
Index

Aboriginal people

- cultural needs, 221-222
- imprisonment (book review), 71

Abuse of process

- courts' jurisdiction to avoid, 259-262

Access to courts

- constitutional right, 236-264
 - arguments against restrictions, 238-264
 - courts' constitutional role, 258-259
 - courts' institutional integrity, 258
 - courts' jurisdiction to avoid abuse of process, 259-262
 - direct implication of right to access courts based on Ch III, 250-254
 - equality and Constitution, 244-250
 - fairness, 262-264
 - implied freedom of political communication, 254-258
 - rule of law, 239-244
- historical context and current restrictions, 237-238

Access to justice

- cultural diversity, 214-215
- Productivity Commission Inquiry, 219-220

Australasian Institute of Judicial Administration (AIJA)

- conference papers – see Self-represented litigants

Bench Books

- cultural diversity, 220-221

Book reviews

- Arresting Incarceration: pathways out of Indigenous imprisonment (Weatherburn), 71
- Australian Feminist Judgments: righting and rewriting law (ed Douglas et al), 196

Case note

- Ecclestone case in Germany, 129-131

Chief Justices

- relationship with CEOs, 108-117
 - challenges of courts and external factors, 111-112
 - factors affecting partnership, 109
 - making partnership work, 112-116
 - partnership's structure, 109-111
 - partnerships theory, 108-109

Child abuse

- discourse of disbelief in custody battles, 118-128
 - critical discourse analysis, 120-122
 - history and politics of child protection, 119-120
 - lacunae in discourse, 127-128
 - themes of commonly held values, 122-127

Child sexual abuse

- “good character” defence for offenders, 95-107
 - constructions of good character, 103-104
 - discussion, 105-107
 - findings of study, 99-103
 - gaining leniency or recognition: 104
 - language conducive to good character, 104-105
 - literature review, 96-98
 - methodology of study, 98-99

Constitutional law

- access to courts – see Access to courts
- implied freedom of political communication, 251-258

Coroners

- suicide findings, 172-183
 - research method, 175
 - therapeutic jurisprudence, 173-174
 - coronial decision-making, 175-179
 - stigma and suicide, 179-181
 - suicide verdicts, 181-182

Costs

- Costs Assessment Scheme (NSW), 184-194
 - 1994 reforms, 186-188
 - 2011 review, 188-195
 - aims, 190
 - key assumptions, 189-190
 - recommendations, 190-195

Courts

- access to – see Access to courts
- CEOs’ relationship with Chief Justices – see Chief Justices
- Chief Justices – see Chief Justices
- community attitudes to, 220
- cultural diversity champions, 221
- self-represented litigants – see Self-represented litigants
- virtual hearings – see Technology

Criminal justice system

- standard of proof – see Standard of proof

Cultural diversity – see also Interpreters; Judicial Council on Cultural Diversity

- equal justice and, 199-206
 - cultural exemptions and defences, 200-201
 - discriminatory laws, 199-200
 - judicial awareness and influence, 205-206
 - mandatory sentencing, 199
 - sentencing discretions, 201-203
- judging in multicultural society, 223-226
 - witnesses’ conduct influenced by cultural factors
 - examples, 224
 - hyperbole: case study, 225-226
 - options, 224-225
 - suggestions, 226

Custody – see Child abuse

Discrimination – see Cultural diversity

Dispute resolution

technology, 232-233

Ecclestone case

Germany (case note), 129-131

Equality

constitutional right of access to courts, 244-250

cultural diversity, 216-217 – see also Cultural diversity

Evidence

inadmissible – see Juries

technology, 230-231

Fairness

constitutional right to access to courts, 262-264

Federal Circuit Court

litigants in person, 4-12

guidelines from appellate courts, 4-5

High Court counsel of perfection, 11-12

jurisdiction, 4

level playing field myth, 10-12

Re F, 5-8

SZRUR, 8-10

Feminist legal studies

book review, 196

Germany

Ecclestone case, 129-131

Good character (defence) – see Child sexual abuse

Imprisonment

Indigenous people (book review), 71

Inadmissible evidence

jurors' consideration – see Juries

Indigenous people

cultural needs, 221-222

imprisonment (book review), 71

Interpreters

judicial system and administrative decision-making, 207-213 assessing need for interpreter, 210-211

current Australian system, 209-210

inadequate interpreting and jurisdictional errors other than procedural fairness, 212-213 role of interpreters, 208-209

standard of interpretation, 211-212

national protocol for, 220

Judges

directions to jury – see Standard of proof

multiculturalism – see Cultural diversity

Judicial Council on Cultural Diversity, 214-222

- Aboriginals' and Torres Strait Islanders' particular needs, 221-222
- access to justice and rule of law, 214-215
- establishment and composition, 203, 219
- formal equality, 216-217
- legal relevance of culture, 217-218
- monoculturalism and legal system, 218-219
- nature of equality, 216
- significance of multiculturalism, 215-216
- submission to Productivity Commission Inquiry into Access to Justice Arrangements, 219-220
- substantive equality, 217
- survey data, 215
- women's particular needs, 221
- work plan, 220-221
 - champions within courts, 221
 - community attitudes to courts, 220
 - education of judicial officers, 221
 - national Bench Book, 220-221
 - national protocol for interpreters, 220
 - resources, 220

Judicial officers

- cultural diversity education, 221

Judicial power

- principled pragmatism
 - Ecclestone case in Germany, 129-131

Juries

- consideration of inadmissible evidence, 154-171
 - discussion, 166-168
 - jurors' abilities, 156
 - jurors' use of inadmissible evidence, 155-156
 - procedural justice, 156-158
 - study limitations and future directions, 168-171
 - study method, 159-161
 - study results, 161-166
- judicial directions – see Standard of proof

Jurisdictional errors

- interpreters, 212-213

Lawyers

- technology, 229-230

Litigants in person – see Self-represented litigants

Multiculturalism – see Cultural diversity

Partnership

- Chief Justices' relationship with CEOs – see Chief Justices

Political communication (implied freedom)

- constitutional right to access to courts, 251-258

Pragmatic diversion

- Ecclestone case in Germany, 129-131

Productivity Commission

Inquiry into Access to Justice Arrangements, 219-220

Proof – see Standard of proofQueensland

self-represented parties – see Self-represented litigants

vexatious proceedings – see Vexatious proceedings

Rule of law

constitutional right to access to courts, 239-244

cultural diversity, 214-215

Self-represented litigants

assisting conference papers, 3

court rules (Qld), 18-29

case management and court supervision procedures, 24-29

causes of difficulties, 24

civil litigation process, 19-24

dilemmas posed by self-represented litigants, 61-70

impacts on judiciary, 67

perceptions about self-represented litigants, 64-66

reasons for self-representation, 62-64

techniques available to judiciary, 68-69

Federal Circuit Court – see Federal Circuit Court

Queensland Court of Appeal, 13-17

strata title disputes – see Strata title disputes

vexatious proceedings – see Vexatious proceedings

Self Representation Service (QPILCH)

evaluation, 135-153

project, 136-138

research insights from courts, 139-148

surveys of users, 149-153

Sentencing

child sexual abuse – see Child sexual abuse

discretions

cultural diversity, 201-203

mandatory

cultural diversity, 199

Sexual abuse

children – see Child sexual abuse

Standard of proof

criminal

judicial directions and juror comprehension, 75-94

cognitive load, comprehension and structured decision aids, 77-78 criminal standard of proof, 78-79

definitions of “beyond reasonable doubt”, 94

juror directions and cognitive load theory, 76-77

jury directions and definitions of standards of proof, 79-82 models of juror decision-making, 76

question trail, 94

study aims and hypotheses, 83

- study limitations and recommendations for future research, 92-93
- study method, 83-84
- study procedure, 84
- study rationale, 82
- study results, 85-92

Strata title disputes

- self-represented litigants
 - State Administrative Tribunal (WA), 30-45
 - case study, 35-42
 - jurisdiction, 32-34
 - representation, 35-36

Suicide – see Coroners

Technology

- virtual court hearings, 227-235
 - courtrooms, 230-233
 - dispute resolution, 232-233
 - evidence, 230-231
 - current situation, 227-229
 - future, 233-234
 - arguments for change, 234-235
 - lawyers, 229-230

Therapeutic jurisprudence – see Coroners

Unrepresented litigants – see Self-represented litigants

Vexatious proceedings

- Queensland, 46-60
 - case critiques, 55
 - case study: legislative responses to vexatious behaviour, 49-54
 - definitions: vexatious proceedings and behaviour, 47-48
 - practical (non-legislative) strategies, 57-60
 - reform in Victoria and England/Wales, 55-57
 - size of problem, 48-49

Virtual court hearings – see Technology

Witnesses

- conduct influenced by cultural factors – see Cultural diversity

Women

- cultural needs, 221
- feminist legal studies (book review), 196