
Index

- Aboriginal people see Indigenous Australians
in conflict coaching, 116
- Academics in law schools publications and research in ADR, 139–140 reluctance to teach ADR, 70–72
- Access to Justice Arrangements report
ADR in, 218–225
- ACICA
arbitration rules amended, 208
- Agreement to mediate
when does it cease, 3–7
- Alternative/appropriate dispute resolution (ADR)
see also Med–arb
conflict coaching, 38–43
endorsed by litigation, 218–225
faith-based, 226–231
for franchising disputes, 96
law courses omit training in, 64–74 overseas trends in, 211–217 practitioners of in Los Angeles, 125–126 training for change agents in, 72 use of intervention orders in, 156–167
‘zombie’ mediations, 104–110
- Approach behaviour
neurology of, 252–254
- Apunipima Cape York Health Council
conflict coaching program, 42
- Arbitration see also Med–arb
ACICA amends rules on, 208
by faith-based courts and tribunals, 228–229
for franchising disputes, 98
international, 192–197
med–arb in Hong Kong, 9–19
status of ongoing arbitration under new law, 192
Supreme Court of Victoria amends rules on, 207–208
- Associations
religious disputes relating to, 229–230
- Attachment theory
‘mind whispering’ theory, 113
- Australia
commercial dispute resolution, 200–207
international arbitration in, 192
- Avoidance behaviour
neurology of, 254–256
- BATNA (Best Alternative to a Negotiated Agreement)
in cases of power imbalance, 90
- Bennett-Goleman, Tara
‘mind whispering’ theory, 112
- Bieber, Justin
ordered to attend mediation, 59–60
- Binion, Jeffrey
allegations against Justin Bieber, 59–60
- Brain modes
practitioners’ role in changing, 111–118
- Broadmeadows Family Relationship Centre
evaluation of, 29–37
- Calderbank offer
indemnity costs under, 123–125
- Case management
ADR and, 219–223
- Casenotes
intervening in mediation, 187–190
- Child support arrangements
in misattributed paternity disputes, 134–135
- Children
participation in family dispute resolution, 168–177
- China
judicial mediation in, 210–217
use of med–arb in, 17–18
- China–Australia Free Trade Agreement
ISDS provisions in, 205–206
- Circuit trials
in China, 211–213
- Civil Justice Reform, Hong Kong
effects of, 12–13
- Clients
accommodating mediation practice to, 143–144 conflict coaching for, 111–118
expectations and experience, 237–240 feedback on mediation from, 49 importance of rapport with, 115
in telephone mediation, 147–148, 154
intervention orders encouraging, 156–167
‘zombie’ mediations by, 104–110
- Closure
family ADR clients seeking, 237–238
- Coaching relationship see Conflict coaching
- Cognitive therapy
‘mind whispering’ theory, 112
- Collaborative law
in family dispute resolution, 178–184
- Commercial dispute resolution
AFL doping allegations, 200–207 coverage of, 227–228
pilots’ dispute, 7–8
- Common law
judicial mediation and, 213–217
- Communication media
mediation and, 149, 152–153
- ‘Competent courts’
not specified for Model Law, 194
- Complaints
how to avoid, 48–49
- Conciliation
decision not to order, 121–123
- Confidentiality issues
arbitration law reform and, 194
- Conflict coaching

- in Indigenous Australian settings, 38–43
- role for in collaborative law, 184
- skill building in, 116
- supporting clients with, 111–118
- sustainability in, 116–117
- Contracts
 - evidence of intention to enter, 72–85
 - in collaborative law, 182
 - in faith-based ADR, 230–231
- Costs
 - applied to intervention orders, 161–162
- Court of Arbitration for Sport
 - appeal to in AFL doping case, 202
- Court orders
 - for evidence in foreign-seated arbitrations, 195
- Court-assisted ADR
 - in China, 211–213
 - launched in regional South Africa, 60–61
- Courts
 - can they review decisions of religious tribunals?, 226–231
- Cultural issues
 - different negotiating styles, 49
 - ‘dispute resolution’ and, 39–40
 - faith-based ADR, 226–231
 - in telephone mediation, 149, 151–152
 - resistance to teaching ADR, 70
- Culturally and linguistically diverse communities
 - family dispute resolution in, 26–37
- Decision-making
 - psychology of, 249–250
- Deed of settlement
 - binding nature of, 3–7
- Dispute resolution see also Alternative/appropriate dispute resolution (ADR); Arbitration; Mediation; Negotiation
 - continuum of options for, 44–45
 - in business format franchising, 94–103
- Domestic violence
 - resolution of by family relationship centres, 26–37
- Duty of care
 - in faith-based ADR, 230–231
- Education
 - about ADR, 224–225
- Emergency arbitrator awards
 - enforcement of, 195
- Emotion
 - effect of mood on negotiation, 52–54
 - emotional intelligence, 55–56
 - in mediation, 241–248
 - in negotiation, 51–56
 - reflecting on, 115–116
- Empowerment
 - coaching facilitates, 41–42, 115
- England see United Kingdom
- Ethics
 - in conflict coaching, 42
 - mediation community and, 20–25
- Evidence
 - of intention to enter contract, 72–85
 - onus of under new arbitration law, 194–195
- Exercise of power
 - in principled negotiation, 88–90
- Expert knowledge
 - held by mediators, 138–139
- Explicit memory
 - defined, 250
- Facilitative mediation
 - self-development in, 44–50
- Fair Work Ombudsman
 - records broken by mediators for, 60–61
- Faith-based ADR
 - options for review of, 226–231
- Family dispute resolution (FDR)
 - children’s participation in, 168–177
 - collaborative law in, 178–184
 - family violence intervention orders, 156–167
 - in diverse communities, 26–37
 - in Los Angeles, options for, 125–126
 - mediation in, 46–48
 - misattributed paternity disputes, 127–136
 - Productivity Commission recommendations, 224
 - property division, 232–240
- Family relationship centres
 - evaluation of, 26–37
- Fatherhood see Paternity disputes
- Federal Court
 - as sole intermediate appellate court, 196
- Feelings see Emotion
- Feminist critique
 - of family violence mediation, 164–165
- Four-way meetings
 - for practitioners and clients, 183
- Franchising
 - dispute resolution in, 94–103
- ‘Genuine effort’ requirement
 - failure to define, 47
- Government
 - greater use of ADR by recommended, 223
- Hong Kong
 - ADR in, 217
 - readiness for med-arb, 9–19
- Implicit memory
 - defined, 250–251
- Indemnity costs
 - under Calderbank offer, 123–125
 - under new arbitration law, 196
- Indigenous Australians
 - conflict coaching for, 38–43
- Information about ADR
 - making available, 224–225
- Interest-based dispute management

-
- realigned approach to, 99–102
 - International Mediation Centre
 - opens in Singapore, 8
 - Intervention orders
 - applications for increasing, 156–167
 - Iraqi immigrants
 - experience of family violence, 29–37
 - ISDS provisions
 - in trade agreements, 205–207
 - Judges see also Practitioners of ADR
 - active case management by, 221–222
 - in faith-based ADR, 230–231
 - propriety of judicial mediation, 210–217
 - Kinship relations
 - in conflict coaching, 41
 - Law schools
 - ADR neglected in, 64–74
 - Learning
 - psychology of, 249–250
 - Lebanese immigrants
 - experience of family violence, 29–37
 - Legal training see Law schools
 - Listening by practitioners
 - importance of, 115
 - Litigation
 - for franchising disputes, 98
 - role of ADR in, 218–225
 - Los Angeles, USA
 - finding ADR practitioners in, 125–126
 - Ma Xiwu adjudication style, 210–211
 - Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs
 - interest-based dispute management, 100–101
 - Med–arb
 - in England and Wales, 9–12
 - in Hong Kong, 12–19
 - under new arbitration law, 195–196
 - Mediation see also Med–arb
 - artistry in, 137–145
 - as alternative to intervention orders, 156–167
 - by parties not expecting to settle, 104–110
 - by telephone, 146–155
 - children's participation in, 168–177
 - conflict coaching based on, 38
 - emotion in, 241–248
 - ethics and the mediation community, 20–25
 - experience of rated by clients, 238–240
 - for Fair Work Ombudsman, 60–61
 - for franchising disputes, 98–99
 - genuine, proposed fee waiver for, 161
 - in commercial pilots' dispute, 7–8
 - intentions to be bound by, 72–85
 - intervening in, 187–190
 - judicial, propriety of, 210–217
 - Justin Bieber ordered to attend, 59–60
 - launched in regional South Africa, 60–61
 - legal status of third parties to, 57–59
 - mediation media watch, 191
 - neuroscience applied to, 249–258
 - power imbalances in negotiation, 86–93
 - self-development in, 44–50
 - timing of, 235
 - when does agreement to mediate cease?, 3–7
 - Mediation–arbitration see Med–arb
 - Memory
 - understanding, 250–252
 - Mental health professionals
 - in misattributed paternity disputes, 132–133
 - Mental rehearsal
 - in conflict coaching, 116
 - 'Mind whispering'
 - theory of, 112
 - Mood
 - effect on negotiation, 52–54
 - National Mediator Accreditation System
 - accreditation under, 45–46
 - Negative jurisdictional rulings
 - arbitration law reform and, 195
 - Negotiation
 - cultural issues, 49
 - for franchising disputes, 99
 - principled, power imbalances in, 86–93
 - role of emotion in, 51–56
 - Nelson, Felicity
 - article on wording of ADR proposals, 191
 - Neuroscience
 - mediation and, 249–258
 - 'mind whispering' theory, 113–114
 - Parties to ADR see Clients; Practitioners of ADR
 - Paternity disputes
 - biological testing of paternity, 130
 - misattributed paternity, 127–136
 - resolution of, 130–131
 - Personal safety intervention orders
 - coping with demand for, 156–167
 - Perth Centre for Energy and Resources
 - Arbitration, 208
 - Pilots' dispute
 - mediation of, 7–8
 - Power imbalances
 - in collaborative law, 181, 183
 - principled negotiation and, 86–93
 - telephone mediation can offset, 147
 - Practitioners of ADR see also Judges
 - academic training for limited, 64–74
 - artistry of, 137–145
 - assessment and development of, 44–50
 - collaborative practice by, 127–136
 - conflict coaching by, 111–118
 - in Los Angeles, attitudes to, 125–126
 - in 'zombie' mediations, 108–109
 - lives of improved by collaborative law, 180
 - representing children in family mediation, 170

- Pre-action requirements
 - ADR and, 224
- Pre-mediation stages
 - use of telephone in, 153–154
- Principled negotiation see Negotiation
- Productivity Commission
 - Access to Justice Arrangements* report, 218–225
- Property division
 - in family dispute resolution, 232–240
- Protective behaviours
 - neurology of, 256–258
- Public mediation
 - right to, 187–190
- Reflection
 - for mediation practitioners, 49
 - on artistry in mediation, 137–145
 - on emotions, 115–116
- Registrars
 - decision not to order conciliation, 121–123
- Religious tribunals and courts of law see
 - Faith-based ADR
- Rights-based dispute resolution
 - for franchising disputes, 96–97
- Singapore
 - International Mediation Centre, 8
- Skype
 - mediation via, 154–155
- South Africa
 - regional, mediation launched in, 60–61
- Southwest Airlines
 - pilots' dispute, 7–8
- Stokoe, Elizabeth
 - research on wording of ADR proposals, 191
- Subject-to-contract agreements
 - legal status of, 72–85
- Supreme Court of Victoria
 - arbitration rules amended, 207–208
- Sydney Family Law Settlement Service
 - cases dealt with by, 232–240
- Technological change
 - in mediation channels, 152
- Telephone mediation
 - non-verbal cues missing in, 148–151
 - pros and cons of, 146–155
- Third parties to mediation
 - legal status of, 57–59
- Trade agreements
 - ISDS provisions in, 205–207
- Training for ADR
 - omitted from law degrees, 64–74
- Trans-Pacific Partnership
 - ISDS provisions in, 206
- Turkish immigrants
 - experience of family violence, 29–37
- UNCITRAL Model Law
 - ability to opt out of removed, 192
- United Kingdom
 - ADR in, 215–216
 - mediation in, 9–12
- United States
 - ADR in, 214–215
- Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal
 - study of mediation practice, 140
- Victorian Law Reform Commission
 - recommends case management, 220–221
- Victorian Magistrates' Court
 - intervention orders granted by, 156–167
- Women, violence against
 - resolution of by family relationship centres, 26–37
- 'Zombie' mediations
 - by parties not expecting to settle, 104–110