

---

Index

---

Aboriginal customary law

- sexual relations with minors, 44
- traditional punishment, 44-45

Access to legal information – see also Internet

- invention of printing, 331-332

Admissibility of evidence

- accused's right to a fair trial, 8, 13, 14, 15, 20
- elements of fair trial, 18
- public interest, 16-17
- witness anonymity, 17

appeals, 13

- bad character evidence, 10-11, 228, 338
- judicial guidance, 229-230

hearsay, 10, 11

- induced confessions, 111, 113
- elicitation, 113-114
- reliability, 114

polygraph examinations, 21, 29, 33, 36

Canadian courts, 28-29, 30, 31

character evidence, 30, 31

credibility of accused, 31

expert evidence, 29, 30, 31, 32

criteria for recognition, 32

ultimate issue rule, 33

oath helping, 30

other jurisdictions, 29

past consistent statements, 30

reliability of tests, 31-32, 33-36

ultimate issue rule, 28, 33

United States courts, 26-28, 32

probative value and prejudice, 8, 11-12, 14, 19-20

bad character, 10-11

hearsay, 10, 11

illegitimate prejudice, meaning, 9

improper use of evidence, 19

similar fact evidence, 14, 18-19

statutory formulations, 10

weighing value against prejudice, 11

Aiders and abettors

- sentencing, 46-47
- principal offenders, and, 47-48

Anti-discrimination – see also Hate crime legislation

adequacy, 216

disabled persons, 213-214

overview, 213

sexual discrimination, 214

vilification, 213, 214

Appeals – see also Bail pending appeal

bias, 376

fairness of trial, 13

non-disclosure of exculpatory evidence, 377

miscarriage of justice, 377-378

Assault – see Consensual harm

Australian Capital Territory

bill of rights, 178, 180

development of dialogue model, 179

history of introduction, 178

cannabis use control, 118

harm minimisation approach, 118, 119, 120

justification for reforms, 119

recent amendments, 118-119, 120

trafficable quantities, 119

Australian Crime Commission

coercive powers, 166

evidence, 164

examiners and examinations, 161-162

right to silence, 163

Bail pending appeal

Canadian approach, 310

appeal against conviction, 311

appeal against sentence, 311

Ouimet Committee, 310, 312

public interest, 311

Delay pre-appeal, 303, 304, 312-312

appeal court performance, 304

exceptional circumstances, 297, 314

determination, 297-299

Hanson* case, 301

decision on bail application, 302

impact of imprisonment, 303

return to prison, 306-307, 313

length of custodial sentence, 297

non-parole period, 298

partial suspended sentence, 298 limit on power to grant, 296
   common law, 297
 New Zealand approach, 308
   exercise of discretion, 309
   interests of justice, 309, 310
   just cause for continued detention, 309 strength of appeal, 309, 310
 outcomes of appeals, 299 financial advantage by deception, 302-303 Hanson case, 301-302
   manslaughter, 302
   sexual offences (children), 300-301 preferable approach, 312, 313, 314 competing interests, 314 delay, 312-313 fairness, 312 impact of return to prison, 313 status of convicted person, 312 prospects for successful appeal, 298 assessment, 299
   New Zealand, 309, 310
 sexual offences (children), 300-301, 313, 314
 strict approach policy, 304-305 conviction appearing contingent, 305-306 impact of return to prison, 306-307
   public interest, 308 respect for judicial system, 308 unmeritorious appeals, 307-308

Bill of rights

Australian Capital Territory, 178, 180 development of model, 179 declaratory approach, 170-171
   Victorian Bill 1988, 172
 dialogue model, 169, 174-181 entrenched charter, 170, 171, 174
 Federal Government, 180
 Indonesia, 262
 New Zealand, 169, 174, 176, 177, 179
   entrenched charter proposal, 174
   history of introduction, 174, 180
   inconsistent legislation, 175-176 parliamentary sovereignty, 174-175 statutory charter, 170
 United Kingdom, 176, 179
   adoption of NZ model, 177
   history of introduction, 176-177

Victoria, 169, 173, 174, 179
   declaratory approach, 170-171, 172
   dialogue model, 179, 181
   Justice Statement, 170-171, 180-181
   previous attempts at introduction, 171-174

Canada

bail pending appeal, 310
   appeal against conviction, 311
   appeal against sentence, 311
   Ouimet Committee, 310, 312
   public interest, 311

Cannabis use control

approaches in controlling, 116, 117, 120
 Australian Capital Territory, 118
   harm minimisation approach, 118, 119, 120
   recent amendments, 118-119, 120
   trafficable quantities, 119 deterrent effect, 117, 120 use patterns, 117 use statistics, 116

Childhood sexual abuse – see Sexual offences (children)

Codification of criminal law – see also Model Criminal Code

concept in Australia, 267, 279 principles of social justice, 268-269
 constitutional principle, 269
 Griffith Codes, 265, 267, 269
 New South Wales, 276
   self-defence provisions, 277
 statutory interpretation, 279, 280
 underlying principles, 268

Consensual harm

English position, 197
 Indian Penal Code, 198-200
   age limits, 199, 200 benefit of consenting party, 199-200
   categories of cases, 198
   individualistic libertarian position, 198, 199
 Model Criminal Code Officers Committee, 197 draft provision, 198
 overview, 197
 serious bodily harm, 198

Constitution – see also Jury trials (federal offences)

military justice system, 326, 327
Senate Committee Report, 328, 329, 330

Corroboration

sexual offences (children), 300
jury warnings, 282, 283
Longman warning, 285

Covert investigative methods

“Canadian Model”, 111-112, 115
induced confessions, 111, 112, 115
  elicitation, 113-114
  involuntariness, 112-113
  reliability, 113, 114
  right to silence, 115
undercover gangs, 111-112, 115, 156
Victoria, 156
  exclusion of evidence, 157
  inducement to commit crime, 157, 158 liability of participants, 157
  reporting obligations, 158

Crimes Act 1900 (NSW)

self-defence provisions, 266-267, 276
  accused’s state of mind, 278-279
  defence, concept, 277
  infliction, concept, 277, 279
  intentional or reckless infliction of death, 277-278
statutory interpretation, 271, 277-278

Criminal Code (ACT)

statutory interpretation, 275

Criminal Code (Cth)

fault requirement, 58 importation of prohibited goods, 55, 60 conduct and circumstance, 56, 57, 59
  intention and recklessness, 55, 56, 58-59, 60 judicial interpretation, 55
  conduct and circumstance, 56, 57
legislative drafting, 55, 57, 58 intention and recklessness, 57

Criminal Code (NT)

Aboriginal customary law, 44
act, definition, 37-42, 237, 238, 239, 242
  actus reus, 39, 41
  event or act, 42, 240, 241
  ordinary meaning, 41

  wide interpretation, 240, 241, 243
construction of Code, 40
sexual intercourse without consent, 37, 38, 43, 237
  act, definition, 37-42, 237, 238, 239, 240-243
  event, meaning, 41, 42, 240
  intention or recklessness, 237-238, 239
  legislative intent, 39-40
  mistake of fact, 240
  other State Codes, implications, 241, 242, 243
  state of things, meaning, 42-43
traffic offences, 43
vicarious liability, 43

Criminal codes

construction of provisions, 271-273
statutory interpretation, 266, 267, 271, 273, 279, 280
  common law, 273, 274, 275
  context of code as a whole, 272 Draft Code, England and Wales, 274-275
  paramount rule, 272

Criminal Justice Act 2003 (UK)

bad character evidence, 228, 229
jury reform, 230

Criminal justice system – see also Legal systems; Military justice system

United Kingdom, 228

Criminal negligence

manslaughter, 122, 217, 219, 221, 222, 223
  breach of duty, 220-221
  causal connection, 221 dangerous things, 217
  duty of care owed, 219-220
  standards of proof, 224, 226

Criminal statutes

statutory interpretation, 266, 267, 270
  common law, 270-271
  extrinsic materials, 270

Cross-examination

sexual offences (children), 291-292

Death by dangerous driving

sentencing, 244, 247
  adequacy of sentence, 244, 245, 246

- guidelines, 244, 245, 246
- mitigating factors, 244, 245
- policy issues, 245-246
- prevention of road fatalities, 246
- restorative programs, 246
- Defences – see Consensual harm; Provocation defence
- Definitions – see also Words and phrases
  - act, 37-42, 237, 238, 239, 240-243
  - organised crime offence, 160
  - organised criminal group, 343-345
  - rape, 6
- Detention legislation – see Indefinite detention legislation; Preventative detention legislation
- Discrimination – see Anti-discrimination laws; Hate crime legislation
- DNA evidence contamination
  - accreditation of laboratories, 74, 91
  - acknowledgement of errors, 82
  - Australian laboratories, 72
    - accreditation testing, 74
    - Jaiydn Leskie case, 72-73, 81
    - John Tonge Centre, 72-74
    - other examples, 81-82
    - work loads, 86
  - challenging evidence because of risk, 86-88
  - coincidental DNA matches, 76, 91-92
    - loci profiles, 76-77, 92
  - “cold hit” mistakes, 75-76
  - covering up errors, 83
  - cross-contamination, 77-78, 92
    - defence scrutinisation efforts, 78-79
    - detection difficulties, 77
    - OJ Simpson trial, 78-79
  - denial of errors, 83
  - DNA briefs, 88-89
  - DNA checklist, 89
    - chain of custody, 90
    - completeness of profile, 91-92
    - laboratory protocols, 91
    - results, 93
    - statistical calculations, 93
    - transportation, 90
  - DNA databases, 89
    - “cold hit” mistakes, 75-76
  - DNA probability statistics, 93
    - exclusion of error rates from jurors, 72
  - forensic scientists, 83
    - adoption of investigative role, 84
    - recriminations, 84-85
  - guilty plea discounts, 86-87
  - human error, 77
    - understanding the risks, 88
  - labelling errors, 75
  - selective DNA testing, 73, 74-75, 90
  - transportation of samples, 74, 90
  - United States laboratories, 71, 72
    - error rates, 71
    - Houston scandal, 79-80
    - other examples, 80-81
    - work loads, 85
  - work load of laboratories, 85-86
- Drug control – see Cannabis use control
- Drug offences
  - Corby* case, 261
    - Australia/Indonesia co-operation, 261-262
    - fairness of trial, 262
    - international treaties, 261
  - importation of prohibited goods, 55, 60
    - conduct and circumstance, 56, 57, 59
    - extradition, 368-369, 372
    - intention and recklessness, 55, 56, 58-59, 60
  - jury trials, 261
  - right to silence, 251
  - sentencing, 121, 355, 362
    - Corby* case, 261
    - discounts, 358
    - fact finding, 362-363
    - instinctive synthesis, 356, 357, 358, 359
    - risk to offender’s safety, 121
    - two-stage approach, 356, 357-358, 359
  - specialised courts, 6
  - unlawful possession, 250-251
- England and Wales – see United Kingdom
- European arrest warrant
  - operation, 234-235
- European Court of Human Rights
  - United Kingdom, 176-177
- Evidence – see Admissibility of evidence; DNA evidence contamination

Index

---

Australian Crime Commission, 164
bad character evidence, 10-11, 228, 338
    guidance on admissibility, 229-230
non-disclosure of exculpatory evidence, 377
sexual offences (children) inconsistencies, 315-316 silence, 235
    adverse inference, 236
similar fact evidence, 14, 18-19, 338
Victoria, 167
    Chief Examiner, 164-165
    controlled operations, 157

Extradition

abuse of process, 372 double criminality, 369, 370
European arrest warrant, 234-235
Palermo Convention, 349, 351
    conditional operation, 350
    refusal by signatories, 350 prohibited imports, 368, 372 facts of case, 368-369
speciality rule, 369 breach of rule, 370-371
    flexible approach, 371 stay of proceedings, 372, 373

Fairness of trial

accused's right to fair trial, 13, 14, 15, 20
    elements of fair trial, 18 evolution of concept, 16-17
    Internet and, 331-339
    probative value and prejudice, 8-12, 19-20
    public interest, 16-17
    witness anonymity, 17
appeals, 13
    bail pending appeals, 312 characteristics, 332 competing interests, 12, 13
due process, 332
Internet and, 331, 333, 335, 338, 339
    jurors, access by, 333
    jury misconduct, 333
    pre-trial publicity, 335-336
    proposed guidelines, 336-337
    Robots exclusion protocol, 337
    sequestration, 337

miscarriage of justice, 377-378
natural justice, 332
probative value and prejudice, 8, 11-12, 19-20
    illegitimate prejudice, meaning, 9
    improper use of evidence, 19
    similar fact evidence, 14, 18-19
    statutory formulations, 10
    weighing value against prejudice, 11 protection techniques, 338
sexual offences, 6, 7
similar fact evidence, 14, 18-19, 338

Federal offences – see Jury trials (federal offences)

Forensic evidence – see DNA evidence contamination; Sexual offences (children)

Harm – see Consensual harm

Hate crime

increased penalties, 209, 215
psychological severity, 209-210 physical severity, 208, 210, 215, 216 comparison to aggravated assault, 208 statistics, 207-208
social impact, 210

Hate crime legislation – see also Anti-discrimination laws

Australian situation, 213, 214-215 need for legislation, 216 identity politics, 212, 213 impact on legislation, 212, 213 impact on reducing crime, 206
increased penalties, 203, 204, 209, 215 issues arising from, 201-202 justification for, 205 motive, 211, 212, 215 culpability, 212 intention and, 211 operation of legislation, 202
overview, 201
recognisable groups, 216 substantive law, 203-204, 215 symbolic in nature, 205-206, 212 types of legislation, 202
United Kingdom, 204, 205
    increased penalties, 204

- race and religion, 204
  - United States, 202, 204, 205
    - increased penalties, 203
    - legislative language, 203
    - sexual orientation, 202-203
    - substantive law, 203-204
- Hearsay
  - probative value and prejudice, 10, 11
  - provocation defence, 136
- Homicide
  - defence of accident, 252
  - non-disclosure of exculpatory evidence, 377
  - provocation defence, 133, 138
    - abolition in Victoria, 137
      - self-defence alternative, 138
    - hearsay, 136
    - juries, 134-135, 136
    - objective test, 134
    - Ramage* case, 135-137
    - relationship breakdown statistics, 134
- Human rights – see Bill of rights
- Imprisonment – see Bail pending appeal
- Importation of prohibited goods
  - conduct and circumstance, 56, 57, 59
  - extradition, 368-369, 372
  - intention and recklessness, 55, 56, 58-59, 60
- Indefinite detention legislation – see also Preventative detention legislation
  - current State provisions, 95-96
  - High Court's response, 94, 146
    - cautious approach, 97, 98, 99
    - danger to society, meaning, 98
  - historical background, 95-96
  - mental health professionals, 106
    - evidence from, 99
  - policy issues, 105
  - political support, 110
  - predictions of risk, 106
  - principle of proportionality, 96, 98
    - public protection and, 96
  - sexual offenders, 97-98, 101, 365
  - Victorian provisions, 96
    - validity, 96-97
  - Western Australian provisions, 96, 99
    - balance of probabilities approach, 97, 98
- Indian Penal Code
  - consensual harm, 198-200
    - age limits, 199, 200
    - benefit of consenting party, 199-200
    - categories of cases, 198
    - individualistic libertarian position, 198, 199
- Indonesia
  - Bali bombers, 262, 263
    - sentencing, 262
  - bill of rights, 262
  - Corby* case, 261
  - drug trafficking offences, 261
  - legal system, 262, 263
- International treaties
  - drug offences
    - Corby* case, 261
  - organised crime, 340
    - Ad Hoc Committee, 342, 347
    - historical development, 340-342
    - Palermo Convention, 342-354
    - Palermo Convention protocols, 342, 353, 354
- Internet
  - access to legal information, 331, 338
  - control of information, 332
  - CrimeNet, 335
  - fairness of trial, 333, 335, 339
    - pre-trial publicity, 335-336
    - proposed guidelines, 336-337
    - Robots Exclusion Protocol, 337
    - sequestration, 337
  - jurors, access by, 333, 334
  - jury misconduct, 333
- Interpretation – see Statutory interpretation
- Investigative methods – see Covert investigative methods
- Jurisdiction
  - federal jurisdiction, 146
    - State courts, 146-147
- Jury reform
  - jury research, 231
  - persons eligible for service, 230
  - secrecy of deliberations, 230

Jury trials

access to legal information, 331, 334, 338, 339
 CrimeNet, 335
 fairness of trial, 335-336, 339
 jury misconduct, 333
 pre-trial publicity, 335-336
 proposed guidelines, 336-337
 Robots Exclusion Protocol, 337
 sequestration, 337
 drug offences, 261
 provocation defence, 134-135
 sentencing, and, 361, 362, 363, 364
     fact finding, 362, 363
     public confidence, 364, 365
     United States, 364

Jury trials (federal offences)

constitutional triggers, 139 law of the Commonwealth, 140 offence, meaning, 142-144
     trial on indictment, 141-142 empanelment, 152 essential features, 147, 148, 152 constitutional protection, 149, 150 identification, 149 non-essential features, 147 number of jurors, 149, 150, 152 supplementary jurors, 150-151
 offence, meaning, 142 aggravating factors, 142, 143 role of jury and judge, 144
 overview, 139, 152-153
 role of jury, 144, 145, 149
 sequestration, 149
 State courts, 145, 153
     abolition of jury trials, 147
     constitutional scheme, 146
     federal jurisdiction, 146, 147
 supplementary jurors, 150 additional jurors, 151 reserve jurors, 151 trial by jury, meaning, 147 verdicts, 147, 149
 vetting of jurors, 148 waiver of jury, 144-145

Jury warnings or directions

corroboration warnings, 282, 283 forensic disadvantage, 281, 282, 295
Longman warning, 282, 283, 295

additional factors, 285-286
 corroboration, 285
 development by High Court, 284 form of warning, 284
 length of delay, 285
 presumption of innocence, 290, 292
 prejudice to defendant, 286, 295
     failure to provide direction, 289-290 requirements for direction, 286-288 specimen direction, 288-289
 right to silence, 235, 251
 sexual offences (children), 282
     failure to warn, 295
     form of warning, 294
     Longman warning, 282, 283-286, 290, 292
     no prejudice or disadvantage, 294 possibility of prejudice, 293
     prejudice to defendant, 282, 286-290

Law reform

sexual offences, 5-7

Legal professional privilege

Victorian Chief Examiner, 164

Legal systems

Indonesia, 262, 263
 Australia, and, 262, 263

Lie detector examinations – see Polygraph examinations

Magistrates

conduct of magistrates, 122-123

Major Crime (Investigative Powers) Act 2004 (Vic)

accountability, 165
 coercive power orders, 160-161
 examiners and examinations, 155, 161, 162
     Chief Examiner, 161, 163 conduct of examination, 162 videotaping, 165
 evidence, 164-165
 legal professional privilege, 164 organised crime offence, definition, 160
 purpose of Act, 160
 right to silence, 163
 witnesses, 155, 163

- failure to answer questions, 163
- failure to attend examination, 162
- indemnities, 163-164
- oaths or affirmations, 162
- summons, 161
- Manslaughter – see also Death by dangerous driving
  - bail pending appeal, 302
  - criminal negligence, 122, 217, 219, 221, 222, 223
    - breach of duty, 220-221
    - causal connection, 221
    - dangerous things, 217
    - duty of care owed, 219-220
    - standards of proof, 224, 226
  - death not accidental, 217, 218, 221, 222, 223, 224
    - standards of proof, 226
    - test for causation, 218-219
    - unlawful killing, 219
  - Queensland, 217, 222, 223, 224, 227
    - criminal negligence, 219-221
    - death not accidental, 218-219, 221
    - standards of proof, 224, 226
    - two streams of law, 217
      - alternative routes, 223, 224, 225
      - interaction between streams, 221-222
      - mutually exclusive alternatives, 222-223, 224, 225
      - preferred approach, 225-227
- Marriage breakdown – see Provocation defence
- Military justice system
  - complexities of current system, 327
  - constitutional issues, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330
  - historical development, 325
  - Discipline Act, 325-326
  - polygraph examinations, 27
  - Senate Committee Report, 325, 330
    - constitutional issues, 328, 329, 330
    - criminal conduct, 328
    - increased civilian control, 327-328, 329
    - independence of military lawyers, 329-330
    - permanent military court, 328, 330
    - range of offences, 329
    - separation of powers model, 328
  - service tribunals, 326
    - service connection, 326-327
- Minorities – see Anti-discrimination laws; Hate crime legislation
- Model Criminal Code – see also Criminal Code (Cth)
  - adoption by jurisdictions, 265
    - general principles of criminal law, 265-266
    - piecemeal approach, 266
  - codification chapter, 268
  - New South Wales, 275, 276
    - self-defence provisions, 266-267, 276
  - primary goal, 265, 266
  - statutory interpretation, 273
  - underlying principles, 269
- Model Criminal Code Officers Committee
  - concept of codification, 267-268
    - constitutional principle, 269
    - principles of social justice, 268-269
    - underlying principles, 268
  - guiding principle, 265-266
  - historical background, 264
  - statutory interpretation, 273, 275
- Murder – see Homicide
- New South Wales
  - codification of criminal law, 276
    - self-defence provisions, 277, 279
  - Model Criminal Code, 275
    - adopted provisions, 275, 276
  - preventative detention legislation, 99, 104
  - self-defence provisions, 266-267, 276
    - accused's state of mind, 278-279
    - defence, concept, 277
    - infliction, concept, 277, 279
    - intentional or reckless infliction of death, 277-278
    - interpretive difficulties, 277-278
  - Sexual Offences Taskforce, 5, 6
  - sexual offender registration scheme, 100, 365
- New Zealand
  - bail pending appeal, 308
    - exercise of discretion, 309
    - interests of justice, 309, 310
    - just cause for continued detention, 309
    - strength of appeal, 309, 310

- bill of rights, 169, 174, 176, 177, 179
  - entrenched charter proposal, 174
  - history of introduction, 174, 180
  - inconsistent legislation, 175-176
  - parliamentary sovereignty, 174-175

Northern Territory – see also Criminal Code (NT)

- Aboriginal customary law, 37, 44
  - sexual relations with minors, 44
  - traditional punishment, 44-45
- sleeping in a public place, 43-44
- traffic offences, 43
  - vicarious liability, 43

Organised crime – see also Transnational organised crime

- controlled operations, 156
  - exclusion of evidence, 157
  - inducement to commit crime, 157, 158
  - liability of participants, 157
  - reporting obligations, 158
- Major Crime (Investigative Powers) Act 2004 (Vic), 160
  - accountability, 165
  - coercive power orders, 160-161
  - evidence, 164-165
  - examiners and examinations, 155, 162-165
  - legal professional privilege, 164
  - organised crime offence, definition, 160
  - purpose of Act, 160
  - right to silence, 163
  - witnesses, 155, 161, 162, 163-164
- meaning, 155, 166, 167
- physical samples from suspect, 158-159, 233
- Serious Organised Crime Agency, 233
- sting operations, 156
- Victoria, 154
  - accountability, 165, 167
  - assumed identities, 156
  - coercive powers, 166
  - controlled operations, 156-158
  - digital fingerprint scans, 158
  - Director, Police Integrity, 159, 160, 163
  - evidence, 164-165, 168
  - future reforms, 167-168
  - legislative responses, 155-165, 168
  - loss of legal rights, 166-167
  - physical samples from suspect, 158-159

- Police Ombudsman, 158, 159
- prisoners seeking name changes, 160
- rights of citizens, 166
- self-regulation of policing, 166
- Special Investigations Monitor, 159, 160

Plea bargaining agreements

- aiders and abettors, 46, 47
  - principal offenders, and, 47
- fact-finding, 49
- fundamental principles, 48-50
- question as to whether judge bound, 48, 50
- recording agreements, 50
- role of counsel, 49

Police – see also Covert investigative methods; Organised crime

- digital fingerprint scans, 158
- physical samples from suspect, 158
  - reasonable force to obtain, 159

Police conduct

- Director, Police Integrity, 159, 160
- Police Ombudsman, 158
  - abolition of office, 159

Polygraph examinations

- accuracy of tests, 23, 24
- admissibility of evidence, 21, 29, 33, 36
  - Canadian courts, 28-29, 30, 31
  - character evidence, 30, 31
  - credibility of accused, 31
  - expert evidence, 29, 30, 31, 32
    - criteria for recognition, 32
    - ultimate issue rule, 33
  - oath helping, 30
  - other jurisdictions, 29
  - past consistent statements, 30
  - reliability of tests, 31-32, 33-36
  - ultimate issue rule, 28, 33
  - United States courts, 26-28, 32
- criticism of tests, 24-25, 34
- Guilty Knowledge Technique, 25-26
- police use, 29
- Probable Lie Comparison Question Test, 21
  - pre-examination interviews, 21
  - questioning procedure, 22
  - scoring processes, 22
  - studies and testing, 22-23
- reliability of tests, 31-32, 33, 34
  - specific objections, 34-35

- studies and testing, 22-23, 27-28, 35
- United States courts, 26
- general acceptance test, 26
  - jury's role, 27-28
  - military context, 27
  - witness credibility, 28
- Preventative detention legislation – see also Indefinite detention legislation
- classes of offenders, 100, 101-102
  - constitutional validity, 99-100
    - integrity of the court, 102, 103, 104
    - non-judicial function, 99, 100, 104, 105
  - double punishment, 105, 108-109
  - finding of guilt, 105, 109
    - exceptions to general rule, 109
  - High Court's response, 94, 99-100, 103-105, 110
  - immigration detention, 109
  - individual offenders, 99, 100
  - mental health professionals, 106
    - evidence from, 106-107
  - New South Wales, 99, 104
  - periodic review, 104, 105
  - policy issues, 105, 110
  - political support, 110
  - predictions of risk, 104, 105-106
    - mental health professionals, 106-107
    - risk assessment, 106
  - punitive/non-punitive dichotomy, 109-110
  - Queensland, 101
    - comparison to NSW provisions, 104
    - constitutional validity, 102-103
    - operation of provisions, 101
  - sexual offenders, 100, 101-102
  - rule of law, 105, 107
    - trend toward punishment of criminal types, 107-108
  - Victoria, 99
- Prevention of Terrorism Act 2005 (UK)
- control orders, 232, 233
  - foreign terrorist suspects, 231
    - discrimination via nationality, 231, 232
    - indefinite detention, 231
  - overview, 231
  - speed of introduction, 232
- Prison sentences – see Bail pending appeal
- Prisoners
- name changes, 160
- physical samples from suspect, 158
- Privilege against spouse incrimination – see also Legal professional privilege
- abrogation, 185-186
  - claiming the privilege, 185
  - establishment of privilege, 182-183
  - jurisprudential foundation, 183
    - historical references, 183-184
  - nature of privilege, 185
  - Queensland Court of Appeal, 182, 183
    - facts of case, 182
    - Supreme Court decision, 182
  - rationale, 184-185
  - scope of privilege, 185
  - significance, 186
- Provocation defence
- abolition in Victoria, 137
    - self-defence alternative, 138
  - hearsay, 136
  - homicide, 133-138
  - juries, 134-135, 136
  - objective test, 134
  - Ramage* case, 135-137
  - relationship breakdown, 133-138
    - statistics, 134
- Queensland
- manslaughter, 217, 222, 223, 227
    - criminal negligence, 219-221
    - death not accidental, 218-219, 221
    - standards of proof, 224, 226
    - two streams of law, 217
      - alternative routes, 223, 224, 225
      - interaction between streams, 221-222
      - mutually exclusive alternatives, 222-223, 224, 225
      - preferred approach, 225-227
  - preventative detention legislation, 101
    - comparison to NSW provisions, 104
    - operation of provisions, 101
  - privilege against spousal incrimination, 182
    - Court of Appeal decision, 183
    - facts of case, 182
    - Supreme Court decision, 182
  - sexual offenders, 101, 365
- Rape – see Sexual offences

Relationship breakdown – see Provocation defence

Right to silence

adverse inference, 236
 Australian Crime Commission, 163
 directions to jury, 235, 251
 induced confessions, 115
 pre-trial silence, 235-236
 Victoria, 163

Rules of court

Criminal Procedure Rules 2005 (UK), 233
 efficiency of trials, 234

Scrutiny of Bills Committee

Victoria, 172-173

Sentencing – see also Indefinite detention legislation; Preventative detention legislation

aiders and abettors, 46-47
     principal offenders, and, 47-48
 Bali bombers, 262
 death by dangerous driving, 244, 247
     adequacy of sentence, 244, 245, 246
     guidelines, 244, 245, 246
     mitigating factors, 244, 245
     policy issues, 245-246
     prevention of road fatalities, 246
     restorative programs, 246
 drug offences, 121, 355
     Corby case, 261
     discounts, 358
     fact finding, 362-363
     instinctive synthesis, 356, 357, 358, 359
     risk to offender's safety, 121
     two-stage approach, 356, 357-358, 359
 fact-finding, 362-363
 guideline judgments, 362
 guilty plea discounts, 69, 358, 360, 361
     DNA evidence, 86-87
     fast-track plea system, 69
     percentages, 69, 70 instinctive synthesis, 356, 357, 358, 359, 361
     basis of approach, 359 juries, and, 361, 362, 363, 364
     fact finding, 362, 363
     public confidence, 364, 365
     United States, 364

multiple offences, 51
     commonality of elements, 52, 53 double jeopardy rule, 53, 54 double punishment rule, 51, 52, 53, 54 single transaction rule, 51, 53 totality principle, 51, 52-53
 plea bargaining agreements, 46, 47
     fundamental principles, 48-50
     question as to whether judge bound, 48, 50
     recording agreements, 50
 public concerns, 361
 public confidence, 362, 364, 365
 sex offenders, 365
     extended supervision orders, 365, 366, 367
 two-stage approach, 356, 357-358
     proportionality, 359 starting point, 358, 359, 360 susceptibility to error, 358, 359

Sexual offences – see also Sexual offenders

Aboriginal customary law, 44
 act, definition, 37-42, 237, 238, 239, 240-242
     actus reus, 39, 41
     event or act, 42, 240, 241
     ordinary meaning, 41
     wide interpretation, 240, 241, 243 belief in consent, 6 conviction rates, 6 fair trial, 6, 7
 law reform, 5-7
 NSW Sexual Offences Taskforce, 5, 6 pre-trial procedure, 5
 rape, definition, 6
 sexual intercourse without consent, 37, 38, 43, 237
     act, definition, 37-42, 237, 238, 239, 240-243
     event, meaning, 41, 42, 240
     intention or recklessness, 237-238, 239, 241
     legislative intent, 39-40
     mens rea, 239, 242
     mistake of fact, 240
     other State Codes, implications, 241, 242, 243
     state of things, meaning, 42-43
 specialised courts, 5, 6

Sexual offences (children)

- absence of evidence, 282
- bail pending appeal, 313, 314
  - appeal outcomes, 300-301
- corroboration, 282, 283, 285, 300
- cross-examination, 291-292
- forensic disadvantage, 281, 282, 295
  - critics of presumption of, 292, 293
  - effect of delay, 291
  - presumption of innocence, 290, 292
- inconsistencies in evidence, 315-316
- jury warnings or directions, 282, 283-286, 290, 292
  - failure to warn, 295
  - form of warning, 294
  - no prejudice or disadvantage, 294
  - possibility of prejudice, 293
  - prejudice to defendant, 282, 286-290
- Longman* warning, 282, 283, 295
  - additional factors, 285-286
  - corroboration, 285
  - development by High Court, 284
  - form of warning, 284
  - length of delay, 285
  - presumption of innocence, 290, 292
- prejudice to defendant, 282, 286, 295
  - failure to provide direction, 289-290
  - requirements for jury direction, 286-288
  - specimen direction, 288-289

Sex offenders

- consequences for victims, 367
- extended supervision, 365, 366, 367
  - applications for orders, 366
  - support for scheme, 366
- indefinite detention, 97-98, 101, 365
- preventative detention, 100, 101-102, 367
- public perceptions, 367
- registration scheme, 100, 365
- risk of recidivism, 366-367

Spouse privilege – see Privilege against spouse incrimination*State courts – see also Indefinite detention legislation

- abolition of jury trials, 147
- constitutional scheme, 146
- federal jurisdiction, 146-147

Statutory interpretation

- Crimes Act 1900 (NSW), 271

- self-defence provisions, 277-278
- Criminal Code (ACT), 275
- criminal codes, 266, 267, 271, 273, 275, 279
  - common law, 273, 274, 275
  - construction of provisions, 271-273
- Draft Code, England and Wales, 274-275
- criminal statutes, 266, 267, 270
  - common law, 270-271
- Model Criminal Code, 273

Terrorism – see also Prevention of Terrorism Act 2005 (UK)

- Bali bombers, 262-263
  - sentencing, 262
- harming Australians offences, 262

Traffic offences

- vicarious liability, 43

Transnational organised crime

- Ad Hoc Committee, 342
  - sanctions against typical offences, 347
- demand aspect, 353
- international treaties, 340, 342
  - historical development, 340-342
  - Palermo Convention, 342-354
- Naples Declaration, 341
- organised crime offences, 346
  - proof required, 346
- organised criminal groups, 343
  - aim to commit crime, 344-345
  - definition, 343-345
  - financial or material benefit, 345
  - liability pre-crime, 346
  - period of existence, 344
- Palermo Convention, 342, 347, 353, 354
  - application of provisions, 353
  - concept of organised crime, 343, 345-346
  - confiscation of assets, 352
  - corruption, 349
  - extension of criminal liability, 347
  - extradition, 349, 351
    - conditional operation, 350
    - refusal by signatories, 350
  - implementation, 353, 354
  - international cooperation, 349
  - law enforcement, 351-352, 353
  - main goals, 343
  - money laundering, 348-349
  - mutual legal assistance, 351

Index

---

- organised crime offences, 346
- organised criminal groups, 343-345
- prevention of crime, 347-348
- seizure of assets, 352
- transfer of proceedings, 351
- witness and victim protection, 352
- Palermo Convention protocols, 342, 353, 354
- World Ministerial Conference, 340-341

Trials – see also Fairness of trial; Jury trials

- efficiency of trials, 234

United Kingdom

- bad character evidence, 10-11, 228, 338
  - guidance on admissibility, 229-230
- bill of rights, 176, 179
  - adoption of NZ model, 177
  - history of introduction, 176-177
- consensual harm, 197
- Criminal Justice Act 2003, 228
  - bad character evidence, 228, 229
  - jury reform, 230
- criminal justice system, 228
- Criminal Procedure Rules 2005, 233
  - efficiency of trials, 234
- Draft Criminal Code, 274
  - statutory interpretation, 274-275
- European arrest warrant, 234
  - operation, 234-235
- European Court of Human Rights, 176-177
- hate crime legislation, 204, 205
  - increased penalties, 204
  - race and religion, 204
- jury reform, 230
- jury research, 231
- Prevention of Terrorism Act 2005, 231
  - control orders, 232, 233
  - discrimination via nationality, 231, 232
- Serious Organised Crime Agency, 233
- sexual offences (children), 282, 295
  - jury directions, 286-288
    - failure to provide, 289-290
    - specimen direction, 288-289
  - prejudice to defendant, 282, 286
- silence, 235
  - adverse inference, 236
  - directions to jury, 235

United States

- hate crime legislation, 202, 204, 205
  - increased penalties, 203
  - legislative language, 203
  - sexual orientation, 202-203
- substantive law, 203-204

Victoria

- bill of rights, 169, 173, 174, 179
  - declaratory approach, 170-171, 172
  - dialogue model, 179, 181
  - Justice Statement, 170-171, 180-181
  - previous attempts at introduction, 171-174
- homicide
  - provocation defence, 133-138
- indefinite detention legislation, 96
  - validity of provisions, 96-97
- Major Crime (Investigative Powers) Act 2004, 160
  - accountability, 165
  - coercive power orders, 160-161
  - evidence, 164-165
  - examiners and examinations, 155, 161-165
  - legal professional privilege, 164
  - organised crime offence, definition, 160
  - purpose of Act, 160
  - right to silence, 163
  - witnesses, 155, 161, 162, 163-164
- organised crime, 154
  - accountability, 165, 167
  - coercive powers, 166
  - controlled operations, 156-158
  - digital fingerprint scans, 158
  - Director, Police Integrity, 159, 160, 163
  - evidence, 164-165, 168
  - future reforms, 167-168
  - legislative responses, 155-165, 168
    - loss of legal rights, 166-167
  - meaning, 155, 166, 167
  - physical samples from suspect, 158-159
  - Police Ombudsman, 158, 159
  - prisoners seeking name changes, 160
  - rights of citizens, 166
  - self-regulation of policing, 166
  - Special Investigations Monitor, 159, 160
  - sting operations, 156
- preventative detention legislation, 99
- Scrutiny of Bills Committee, 172

- functions, 173
- sex offenders, 365
  - extended supervision orders, 365, 366, 367

Victorian Law Reform Commission

- provocation defence, 137
  - self-defence alternative, 138
- sexual offences, 5
  - belief in consent, 6
  - fair trial, 7
  - rape, definition, 6

Western Australia

- indefinite detention legislation, 96, 99
  - balance of probabilities approach, 97, 98

Witnesses

- Palermo Convention, 352
- Victorian Chief Examiner, 155, 163
  - failure to answer questions, 163
  - failure to attend examination, 162
  - oaths or affirmations, 162
  - summons, 161

Words and phrases – see also Definitions

- event, meaning, 41, 42
- illegitimate prejudice, 9
- state of things, 42-43