
Index

All references are to page numbers.

Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (Cth)

ss 15AA, 15AB, 33, disclosure of communications, 38–43

Administrative assessments – see Child support

Admissions

withdrawal of, 143–148

Adoption

overseas, 114

Adult children

as case guardians in property proceedings, 118–122
child support past age 18 years, 31

Affidavits, 65–71, 72–98

advantages and disadvantages of, 72–73
annexures to, 69, 85
chronological or thematic, 68
cross-examination on, 88–89, 92–96
drafting, 65–71
joint affidavits, 70
of children, 70
striking out, 85–88
use in Family Court, 72–98

Anti-discrimination – see Discrimination

Appeals

lack of sufficient reasons, 123–126
party cannot raise matters not raised at trial, 207–210
self-represented litigants, 251–258
weight placed on evidence, 243–245

Artificial conception – see Assisted reproductive treatment

Assisted reproductive treatment eligibility criteria for, 146–163

who is a parent?, 185

Australian family court advisory committee

history of, 11–13

Banks

orders joining bank to property proceedings, 57–62

Baumgartner decision

constructive trusts and unconscionability, 172–173

Beneficial interests

constructive trusts in relation to the family home, 164–180

Best interests of the child – see also Children

children meeting with judges – see Judges
competing forums where parenting issues are in dispute, 191–194
eligibility criteria for assisted reproductive treatment, 146–163

Binding financial agreements correct wording for agreements entered into between 2004 and 2010, 195–201

legal advice prior to signing amendments, 195–201
s 90G(1A), whether unjust if agreement not binding, 195–201 technical errors in, 127–131
vs “financial agreements”, 127–131

Briginshaw principles

application of provisions of, 207–210

Capacity to conduct proceedings

self-represented litigants, presumption of capacity, 202–206

Capacity to mediate

defined, 111

Case guardians

separating interests of, 118–122

Child support

parentage and, 184
past age 18 years, 30–31

Child Support Agency (CSA)

departure prohibition orders and departure authorisation certificates, 108–110

Children – see also Adult children; Best interests of the child; Parenting orders allegations of child sexual abuse, 207–210 expense of supervised time with, 207–210

family law affidavits of, 70
immigration issues impacting upon, 114–117

Children – continued

impact of shared parental responsibility on, 137–139
judges receiving evidence directly from – see

Judges

reasons for deteriorating behaviour of, 207–210
sponsorship by a person who is not a parent, 115

Citizenship – see Immigration issuesCohabitation – see De facto relationships*Common intention constructive trusts – see Constructive trusts*Communication – see also Mediation

confidentiality and, 38–43, 222
shared parental responsibility and, 137–139

Confidentiality

disclosure of communications from family
counselling, 38–43
judges receiving evidence directly from children, 222

Consent orders

application to vary due to mistake in, 246–250

Constructive trusts

common intention and unconscionability, 164–180
English and Australian, 164–180
joint ownership, 174–178
non-financial contributions, 173–174
quantifying beneficial interests, 176–178

Contempt procedures

procedural safeguards and, 57–62

Contravention proceedings

adequacy of reasons, 47–50
consideration of individual breaches, 47–50

Contributions – see Property proceedingsCorporate entities

payment of debts where debtor is corporate entity, 51–56

Costs

costs certificates due to complex statutory framework, 200
order for costs but not indemnity costs, 257
withdrawal of admissions and, 143–148

Costs of supervision

consideration of when requiring supervised time
with child, 207–210

Counselling

disclosure of communications, 38–43

Cross-examination

“holding back” material for a “surprise attack”, 89–90
of deponents, 90–94
on affidavits, 88–89, 92–96

De facto relationships

aggregation of two periods of relationship, 132–136
applications for declarations under s 90RD, 132–136
definition under s 4AA, 132–136
financial claims and, 181–184
immigration issues, 115
meaning of the words “couple living together on a genuine domestic basis”, 132–136 problems identifying, 183–184

Deaths – see ObituariesDebts

to corporate entities, 51–56

Departure Prohibition Orders and Departure Authorisation Certificates

Child Support Registrar and, 108–110

Deponents

failure of to attend court for cross-examination, 89–90

Disability

eligibility criteria for assisted reproductive treatment, 152–162

Disclosure of communications

family counselling, 38–43
judges receiving evidence directly from children, 222

Discretion, exercise of

grounds to appeal from discretionary judgments, 207–210
of trial judge, 251–258
refusal to exercise under s 90G(1A), 195–201
s 79, where marriage intact, but physical separation
due to ill-health, 118–122

Discretion, exercise of – continued

- whether mistake constituted a miscarriage of justice, 246–250
- withdrawal of admissions, 143–148

Discretionary trusts – see Family discretionary trusts

Discrimination

- eligibility criteria for assisted reproductive treatment, 152–162

Dispute resolution – see Family dispute resolution

Divorce

- law reform regarding, 6–16

Documents

- annexures to affidavits, 69, 85
- banks required to provide, 57–62
- disclosure of communications from family counselling, 38–43

Domestic violence – see Family (domestic) violence

Drafting

- family law affidavits, 65–71

Efficiency measures

- financial agreements and, 127–131
- withdrawal of admissions and, 146

Elderly parties

- representation by adult children in property proceedings, 118–122
- eligibility criteria for assisted reproductive treatment
- role of the state, 146–163

English and Australian constructive trusts

- common intention and unconscionability, 164–180

Equal shared parental responsibility – see Shared parental responsibility

Ethics

- family law affidavits, 71

Evidence

- about family violence crucial to proceedings, 239–245
- application of rules of, 207–210
- contents of affidavits adduced into, 81–83
- disputed, uncertainty about how it would be treated, 239–245
- general matters, 74–76

Evidence – continued

- hearsay, 76–78
- judges receiving directly from children – see Judges
- objections to evidence relating to family violence, 239–245
- opinion/expert evidence, 78–81
- relevance, 76
- use of affidavits in Family Court, 65–71, 72–98

Evidence Act 1995 (Cth)

- s 41, legal representation at family consultant interviews, 44–46
- whether “exceptional” circumstances within meaning of s 69ZT of Family Law Act 1975 (Cth), 239–245

Ex tempore judgments

- reasons in, 51–56

Expenses – see Costs

Expert evidence

- relevance of, 78–81

Facilitation skills

- in family dispute resolution, 188–190

Family (domestic) violence

- evidence about, when crucial to proceedings, 239–245
- immigration issues, 116
- parenting orders in context of, 239–245
- property settlements and, 251–258

Family consultants

- legal representation at interviews with, 44–46
- nature and function of, 44–46
- report to the parties on judicial meetings with children, 221–222

Family counselling

- disclosure of communications, 38–43

Family Court of Australia

- challenges and tensions in, 20–23
- death threats to judges of, 4, 17, 23, 25
- founding personnel on “helping court”, 17–29
- history of creation of, 6–16
- immigration issues, 117
- judges receiving evidence directly from children – see Judges
- Ray Watson and, 3–5
- therapeutic justice origins of, 17–29
- transitional courts, 15–16

Family Court of Australia – continued

use of affidavits in – see Affidavits

withdrawal of admissions in, 147

Family Court of New Zealand

judges receiving evidence directly from children, 99, 104–106

Family discretionary trusts

assets and liabilities owned by corporate trustee of family trust, 51–56

direct or indirect control of, 123–126

Family dispute resolution

capacity to mediate, 111–113

cooperation between family relationship service providers and family lawyers, 225–231

facilitation skills and, 188–190

family mediation impasses, 232–234

multigenerational disputes, 32–33

Family Law Act 1975 (Cth)

adult children as case guardians in property proceedings, 118–122

breakdown of relationships and, 184

family law affidavits – see Affidavits

history of creation of, 6–16

Pt VIII, ss 90C, 90D, 90G, 90KA, financial agreements, 127–131

ss 10D(3), 69ZX, 10E(2), disclosure of communications, 38–43

ss 11, 62G, 67ZT, legal representation at family consultant interviews, 44–46

s 60CC, child's residence in Australia and, 243, 245

s 69ZT, application and operation of, 239–245

ss 75(2), 79(4), family discretionary trusts, 123–126

s 75(2), no error that adjustment not made in favour of husband, 251–258

s 79A(1)(a), miscarriage of justice, “by any other circumstance”, 246–250

s 90G(1A) and s 90G(1B), correct application of, 195–201

s 90G(1A), refusal to exercise discretion under, 195–201

s 90G(1)(b), correct wording of agreements entered into between 2004 and 2010, 195–201

s 90RD(2) and s 90SB(a), “beneficial” interpretation of, 132–136

s 90RD(2) and s 90SB(a), meaning of “periods” in, 132–136

s 121, orders under, 57–62

Family law affidavits – see AffidavitsFamily Law Amendment (De Facto Financial Matters and Other Measures) Act 2008 (Cth)

jurisdictional problems, 182–183

policy objectives, 181–182

Family Law Bills 1973 and 1974

history of, 9–10

Family law proceedings

judges receiving evidence directly from children – see Judges

Family Law Rules 2004 (Cth)

family law affidavits, 65–71

r 11.09, withdrawal of admissions, 143–148

Family lawyers – see Legal practitionersFamily relationship service providers cooperation with family lawyers, 225–231

FDR – see Family dispute resolutionFederal Justice System Amendment (Efficiency Measures) Act (No 1) 2009 (Cth), 127–131

effect of, 195–201

financial agreements and, 127–131

retrospective application and interpretation of transitional provisions, 127–131, 195–201

Federal magistrates

critical observations regarding, 57–62

power to order production of documents, 38–43

Financial agreements – see also Binding financial agreements ability of court to rectify defects in, 127–131

vs ‘binding financial agreements’, 127–131

Financial proceedings

de facto relationships, 181–184

property settlement sought to pay for care, 118–122

withdrawal of admissions in, 143–148

Forums – see Jurisdictional issuesGrandparents family dispute resolution in multigenerational disputes, 32–33

Guardians – see Litigation guardians

Guidelines for judicial meetings with children, proposed, 213–224

deciding whether to meet with a child, 218–220
disclosure, 222
introduction and statement of principles, 217–218
meeting with a child after the conclusion of proceedings, 223
meeting with a child during proceedings, 220–221
purpose, 216–217
report to the parties, 221–222

Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction

competing forums where parenting issues are in dispute, 191–194

Hague conventions

proposed international surrogacy convention, 235–238

“Helping court”

therapeutic justice origins of Family Court, 17–29

Immigration issues

family law and, 34–37, 114–117
humanitarian visas, 115–116
parenting orders and, 239–245
prospective marriage visas, 115
refugee visas, 115–116
temporary visas, 34–37
visas for women at risk, 116

Independent children’s lawyers

judges receiving evidence directly from children and, 99–107

Inferences – see Opinion and inferences

Interim proceedings

affidavits in, 70

Interlocutory applications

cross-examination on affidavits on, 95–96
use of affidavits in Family Court, 72–98

International law

competing forums where parenting issues are in dispute, 191–194
immigration issues, 34–37, 114–117
overseas adoption and surrogacy, 114
parenting orders and, 239–245
proposed international surrogacy convention, 235–238

Jones v Dunkel inference arising from failure to call witness, 207–210

cross-examination on affidavits and, 96–97

Judges (judicial officers)

advantage of trial judges in relation to the credit of the parties, 251–258 death threats to, 4, 17, 23, 25
receiving evidence directly from children, 99–107 approaches adopted by different courts, 104–106
deciding whether to meet with a child, 218–220
guidelines for, 213–224
meeting with a child after the conclusion of proceedings, 223
meeting with a child during proceedings, 220–221
why judges should speak directly with children, 103–104

Jurisdictional issues

competing forums where parenting issues are in dispute, 191–194
“matrimonial cause” in case of forced separation and intact marriage, 119

Kennon principle

property adjustments based on, 251–252
reservations about use of, 51–56

Lawyers – see Legal practitioners

Legal practitioners

at family consultant interviews, 44–46 cooperation with family relationship service providers, 225–231 reinstating the importance of in the family law system, 229–231

Less Adversarial Trial process

therapeutic justice approach, 26–29

Litigants – see Self-represented litigants

Litigation guardians

whether order appointing was justified, 202–206

Marriage – see also Divorce; Spouses

eligibility criteria for assisted reproductive treatment, 155–156
immigration issues, 115
marriage intact, but physical separation due to ill-health, 118–122

Matrimonial Causes Act 1959 (Cth)

history of, 6–9

Mediation

capacity to mediate, 111–113
 cooperation between family relationship service providers and family lawyers in, 225–231
 facilitation skills, 188–190
 family mediation impasses, 232–234
 LARSQ model, 188–190
 premediation coaching, 113
 shuttle mediation, 112–113
 timing of, 228

Medical practitioners

eligibility criteria for assisted reproductive treatment and, 146–163

Mental disability or illness – see Psychiatric assessmentMigration issues – see Immigration issues*Miscarriage of justice

application to vary consent orders due to, 246–250

New Zealand

immigration issues, 117

Obituaries

Ray Watson, 3–5

Opinion and inferences

family law affidavits, 65–66
 relevance of, 78–81

Orders – see Consent orders; Parenting ordersOverseas adoption and surrogacy – see International law*“Paper trials” – see Affidavits*Parentage – see also Assisted reproductive treatment

child support and, 185–187

Parenting disputes

competing forums where parenting issues are in dispute, 191–194
 cooperation between family relationship service providers and family lawyers in, 225–231
 evidence to judges from children – see Judges
 report to the parties on judicial meetings with children, 221–222

Parenting orders

agreement as to changeover arrangements, 47–50
 allegations of family violence and imminent relocation of the father, 239–245 meaningful relationships and, 242–243 reasonable practicality of, 137–139 unacceptable risk from mother’s lack of parenting capacity, 207–210

Primary carers

appeal from judge’s decision to change, 207–210

Prison

appeals conducted from, 251–258

Problem-solving jurisdictions – see Therapeutic justiceProcedural fairness

bank joined to property proceedings, 57–62
 contempt procedures, 57–62

Proceedings – see Capacity to conduct proceedings; Contravention proceedings; Financial proceedings; Property proceedingsProcreation rights

eligibility criteria for assisted reproductive treatment, 150–152

Property proceedings

adult children acting as case guardians, 118–122
 assets and liabilities owned by corporate trustee of family trust, 51–56
 banks joined to, 57–62
 binding financial agreements and – see Binding financial agreements common intention constructive trusts, 164–180 consistent approach to treatment of assets, 51–56 family discretionary trusts – see Family discretionary trusts inadequacy of reasons, 51–56 interim orders regarding proceeds from sale of family home, 57–62
 marriage intact, but physical separation due to ill-health, 118–122
 welfare contributions where one party alcoholic, 51–56

Property settlement

constructive trusts and, 164–180
 disclosure of assets and earnings, 251–258
 judge declined to enforce “agreement” asserted by husband, 251–258

Property settlement – continued

- material error of facts, 251–258
- miscarriage of justice due to mistake in, 246–250
- self-represented litigants, 251–258
- victims of crime compensation payments, 256–257

Psychiatric assessment

- eligibility criteria for assisted reproductive treatment, 152–162
- to assess capacity to conduct proceedings, 202–206

Randle v Randle

- competing forums where parenting issues are in dispute, 192–193

Reasons

- ex tempore judgments, 51–56
- where decision does not accord with uncontested evidence, 51–56

Rectification

- technical errors in financial agreements, 127–131

Referrals

- between family relationship service providers and family lawyers, 226–227

Relationship service providers – see Family relationship service providers

Relocation

- parenting orders in context of, 239–245

Residency rights

- immigration issues and family law, 34–37, 114–117

Right to procreate

- eligibility criteria for assisted reproductive treatment, 150–152

Rules of evidence – see Evidence

Same-sex relationships

- immigration issues, 114–115, 117

Self-represented litigants

- appeal dismissed, 251–258
- capacity to conduct proceedings, 202–206

Shared parental responsibility

- agreement as to changeover arrangements, 47–50
- capacity to communicate and, 137–139
- distance from school, 137–139
- immigration issues, 117

Sponsorship

- of a child by a person who is not a parent, 115

Spouses – see also Marriage

- death of an Australian resident spouse, 116
- immigration issues, 115–116
- spousal maintenance in prison, 251–258

State, role of

- eligibility criteria for assisted reproductive treatment, 146–163

Statements – see Affidavits

“Strict compliance” test

- rejection of, 127–131

Supervised contact

- expense of, 207–210

Support people

- dealing with incapacity to mediate, 113

Supportive environment – see “Helping court”

Supreme court

- early role in administration of Family Law Act, 15–16

Surrogacy arrangements

- overseas surrogacy, 114
- proposed international surrogacy convention, 235–238
- Trimmings and Beaumont’s model, 235–238
- who is a parent, 185

Therapeutic justice

- Family Court origins, 17–29

Trials, affidavits in – see Affidavits

Trusts – see Constructive trusts; Family discretionary trusts

Unconscionability doctrine

- constructive trusts and, 172–178

Victims of crime compensation payments

- property settlements and, 256–257

Visas

- for visits/access, 117
- immigration issues and family law, 34–37

Watson, Ray

editorial on death of, 3

tribute to, 4–5

Western Australia

family law affidavits, 65–71

Withdrawal of admissions

Family Law Rules, r 11.09, 143–148

Witnesses

judges receiving evidence directly from children –

see Judges

witness statements – see Affidavits