
Index

All references are to page numbers.

Abduction – see Child abduction

Aboriginal people

- mixed Torres Strait Islander and Aboriginal descent, 111–117
- parenting orders, 61–81

Abridgement of time

- review of Registrar’s decision on, 256–257

Administrative decisions

- abridgment of time, 256–257

Anthropology

- mixed Torres Strait Islander and Aboriginal descent, 111–117
- parenting orders and Aboriginal children, 77–78

Appeals

- by consent, 49–50
- from divorce order, after order has taken effect, 46–48

Artificial conception – see Assisted reproductive technology

Assets

- width of concept of “property” in s 79, 18–30

Assisted reproductive technology

- conception must be after surrogacy arrangements made, 214
- location of implantation, 212
- parentage of children conceived using, 106–110
- parenting orders, 179–183
- State by State comparison of surrogacy laws, 198–230

Australian Capital Territory

- collaborative lawyering case study, 133–150

Australian Family Law: The Contemporary Context

- book review, 44–45

Australian Institute of Family Studies (AIFS)

- evaluation of Shared Parental Responsibility reforms, 31–39

Bankruptcy

- discretionary trusts and, 30

Best interests of the child – see also Children

- family violence and, 31–39
- inadequate weighing up of factors, 189–193
- shared parental responsibility and, 184–188
- special medical procedures, 239–243
- surrogacy arrangements, 219, 223
- time child should spend with significant persons, 179–183

Binding financial agreements

- international elements to, 42–43

Biographies

- Nygh, Peter Edward, 4–17

Birth certificates

- surrogacy and, 223–224

Boland, Jennifer

- Co-General Editor of Family Law Review, 197

Book reviews

- Australian Family Law in Context: Commentary and Materials*, 104–105
- Australian Family Law: The Contemporary Context*, 44–45
- Family Law Principles*, 236–238

Business owners

- property proceedings, 174–178

Case guardians

- divorce applications by, 46–48

Child abduction – see also Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction

- Australian law, practice and procedure, 82–87
- returning children, 83–87, 91

Child abuse – see Family (domestic) violence

Child protection

- guardianship to Secretary of department, 245

Child support

- agreements set aside by courts, 40–41
- lump sum payments, 99–100

Child support agency (CSA)

- published decisions from SSAT, 162–163

Child welfare

- harmonisation of State and Federal laws, 246

Child-informed mediation

- at Family Relationships Centres, 232

Children, 244–247. See also Best interests of the child; Child abduction

- abridgement of time in divorce applications and, 48
- artificially conceived – see Assisted reproductive technology
- contributions-based adjustments and, 170–173
- declaration of child of a de facto relationship, 248–251
- FDR intakes and, 165–166
- mixed Torres Strait Islander and Aboriginal descent, 111–117
- parenting orders and Aboriginal children, 61–81
- secrecy provisions in surrogacy arrangements, 224–225
- special medical procedures, 239–243
- time with both parents, 184–188, 189–193
- two couples caring for a child, 179–183
- voice in Hague Convention abduction cases, 87, 88–98

Chisholm report

- relevance of family violence and, 31–39

Citizenship

- international surrogacy and, 229

Collaborative lawyering

- ACT case study, 133–150

Conception, artificial – see Assisted reproductive technology

Conduct

- setting aside a termination agreement by, 248–251

Conflict of Laws in Australia

- Peter Nygh's writing of, 13–14

Consent

- by Secretary to being joined to proceedings, 244–247

Consent orders

- application for orders allowing an appeal, 49–50
- residence overseas, 189–193

Contributions – see Property proceedings

Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction – see Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction

Costs

- collaborative lawyering case study, 144–146

Costs orders

- for litigation expenses, 118–121
- against solicitors, 122–126

Counselling

- surrogacy arrangements and, 210–212, 215–216

Court orders

- mandatory documents in surrogacy arrangements, 221–223
- setting aside child support agreements, 40–41

Courts – see Family Court of Australia; Federal Magistrates Court; Jurisdiction

Cross-applications

- property orders filed as 'response' to application for parenting orders, 127–130

Culture, Aboriginal

- mixed Torres Strait Islander and Aboriginal descent, 111–117
- parenting orders and Aboriginal children, 63–64, 76

Custody

- child abduction and, 85–86

De facto relationships

- determining existence of, 106–110
- jurisdiction of courts in financial matters, 248–251
- multiple periods of separation, 248–251

Department of Health and Human Services (Tas)

- trial judge joining Secretary of as party to parenting proceedings, 244–247

Discretion, exercise of

- shared parental responsibility, 153–155

Discretionary trusts – see Trusts

Dispute resolution – see Family dispute resolution

Divorce

abridgement of time for, 46–48

Domestic violence – see Family (domestic) violence

Education

at Family Relationships Centres, 231–233

Equity

width of concept of “property” in s 79, 18–30, 60

Estoppel by conduct termination agreements in de facto relationships, 248–251

Evidence

mixed Torres Strait Islander and Aboriginal descent cases, 111–117

in relocation decisions, 184–188

Expert evidence – see Evidence

Families

family reports in cases of mixed Torres Strait Islander and Aboriginal descent, 111–117
parenting orders and Aboriginal children, 61–81
parenting orders in non-traditional structures, 179–183

Family (domestic) violence assessment of contributions and, 170–173 relevance of beyond safety, 31–39

shared parental responsibility and, 158–160

Family Court of Australia

Peter Nygh in, 8–13
surrogacy cases, 228–230

Family Courts Violence Review

Chisholm Report, 31–39

Family dispute resolution

collaborative lawyering case study, 133–150
intakes (pre-mediation assessments), 164–167
working effectively with Family Relationships Centres, 231–233

Family law

Australian Family Law, book review, 44–45
Australian Family Law in Context, book review, 104–105 child dispute arm of Family Law Courts, 93–94
Family Law Principles, book review, 236–238

Family Law Act 1975 (Cth)

s 79, width of concept of “property” in, 18–30
update on case, 60
s 90AE(2), scope of power under, 51–55

Family Law Council

Improving Responses to Family Violence in the Family Law System, 31–39

Family Law Review

Jennifer Boland as Co-General Editor, 197

Family Law Rules 2004 (Cth)

case guardians under, 46–48
interstate registration, 224 parties to parenting proceedings, 245
special medical procedures, 239–243

Family Law (Shared Parental Responsibility) Act 2006 (Cth)

defence of, 151–161

Family Relationships Centres

working effectively with, 231–233

Federal Magistrates Court

jurisdiction to review decision on abridgement of time, 256–257

Financial agreements jurisdiction of courts in de facto relationship financial matters, 248–251

Financial contribution – see Property proceedings

Financial resources

width of concept of “property” in s 79:, 20
width of concept of “property” in s 79
update on case, 60

Forced and servile marriages protection from, 234–235

Foreign lawyers

binding financial agreements and, 42–43

Gender analysis

family violence, 37, 39

Gender identity dysphoria

special medical procedures, 239–243

Gestational surrogacy – see Surrogacy

Guardians – see Case guardians

Hague Conference on Private International Law, 15–17

Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction

Central Authority, 86–87
characterisation issue, 86 compliance patterns, 101–103 interpretation, 85–86 issues and procedures in Australia, 86–87
returning children, 83–87, 91
voice of children in, 87, 88–98

Hardship

property proceedings instituted out of time, 127– 130

Hearing dates

abridgment of time as administrative not judicial,
256–257

Improper purpose

costs orders against solicitors, 122–126

Improving Responses to Family Violence in the Family Law System

Family Law Council, 31–39

In vitro fertilisation – see Assisted reproductive technology; Surrogacy

Indigenous families

mixed Torres Strait Islander and Aboriginal descent, 111–117
parenting orders, 61–81

Intended parents

time child should spend with, 179–183

Interim orders

“compelling circumstances” test, 118–121
for litigation expenses, 118–121

International law

binding financial agreements, 42–43
child abduction – see Child abduction
Peter Nygh and, 14–17
res judicata, 168–169
surrogacy cases, 228–229

Interview schema

collaborative lawyering case study, 150

Joinder of third parties leave to join further six respondents, 51–55

Judicial discretion – see Discretion, exercise of Judicial understanding of Aboriginal culture, 63–64

Jurisdiction

financial matters in de facto relationships, 248–251 interaction between State and federal legislation, 248–251
to review Registrar’s decision on abridgement of time, 256–257
in surrogacy arrangements, 220–221 welfare jurisdiction for special medical procedures, 239–243

Kennon v Spry

contributions-based adjustments and Kennon principle, 170–173
s 79 in, 18–30, 60

Lawyers – see Solicitors

Legal costs

interim property settlement for, 118–121

Legal practitioners

surrogacy arrangements and, 210
working effectively with Family Relationships Centres, 231

Litigation expenses – see Legal costs

Maintenance orders

for litigation expenses, 118–121

Marriage

long duration, disparity in entitlements, 174–178 protection from forced and servile marriages, 234– 235

Matters to be shown importance of providing sufficient evidence, 51–55

Meaningful relationships

shared parental responsibility and, 155–157

Mediation

intakes (pre-mediation assessments), 164–167
working with Family Relationships Centres, 231–233

Medical procedures

gender identity dysphoria, 239–243

Natural justice

costs orders against solicitors, 122–126

New Zealand

subpoenas in, 43

Nygh, Peter Edward

work and life of, 4–17

Nygh's Conflict of Laws in Australia

writing of, 13–14

Offences

surrogacy arrangements, 226–228

Paramountcy test

surrogacy arrangements, 223

Parentage orders

assisted conception, and de facto relationship, 106–110 attempt to change declaration of parentage using consent orders, 49–50

surrogacy arrangements, 198–230

birth certificates in, 223–224

cases regarding, 228–230

consent to order, 220

discharge of, 225–226

joint or sole application in, 219–220

jurisdiction in, 220–221

model of regulation used, 207–209

residency requirements in, 202–203

timeframe for application, 218

whether child must be living with applicant/s, 218–219

who is parent when no parentage order made, 207

Parentage transfer provisions – see Parentage ordersParental responsibility – see also Shared parental responsibility order in favour of Secretary of department, 244–247

special medical procedures, 239–243

Parenting

family violence and, 31–39

Parenting orders

Aboriginal children and, 61–81

competing proposals of parents, 189–193 happiness of parent and, 184–188

person concerned with the care of a child, 179–183

post-birth independent reports and, 217–218 property orders filed as 'response' to application for, 127–130 relocation when parents in two countries, 189–193

trial judge joining Secretary as party to parenting proceedings, 244–247

violence and, 170

Parents

definition, 110

priority to in mainstream family law, 111–117

two couples caring for a child, 179–183

Parties to proceedings

trial judge joining Secretary as party to parenting proceedings, 244–247

Paternity – see also Parentage orders application for declaration for artificially conceived child, 106–110

Post-separation contributions asset by asset assessment of, 252–255

Pregnancy

must be after surrogacy arrangements, 214

right of surrogate to manage, 213–214

Procedure

abridgment of time as an administrative not judicial decision, 256–257

Proceedings

unreasonable maintenance of by solicitor, 122–126

Property

width of concept of in s 79, 18–30, 60

Property proceedings, 174–178

adjustment proceedings, 51–55

arduousness of contributions, 170–173 asset by asset assessment or global approach, 252–255 contributions of business owners, 174–178 contributions to family welfare, 174–178 disparity in financial circumstances of each party, 252–255

filed as 'response' to parenting orders application, 127–130

institution of out of time, 127–130

Kennon principle, 170–173

Property proceedings – continued

possibility of no contribution by one party, 252–255
termination agreements in de facto relationships,
248–251

Property settlements interim, for litigation expenses, 118–121

Reasons

alleged inadequacy of, 184–188, 189–193

Registrars

orders to abridge time, 256–257

Rehearing

relocation matter remitted for, 189–193

Relationships

meaningful, and shared parental responsibility, 155– 157, 179–183
parental attitudes to, 189–193

Relocation

cultural evidence for, 111–117 happiness of parent dependent on, 184–188 parents in two countries, 189–193
two couples caring for a child, 179–183
A v A Relocation Approach, reliance on, 184–188

“Renee” (case study)

voice of children in Hague Convention abduction cases, 88–90

Reproduction – see Assisted reproductive technology

Res judicata

clients with international connections, 168–169

Rights of custody – see Custody

Rights of the child – see Best interests of the child;
Children

Risk assessment

family violence and, 31–39

Safety

for victims of family violence, 31–39

Same-sex relationships

surrogacy cases, 228–229
two couples caring for a child, 179–183

Secrecy provisions

surrogacy and, 224–225

Separation

asset by asset assessment of post-separation contributions, 252–255
termination agreements in de facto relationships, 248–251

Shared parental responsibility

defence of the 2006 amendments, 151–161
family violence and, 31–39
month-about basis, residence overseas, 189–193 persons concerned with the welfare of the child, 179–183
practicability of, 189–193 relocation and, 189–193
time child should spend with parents, 184–188

Significant persons

time child should spend with, 179–183

Social science research

shared parental responsibility, 157–158

Social Security Appeals Tribunal (SSAT)

published decisions of, 162–163

Solicitors

costs orders against, 122–126

Special medical procedures

gender identity dysphoria, 239–243

Sperm donors – see Assisted reproductive technology

Spouse visas, 235

Spry litigation – see Kennon v Spry

Stepchildren

contributions-based adjustments and, 170–173

Stephens v Stephens subsequent to Spry litigation, 27–28

Subpoenas

New Zealand, 43

Surrogacy

age of parties, 203
birth certificates, 223–224
cases, 228–230

Surrogacy – continued

- commercial surrogacy ban, 226, 228–229
- compulsory counselling/legal advice, 210–211
- consent to order, 220
- criminal and child protection checks, 204
- definition, 199–200
- enforcement of arrangements, 213
- expenses, 215
- genetic relationship of child with intended parents, 203–204
- interstate registration, 224
- joint or sole application, 219–220
- location of implantation, 212
- marital status of surrogate, 204
- model of regulation used, 207–209
- names for intending parents and surrogates, 205
- offences, 226–227
- paramourcy test in arrangements, 223
- parentage orders and – see Parentage orders
- parties to arrangements, 209–210
- post-birth counselling, 215–216
- post-birth independent reports, 217–218
- previous child requirements, 205
- regulation framework, 200–201
- required documents, 221–223
- residency requirements, 202–203
- right to manage pregnancy, 213–214
- secrecy provisions, 224–225
- State by State comparison, 198–230
- test/qualification for treatment, 206
- timeframe for application, 218
- timing of arrangement, 214–215
- traditional and gestational, 200, 212–213
- treatment of siblings, 219
- types of offences and time limits, 227–228
- whether child must be living with applicant/s, 218–219
- who may be parents, 202
- written or oral arrangements, 209

Telephone dispute resolution service

- working effectively with Family Relationships Centres, 231

Termination agreements

- under State and Federal legislation, 248–251

Third parties

- leave to join further respondents and claim additional relief, 51–55

Torres Strait Islander families

- mixed Torres Strait Islander and Aboriginal descent, 111–117

Travel

- compliance patterns to Hague Convention, 101–103

“Troy” (case study)

- voice of children in Hague Convention abduction cases, 88–90

Trusts

- leave to claim additional relief from discretionary trusts, 51–55
- width of concept of “property” in s 79, 18–30
- update on case, 60

Violence – see Family (domestic) violenceWelfare jurisdiction

- special medical procedures, 239–243