ARTICLES*INDUSTRIAL CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION IN AUSTRALIA: A CENTENARY REFLECTION*Hon Justice Michael Kirby AC CMG

December 2004 marks the centenary of federal industrial conciliation and arbitration in Australia. This is an important event for the nation. It is one that the Australian legal profession should notice and can celebrate, because industrial conciliation and arbitration has played a key role in Australia's history and also in the history of the Australian legal profession. .... 785

DIPLOMATIC PRIVILEGES IN PRACTICE*Dr Wilfried Bolewski

International practices employed to protect diplomatic privileges and immunities are manifold though they are all based on the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations and the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations. The following article with examples from the German practice provides a guide for the application of diplomatic and consular privileges and immunities. .... 788

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION AND CONSTITUTIONAL REALITY*Anne Twomey

Constitutional actions in 1973-1974 concerning both the Commonwealth's attempt to abolish State appeals to the Privy Council and State attempts to petition the Privy Council gave rise to a heated debate about the resulting constitutional conventions. At issue was the role of the United Kingdom in State constitutional affairs and whether the Queen acted as "Queen of Australia" in relation to State matters. The difficulty in ascertaining the resulting conventions was due to the selective release of information by governments about what actually happened and why. The British and Australian files have now been released under the "30-year rule". They show that the constitutional reality was quite different from the conventions believed to operate at the time. .... 798

WHAT ARE “REASONABLE PROSPECTS OF SUCCESS”?

Nicholas Beaumont

This article aims to uncover the content of this standard, as well as to venture some suggestions for the reform of these enactments. .... 812

1. Levels of headings should be clearly indicated (no more than four levels).

2. Cases:

- Case citation follows case name. Where a case is cited in the text, the citation should follow immediately rather than as a footnote. Give at least two and preferably all available citations, the first listed being the authorised reference.
- Australian citations should appear in the following order: authorised series; Lawbook Co./ATP series; other company series (ie CCH, Butterworths); media neutral citation.
- "At" references should only refer to the best available citation, eg: Mabo v Queensland [No 2] (1992) 175 CLR 1 at 34; 66 ALJR 408; 107 ALR 1.
- Where only a media neutral citation is available, "at" references should be to paragraph, eg: YG v Minister for Community Services [2002] NSWCA 247 at [19].
- For international cases best references only should be included.

3. Legislation should be cited as follows:

Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth), s 51AC. The full citation should be repeated in footnotes.
