
Index

Aboriginal mediation

confidentiality, 22

Absent advisor

lawyer, role of, 222-223

Absolutely Fabulous, 102

Adjudication

settlement, versus, 157-159

Adversarial negotiation

nature of, 212, 216

Advisor observer

lawyer, as, 223-224

Agents

principles and, 217

Alternative dispute resolution proposed pledge, 8-9

satisfaction levels of participants, 151-152

scrutiny, 10-11

terminology debate, 11

win/win expectations, 11

Arbitrators

powers of

Electra Air Conditioning BV v Seeley International Pty Ltd, 137-138

Yarraman Pine P/L v Forestry Plantations Queensland, 138-140

Archaeology of knowledge, 90

Australian Dispute Resolution Association (ADRA)

complaints against mediators, process for handling see Complaints handling process

Australian National Mediator Standards

Practice Standards, 144-146

Book reviews

Alternative Dispute Resolution, 193-194

Conflict and Dispute Resolution: A Guide for Practice, 129-130

Mediating With Families, 194-195

Charter of Rights for Mediators and Dispute Resolution Practitioners proposal for, 16

Community Justice Centres (CJCs)

origins of dispute resolution, 10, 17

Complaints handling process

ADRA model, 41-46

confidentiality, 43

conflict resolution approach, 113-114

- creating identity, 114-115
- creation of, 113
- customer service approach, 113
- design process, 115-119
 - distress, 115-116
 - good listening, 116-117
 - insight, 116
 - passion and politics, 115
 - risk management, 117-118
- features, 42-43
- Guide to Good Practice for Complaints Handling for Mediation Practitioners, 41-42
- having a say, 112-119
- independent decision-maker, absence of, 42-43
- limitation period, 43
- mediator rights, 15-16
- professional standard approach, 113, 247-248

Compulsory family dispute resolution

- “best interests of children”, 93
- best interests principle, 94
- expert power, 93
- FDR practitioner
 - accreditation, 93
 - power bestowed upon, 95
- “genuine effort”, determining, 93-94
- government policy, 92
- institutionalisation, 91
- legislation, 92
- neutrality, 89-90
- organisational policy, 93
- power in, 91-92
- power structures, 90-99
- practitioner power, 89
- practitioners
 - accreditation/registration rules for, 113
- reflexive practice, 94-95
- time pressure, 94
- voluntary participation, 89

Confidentiality

- admissibility of mediated agreements, 22
- advantages, 20
- complaints against mediator, 43
- contractual, 19
- cultural factors, 22

- disadvantages, 20-21
- exceptions to 18, 21
- limitations, 21
 - statutory, 21
- mediation principle, as, 105-106
- Mediator's Handbook, 18
- mediator's opening statement, 18
 - exceptions, 18
- native title disputes, 22
- private sessions, 19-20
- provisions, 74
- reporting obligations of mediators, 17
- statutory enforcement, 19
- subsequent proceedings, 201-202
- United States, status in, 18
- without prejudice privilege, 19-20

Conflict coaching, 35-36

Conflict resolution

- post-graduate studies on, 112
- role of, 115

Consensus

- having say in, 112

Dispute resolution

- clause, interpretation of, 202-204
- family see Compulsory family dispute resolution; Family Dispute Resolution
- non-adversarial see Non-adversarial negotiation
- post-graduate studies on, 112
- workplace, 236-239, 243
 - Fair Work Act, under the, 236, 243
 - private mediators, role of, 241-243
 - Work Choices process, 236-237, 239-241

Distributive gain

- desire for, 217

Domestic violence

- power imbalances, 13-14

Elitism, 244-245

Empathy

- point of view and, 217

Employment

- workplace dispute resolution, 236-239, 243
 - Fair Work Act, under the, 236, 243
 - private mediators, role of, 241-243
 - Work Choices process, 236-237, 239-241

Ethics

mediation, 201-204, 244-247

Expert contributor

lawyer, as, 224-225

Facilitator

comments from floor at public meeting, handling, 109

consultative committee building confidence in, 110

desirable size of, 110-111

duty to client, 107

empowerment, 109-110

family dispute resolution see Family dispute resolution

managing strong emotions, 108

mediator bias, 108

payment for services, 107-108

Fair Work

workplace ADR, 236-239, 243

Fairness

comparisons of dispute resolution processes, 147-149

Family dispute resolution accreditation of practitioners, 172

compulsory see Compulsory family dispute resolution

definition, 176

facilitative approach, 174-178

facilitator

active participation, 178 competence, demonstrating, 173-175 interaction between parties and, 174 knowledge, skill and attitude, 172-173

techniques, 173

parenting conciliation, 176-177

schooling issues, 177

Family group conferences

coaching to overcome conflict, 35-36, 39-40 conflict resolution principles, 35 conflict within extended families, 34, 39-40

coaching, 35-36, 39-40 family as learning organisation, 36-39

alignment and dialogue, 38-39

feedback, 36-37

independent facilitator, 39

origins, 33

power issues, 34-35

- preparation, 33-34
 - alignment and dialogue, 38-39
 - coaching conflict, 35-36, 39-40
 - obstacles to, 35
- stages, 33-34

Family Law Act 1975 (Cth)

- family law mediator, defining role of, 92-93
- mediator neutrality, move away from, 93

Family Law Handbook

- review of, 130-132

Family Law (Shared Parental Responsibility) Act 2006 (Cth)

- certificate relating to genuine effort, 12

Fawlty Towers, 102Federal Court

- court-connected mediation, 229, 235
 - referral statistics, 232-233
 - reporting of ADR service, 230-231
 - settlement rates, 234-235

Fisher, Roger, 214-216Follett, Mary Parker, 213-214Foreclosure cases

- “rocket docket” system 74-75

Foucault, Michel, 90-91Franchise systems

- compulsory mediation, 29
 - exacerbation of, 30
 - Franchising Australia 2006, 26
 - innovation and change, management of, 24, 29-30
 - Integrated Conflict Management Systems, 30
 - overview, 24-25
 - resolution, 26, 30-31
 - sources, 28-30
- conflict
 - causes, 24, 28-30
- disclosure requirements, 25, 27
- diversity, 26, 28
- education of participants, 27
- franchising relationship, nature of, 26-28
 - power imbalances, 25, 26
- future prospects, 31-32
- good faith, 28
- government inquiries, 25-26
- Griffith and ACCC research project, 26-27

- Matthews Review, 25
- renewal framework, 28
- risk, understanding and appreciating, 27-28
- significance to Australian economy, 24
- Franchising Code of Conduct, 25, 29
 - process deficiencies, 31
- Global financial crisis
 - foreclosure cases as result of, 74-75
- Good faith
 - “genuine good faith”, 203
 - interpretation, 203
 - requirement to negotiate in, 202-204
- Hong Kong
 - mediation in civil justice reform, 120-128
 - establishment of, 120
 - implementation, 127
 - Mediation Council's comments on final report, 125-127
 - proposals, 121
 - Working Party recommendations, 124-125
 - Working Party's report and public concerns, 121-124
- Human Resources Management (HRM)
 - theory, 237-238
- Humour
 - kinds of, 97
 - status used as method of, 101
 - use in mediation, 96-103
- Identity
 - creating an, 114-115
- Impartiality
 - definition, 12
 - mediation principle, as, 106-107
- Improvisation
 - dramatic, 100
 - eye contact in, 101
 - improvisational games, learning through, 102-103
 - musical, 100
 - use of, 100-103
- Improvisers
 - skills of, 103
- Insight
 - ability of, 116
- Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators Australia (IAMA)
 - appointment of new Chief Executive Officer, 140

Principles of Conduct for Mediators, 184, 186-187
power imbalances, 185

Integrative negotiation, 213-214

International Mediation Institute (IMI)

intercultural mediation competency certification, 165-166

Legal practitioners

absent advisor, as, 222-223 advisor observer, as, 223-224 expert contributor, as, 224-225 mediation, contribution to, 220-222, 228
Guidelines, 221-222
professional participant, as, 225-227
spokesperson, 227-228
subsequent proceedings, acting in, 201-202

Listening

acknowledgement of feelings and emotions, 209 active and passive, 207-208, 211 authentic, 208-9
bias and prejudice, restraining, 209-10
cultural awareness, 210-11
genuine interest, expressing, 208-209
good, 116-117 importance of, 206-207
power relations between parties, 210-211

McIntosh, Dr Jenn, 93

Mediation

active listening see Listening agreement admissibility, 22
confidentiality provisions, 74 Tribunal order from, 5-6 bias, 108
conciliation and, 230
confidentiality see Confidentiality costs versus costs of proceedings, 71-74 decision in Baulkham Hills Shire Council v Hahn, 71-72 decision in Western Areas Exploration Pty Ltd v Streeter [No 2], 72-74 court-connected, 229, 235 referral to mediation statistics, 232-233
reporting of ADR service, 230-231
settlement rates, 234-235
cultural sensitivity see Mediation accreditation debriefing process, 146

- definition, 230
- domestic violence issues, 13-14
- emotion in, 96-103
 - engendering positive, 98-99
- ethical standards in Australia, 184-185
- facilitation and
 - commonalities and differences, 104-111
- facilitative, use of, 77-87
- Hong Kong, in see Hong Kong
- humour in, 96-103
- improvisation, use of, 98-102
- judge-led, 8-9
- lawyers, role of, 220-222
 - Guidelines, 221-222
- mandatory, 14-15
- media watch, 204-205
- medical negligence dispute resolution see Medical negligence dispute resolution
- metaphors in see Metaphors
- native title disputes, 231
- neighbour disputes, 75-76
- neutrality, 11-12, 56-58
- over-professionalisation, 23
- principles, application of, 105-107
- professionalisation and philosophy in, 180-183
- referral statistics, 232-233
- regulation of, 184
- research project from Supreme and County Courts of Victoria see Victoria
- “rocket docket” system, 74-75
- scrutiny, 10-11
- settlement sum, 74
- tribunal order from, 5-6
- use of, 75-76
- voluntariness, 14, 17-18
 - types of mediation, 17-18
- win/win solution, 11
- “Wise Man” clause, 6-7

Mediation accreditation

- cultural diversity, 162-163
 - conflict, attitudes to, 163
 - importance to practice and training, 163-165, 170-171
 - mediation trainees, 165
- elitism, 244-245
- ethical standards, 184-192, 245-247

family dispute resolution practitioners see Family dispute resolution intercultural mediation training

- assessment, 170
- criteria, setting, 167
- cultural awareness and sensitivity, 168
- feedback, 170
- framework, 167
- materials and approaches, 169-170
- training goals and objectives, 169 international mediation competency accreditation and standards, 165-166

Mediation Accreditation in Australia Report 2006, 165

National Mediation Accreditation System, 162-163

- cultural diversity and, 162-163
- purpose of, 162

workplace mediators, 242

Mediator

see also Facilitator

active and passive listening, 207-208

bias and prejudice

- perceptions of, 242
- restraining, 209-210

clarification of issues, 207

complaints against see Complaints handling process

confidentiality see Confidentiality

cultural awareness, 210-211

ethical autonomy, 184-187

family dispute resolution see Family dispute resolution

feelings and emotions, acknowledgement of, 209

genuine interest, expressing, 208-209

intervention

- humour as, 97-98

listener, as, 206-207

metaphors, use of see Metaphors

neutrality, 11-12, 56-58, 65-66

- concept, 57
- power balancing, 12-13, 179
- researcher objectivity and, 59-60
- subjectivity, alternative paradigms and reflexivity, 60-65
- value neutrality, 57-58

power balancing, 12-13, 179, 210-211

private

- workplace dispute resolution, 241-243

reflexivity, 56-58

- researcher objectivity and, 59-60
- reporting obligations, 22
- rights, 15-16
- specialist knowledge, 242
- Medical negligence dispute resolution
 - apologies, 82
 - benefit of using, 77-87
 - conventional methods, 79-80
 - doctors reluctance to attend, 83
 - emotional factors, 80
 - facilitative mediation, use of, 77, 80-84
 - challenges, 83-84
 - mediator
 - need to find right, 85-87
 - neutrality, 85-87
 - medical negligence narratives, 78
 - needs and interests of patients and families, recognising, 80-81
 - parties
 - power relations between, 84-85
 - principled negotiation, use of, 80-84
 - settlement levers, 82
 - tort law reform, bargaining in shadow of, 78-79
- Menkel-Meadow, Carrie, 216, 218
- Metaphors
 - conceptual, 47
 - conventional, 49-50
 - definition, 47
 - mechanics of, 47-50
 - Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP), 53
 - operating, 53-55
 - organising principles, as, 50-53
 - orientational, 49
 - use in mediation, 47-50, 55
 - operating metaphors, 53-55
 - organising principles, as, 50-53
- National Alternative Dispute Resolution Advisory Council (NADRAC)
 - Complaints Handling Working Group, 42
 - culture, relevance of, 164
 - “mediation description”, 145
- National Mediation Accreditation Standards, 12
- Native title
 - court-connected mediation, 231

Negotiation

- good faith, 202-204
- integrative, 213-214
- non-adversarial, 212, 218-219
- principled, 80-84, 214-215
 - criticisms, 215-216
- problem-solving, 216-218

Neutrality

- mediation principle, as, 106-107

Non-adversarial negotiation

- integrative negotiation, 213-214
- nature of, 212, 218-219
- principled negotiation, 80-84, 214-215
 - criticisms, 215-216
- problem-solving negotiation, 216-218

Participation

- active listing, role of, 209, 211
- disputant perceptions, 149-150
- lawyer, role as professional, 225-227
- power relations between parties, 210-211

Patten, Bruce, 214-216Philosophy

- mediation, in 181-183
- philosophical disposition of Australian society, 181
- utilitarianism, 182-183

Positive Psychology

- coaching movement and, 35

Power

- awareness, 13
- balancing, 12-13
 - domestic violence issues, 13-14
- dynamic concept, 14
- family group conferences, 34-35
- franchising relationships, 25
- imbalance, 183, 185-186
 - ethical autonomy of mediators, 184-187
 - ethical standards, redevelopment, 190-192
 - provision of legal advice, 183-184, 186-187
 - United States, 187-190
- stereotypes, 13

Professionalisation

- mediation, in, 180-183
 - nascent, 180-181

- traditional, 180
- Property dispute
 - decision in Bradford v James, 75-76
- Queensland Commercial and Consumer Tribunal
 - jurisdiction to make order from mediated agreement, 5-6
- Recognised mediator accreditation body (RMAB)
 - requirements, 15
 - framework for complaints, 41
- Risk management
 - practice, 117-18
- “Rocket docket” system, 74-75
- Settlement
 - adjudication, versus, 157-159
 - future of, 159-161
 - justice, whether, 155-157
 - adjudication and, 157-159
 - overview, 153-154
 - promotion by courts, 153
 - basis of policy, 154-155
 - critique of policy, 155-157
 - rates, 234-235
- Simpsons, The, 102
- Spokesperson
 - lawyer, as, 227-228
- Tort law reform
 - medical negligence laws, changes to, 78
- UNCITRAL Model Law, 140-141
- Ury, William, 214-216
- Utilitarianism, 182-183
- Victoria
 - mediation in Supreme and County Courts, research project, 142-143
 - advice, offering, 145-146
 - after, 146
 - agenda setting, 145
 - before, 143-144
 - comparisons of dispute resolution processes, 147-152
 - during, 144-146
 - fairness, 147-149
 - methodology, 143
 - opening statements, 144
 - participation, 149-150
 - private meetings, 145
 - process analysis, 146-151

satisfaction levels, 151

visual aids, 145

Voluntariness

mediation principle, 105

Vote

women's right to, 112

indigenous, 112

Wise Man clause, 6-7

Without prejudice privilege

application of, 19-20

Work Choices

dispute resolution process, 236-237, 239-241

Workplace

dispute resolution, 236-237, 243

Fair Work Act, under the, 236, 243

private mediators, role of, 241-243

Work Choices process, 236-237, 239-241