IMPLICATIONS FOR JUVENILE CONFERENCING AND RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

Jeremy Prichard and Rosanne Burton-Smith

A major study of restorative justice found that when compared to court, juvenile conferences had a significant impact on the recidivism of violent offenders but no impact on the recidivism of property offenders. This article argues that there are several reasons why juveniles may not experience the emotions that appear to be linked to reductions in recidivism – such as remorse or shame/guilt – after they perpetrate property crimes, such as shoplifting, where harm is difficult to conceptualise .....	248

THE MEDIATION PROVISIONS OF THE VICTORIAN RETAIL LEASES ACT 2003

Michael Redfern

This article describes the prelitigation mediation provisions of the Victorian Retail Leases Act 2003 and their operation in practice .....	261

WORKING WITH GAY AND LESBIAN PARTNERS – PROCESS AND PRACTICE ISSUES

Linda Fisher

The necessary ingredients in working with gay and lesbian partners are flexibility and a focus on the parties. This article challenges some commonly held assumptions about mediation and about homosexual men and women, and describes some of the ways in which mediators may be able to assist gay and lesbian partners to sort out their separation issues more effectively.....	273

Letters to the Editor

By submitting a letter to the editor of this journal for publication, you agree that Thomson Legal & Regulatory Limited, trading as Lawbook Co., may edit and has the right to, and may license third parties to, reproduce in electronic form and communicate the letter.

Manuscript

- Manuscript must be original, unpublished work that has not been submitted for publication elsewhere. Personal details (name, qualifications, position) for publication and a delivery address, email address and phone number must be included with the manuscript.
- Manuscript must be submitted electronically via email or on disk in Microsoft Word format.
- Manuscript should not exceed 4,500 words (including footnotes) for articles or 1,500-2,000 words for section commentary or book reviews. An abstract of 100-150 words is to be submitted with article manuscripts.
- Proof pages will be sent to contributors. Authors are responsible for the accuracy of case names, citations and other references. Excessive changes cannot be accommodated at proof stage.
- Contributors of articles receive 25 free offprints of their article and a copy of the part in which the article is published. Other contributors receive a copy of the part to which they have contributed.
- Articles published are critically appraised or reviewed by an academic or professional peer of the author for the purposes of maintaining the standards of the journal.

Style

1. Levels of headings should be clearly indicated (no more than four levels).

2. Cases:

- Case citation follows case name. Where a case is cited in the text, the citation should follow immediately rather than as a footnote. Give at least two and preferably all available citations, the first being the authorised reference.
- Australian citations should appear in the following order: authorised series; Lawbook Co./ATP series; other company series (ie CCH, Butterworths); media neutral citation.
- “At” references should only refer to the best available citation, eg: Mabo v Queensland [No 2] (1992) 175 CLR 1 at 34; 66 ALJR 408; 107 ALR 1.
- Where only a media neutral citation is available, “at” references should be to paragraph, eg: YG v Minister for Community Services [2002] NSWCA 247 at [19].
- For international cases best references only should be included.

3. Legislation should be cited as follows: Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth), s 51AC. The full citation should be repeated in footnotes.

4. Books should be cited as follows: Cairns B, Australian Civil Procedure (5th ed, Lawbook Co., 2002) p 52. In footnotes do not use ibid or op cit. The following style is preferred:

4. Austin RP, “Constructive Trusts” in Finn PD (ed), Essays in Equity (Law Book Co, 1985).
5. Austin, n 4, p 56.

5. Journal articles should be cited as follows: Odgers S, “Police Interrogation: A Decade of Legal Development” (1990) 14 Crim LJ 220. Wherever possible use official abbreviations not the full name for journal titles. In footnotes do not use ibid or op cit. The following style is preferred:

6. Sheehy EA, Stubbs J and Tolmie J, “Defending Battered Women on Trial: The Battered Woman Syndrome and its Limitations” (1992) 16 Crim LJ 220.
7. Sheehy et al, n 6 at 221.

6. Internet references should be cited as follows: Watson RS, Federal Offences (Lawbook Co., subscription service) at [5.11130], <http://subscriber.lawbookco.com.au> viewed 25 June 2002. Underline the URL and include the date the document was viewed. For further information visit <http://www.lawbookco.com.au> or contact the Production Editor.
