

---

Index

---

Access to documents

notice to parties of, 134-140

Adducing evidence

from an alternate expert witness, 249-254

Administrators, appointment of – see Case guardians

Admissibility

family counselling and FDR provisions, 213-226

Advancement of money

contributions not reflected in shares held in property purchased, 255-261 presumption of, 255-261 whether claims for repayment of were statute barred, 255-261

Adversarial experts – see Expert witnesses

Age factors

in determining property settlements, 85-87

Annulments

of marriages made overseas, 127

Appeals

appellate intervention principles, 146 case guardians' role in, 100-107 return of child to Australia required if appeal successful, 268-275

Applications

to appoint a case guardian, 108-109

Apprehended bias

of trial judge, 262-267

Australian Taxation Office

access of to Family Court documents, 134-140 income details supplied by, 46-47

Bankruptcy

impact of on prior property settlement, 206-210

Best interests of the child

determination of forum and, 262-267 paramount in decision making, 151 transgender minors, 241-242

Capital

division of in property settlements, 78

Case guardians

appointment of, 114-116
legal incapacity and, 25-44, 90-121
necessity for court order appointing, 110-112

Child abuse – see also Family violence

law reform relating to, 3-24

Child protection convention

ensuring compliance with, 268-275 undertaking to return child to Australia if appeal successful, 268-275 whether registration of an undertaking sufficient measure of protection, 268-275

Child support

income in formula for, 45-48 leave to appeal from order for, 141-146 without determination of parenting arrangements, 141-146

Children – see also Best interests of the child; Family violence; Minors

after death of custodial parent, 64-67 capacity to consent determined by health practitioners, 232-236 father's time with suspended in interests of, 193 law reform relating to abuse, 3-24 orders for return of children outside Australia, 262-267 post-separation care under Family Law Act, 150-169 relationships with both parents, 268-275 role in custodial decisions, 64-67 role of deceased parent's sibling in custodial decisions, 64-67

Children's Needs Project, 153-154

Commissioner of Taxation – see Australian Taxation Office

Commonwealth Attorney-General

powers to appoint case guardian, 118

Community perceptions

of family law, 154-155

Confidentiality

family counselling and FDR provisions, 213-226
of trust documents, strategies to preserve, 188-189

Consent

Gillick competence determined by the medical profession, 232-236 recognition of overseas marriages contingent on, 127

Contested proceedings permission to adduce evidence from an alternate expert witness, 249-254

Convention on...the Protection of Children (1996)

– see Child Protection Convention

Counselling – see Family counselling*Court proceedings – see also Confidentiality appointing case guardians, 110-112 maintaining the welfare jurisdiction in relation to disagreements, 244-245 subjecting a child's identity to court deliberation, 245-246 to consent to cross-sex hormone treatments for transgender children, 227-248

Credibility of husband

no reasons given for determining, 141-146

Cross-sex hormone treatments – see Transgender minors*Custodial decisions – see Parenting arrangements*De facto relationships determination of, 68-73 property interests may alter due to changes in, 81

Declarations of validity

overseas marriages and divorces, 131

Department of Human Services

referral of parties to, 262-267

Department of Immigration and Citizenship

referral of parties to, 262-267

Disability

defined, 41
 mental illness, legal capacity and, 25-44

Disclosure – see Confidentiality*Discretionary trusts – see Trusts*Dispute resolution – see Family dispute resolution*Divorce – see also Separated families costs of retraining for employment after, 143, 145 following long separation, property settlements in, 52-57 overseas, recognition of, 128-129, 131 property interests may alter due to, 80-83

Domestic violence – see Family violence*Domicile

jurisdiction issues and, 49-50

Electronic communication

attendance at litigation by, 191-192

Evidence – see also Expert witnesses overseas law relating to, 191

Expert witnesses

expert evidence presented by father seeking reinstatement of time with children, 197-198 failure to appoint a second single expert, 271 methods for clarifying the evidence of single experts, 250-251 permission to adduce evidence from an alternate expert witness where a single expert has already been appointed, 249-254

Face-to-face mediation

in family dispute cases, 122-123

Family counselling

confidentiality and admissibility provisions, 213-226
 FDR distinguished, 214-215

Family Court

case guardians appointed by, 116-118 Taxation Office access to documents of, 134-140 whether empowered to enforce "right" to trust documents, 183-188

Family Court of Western Australia

execution of undertaking to return child to Australia if appeal successful, 268-275

Family dispute resolution attendance at compulsory, 11-13

 confidentiality and admissibility provisions, 213-226 family counselling distinguished, 214-215 family relationships sector, 160 impact of use of, 7
 mediation technologies, 122-124

Family dispute resolution – *continued

screening processes for, 19-21

Family Law Act 1975 (Cth)

confidentiality and admissibility provisions, 213-226

Pt VII, capacity to function as required, 150-169

s 10, proposed amendments, 225-226 ss 10d and 10h: confidentiality, 215-217 ss 10e and 10j: admissibility, 217-218

s 60CC(3), appeal on grounds of failure to address, 198-199

s 65DAA, what it means to “consider”, 193

s 68B, order restraining father from leaving Australia pursuant to s 68B and not s 114, 262-267

s 75(2) factors, 77-89

s 102Q, vexatious proceedings limited by, 170-182

s 118 replaced by new s 102Q, 171

Family Law Amendment (Family Violence and other Measures Act) 2011

as response to evidence, 152 reforms in, 3-24

Family violence

confidentiality of counselling and FDR and, 213-226 expanded definition of, 9

law reform relating to, 3-24

Federal Circuit Court

appeals against decisions of Federal Magistrate, 201-205, 206-210 jurisdiction and powers of, 71-72

Financial matters

appeal against court’s assessment of, 141-146

failure to consider financial resources, 52-57

Federal Circuit Court can order statement of, 72 financial capacity as barrier to litigation, 28 in de facto relationships, 68-73

marital disparities in, 83-85

Forced and servile marriages

protection from, 131-133

Foreign Affairs and Trade Department

use of to serve process overseas, 190-191

Foreign law

requirements of in serving process, 189-192

Foreign marriages and divorces – see Overseas marriages and divorces

Forum

correct test for determination of, 262-267 test of forum non conveniens or best interests of the child, 262-267

Freedom of movement

father restrained from leaving Australia, 262-267

“Friendly parent” provision in family law, 5, 10

Gender dysphoria – see also Transgender minors

defined, 228

relevance of Marion principles to treatments for, 236-238

Gifts

presumption of advancement, 255-261

Gillick competence

medical profession decisions regarding, 232-236 transgender minors’ access to hormone treatments and, 227-248

Goode path

implications of for family law, 13-16, 18, 21-24

Guardianship – see also Case guardians; Parental responsibility

legal capacity and, 40-41

“Habitual residence”

defining, 51

Hague Marriage Convention

recognition of overseas marriages and divorces, 125-133

Hague Service Convention

where it applies, 189-190

Harm

emphasis on in family law, 10

Health practitioners

court authorisation in order to consent to cross-sex hormone treatments for their transgender

children, 227-248

Gillick competence determined by the medical profession, 232-236

Health status

in determining property settlements, 85-87

High Court

application for special leave to appeal to, 268-275 on the alteration of title, 80

powers to appoint case guardian, 118

Identity

court authorisation in order to consent to treatments for transgender children, 227-248

“Implied jurisdiction” – see “Inherent jurisdiction”*Imprisonment of husband for contravening settlement orders, 206-210

Incapacity – see Legal incapacity*Income level in formula for child support, 45-48

marital disparities in, 83-85

orders for maintenance and child support in excess of, 141-146

Indigent persons

barriers to litigation by, 28

“Inherent jurisdiction”

of courts of limited jurisdiction, 68-73

Injunction

power to make an injunction that directly affects a parent and their right of movement, 262-267

Interim hearings

correct tests must be applied in, 262-267

Interlocutory proceedings

before de facto relationship determined, 68-73

International relocation

execution of undertaking to return child to Australia if appeal successful, 268-275

father restrained from leaving Australia, 262-267

substantive orders allowing international relocation of child by mother to Germany, 268-275

Interstate service of process guardianship or administration orders, 119-120

on persons lacking legal capacity, 100-102

Intervenor

characterisation of advancement of money by intervenor, 255-261

Investment decisions

property settlements following, 58-63

Judicial intervention – see Court proceedings*Jurisdiction issues domicile, residence and nationality and, 49-51 forum disputes involving divorces, 129-131

“inherent jurisdiction”, 68-73

persons lacking legal capacity, 96-97

Law reform

relating to family violence, 3-24

Lawyers

for persons lacking legal capacity, 43 on client misperceptions of “equal shared responsibility”, 158-160 work done on family disputes, 165-168

Legal incapacity

case guardians and, 25-44, 90-121 challenging finding of, 109-110 establishing, 112-114

tests for, 26-29, 33-38

Legislation

definition of mental illness in, 41-42

powers to grant interlocutory injunctions, 70-71

Limitation periods

parental claims against property of their children, 259-260

Litigation

attendance at by electronic communication, 191-192 challenges for decision-making, 156-158 father’s contact with children suspended during, 194-195 legal incapacity and engagement in, 36-38

new powers to manage vexatious proceedings, 170-182 transient incapacity as barrier to, 29

Loans

when a cause of action for recovery of money loaned arose, 255-261 where the loan contract provided that funds were payable on demand, 255-261

Marion principles

for special medical procedures, 240-244 relevance to treatments for gender dysphoria, 236-238

Marital status

court may alter property interests due to, 80-82 recognition of overseas marriages and divorces, 125-133

Matrimonial causes

jurisdiction issues, 49

Mediation

confidentiality and admissibility provisions, 213-226
technologies available for, 122-124

Medical procedures – see Health practitioners;
Special medical procedures

Mental illness

defined, 41
legal capacity and, 25-44

“Message sending” legislation problems arising from, 162-164

Minors

overseas marriages made by, 125-126 service of notice on, 97-98 transgender minors – see Transgender minors

Mortgaged properties

role of in property settlement, 206-207

Nationality of persons

jurisdiction issues and, 50

Notice

of appeal, service of, 104-107 service of on persons lacking legal capacity, 96-99 service of overseas, 189-192

Online mediation

in family dispute cases, 123-124

Overseas marriages and divorces

recognition of, 125-133

Overseas service of process

on persons lacking legal capacity, 100-102
requirements for, 189-192

Parens patriae doctrine

legal capacity and, 38-40

Parental responsibility court’s welfare jurisdiction and, 229-230 limits of, 229-232

Re Jamie, 230-232
transgender minors’ access to hormone treatments and, 227-248

Parenting arrangements

after death of custodial parent, 64-67 courts’ discretion with regard to, 13-17 emphasis on harm prevention, 10 father appeals against suspension of time with children, 193-200
parties not natural parents of the child, 65-66 perceptions of “equal shared responsibility”, 154-155

Parents of separated couples

making claims against the marital property, 255-261

Plural marriages (polygamy)

amendments to Marriage Act block recognition of, 127-128

Poverty

lack of financial capacity vs, 28

Prejudgment

apprehended bias or prejudice, 262-267

Procedural fairness

referral of parties to Department of Immigration, 262-267

Procedural requirements

legal incapacity and, 91-92

Property interests

advancement of money – see Advancement of money

Property settlements

appeals against, 201-205, 206-210 circumstances of marital relationship in, 77-89 constitutional context of, 79-81 following good investment decision, 58-63 “four-step process” in, 54 in long-separated family, 52-57 percentage-based adjustments in, 79 presumption of advancement of money, 255-261 s 75(2) adjustments, 52-57, 77-89

Reasonable practicality judicial requirement to consider, 197-198

Relatives

role of aunt in custodial decisions, 64-67

Relocation – see International relocation*Research into results of Family Law Act Pt VII, 152-153

Residence, country of

jurisdiction issues and, 51

Restitution principle

in appeal against property settlement, 201-205

Rules of court

legal incapacity and, 92-100

Same-sex unions

failing to recognise breaches Hague Convention, 127-128

Separated families – see also Divorce

post-separation childcare, 150-169 prevalence of violence in, 4, 7-8 property settlements after long separation, 52-57

Service of notice – see Notice*Servile marriages

protection from, 131-133

Shared care arrangements

courts obligated to consider, 16-17

Slip rule

as basis of appeal for return of property settlement, 204-205

Special medical procedures

court authorisation to consent to cross-sex hormone treatments for transgender children, 227-248 Marion principles for, 240-244

“Special skill” and “special contributions” caution against application of doctrine of, 58-63 making good investment claimed to be, 58-63

Spousal maintenance order

leave to appeal from, 141-146

Standard of living

as factor in property settlements, 85

Standard of proof

failure to consider, 208

Stay applications

stay of orders concerning a child, 268-275 stay of proceedings may be made if proceedings found vexatious, 180-181

Subpoenas

for documents of discretionary trusts, 183-188

Subsidiary legislation

rules of court as, 94-96

“Substantial and significant time” orders suspended during litigation, 193

Superannuation

in property settlements, 58-63, 87, 201-205
s 75(2) factors in determining settlement of, 87

Taxation audit

Family Court documents accessed for purpose of, 134-140

Telephone mediation

in family dispute cases, 123

Transgender minors

best interests of the child, 241-242
parental responsibility, Gillick competence, and access to hormone treatments, 227-248 subjecting a child’s identity to court deliberation, 245-246
transgender defined, 228

Trusts

beneficiaries’ right to documents relating to, 183-188 partners to, separation of, 52-57 presumption of resulting trust, 258

Vexatious proceedings

new powers to manage, 170-182

Violence – see Family violence