Style

1. Headings: Levels of headings should be clearly indicated (no more than four levels).

  - Case citation follows case name. Where a case is cited in the text, the citation should follow immediately rather than as a footnote.
  - Give at least two and preferably all available citations, the first being the authorised reference.
  - Australian citations should appear in the following order: authorised series; Lawbook Co./ATP series; other company series (ie, CCH, Butterworths); media neutral citation.
  - “At” references should only refer to the best available citation, eg: Mabo v Queensland [No 2] (1992) 175 CLR 1 at 34; 66 ALJR 408; 107 ALR 1.
  - Where only a media neutral citation is available, “at” references should be to paragraph, eg: YG & GG v Minister for Community Services [2002] NSWCA 247 at [19].
  - For international cases best references only should be included.
3. Legislation: should be cited as follows:
  - Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth), s 51AC.
  - For legislation references in footnotes repeat the full citation.
4. Books
  - Books should be cited as follows: Macken JJ, O’Grady P, Sappideen C and Warburton G, The Law of Employment (5th ed, Lawbook Co., 2002) p 55.
  - In footnotes do not use ibid or op cit. The following style is preferred:
