
Index

All references are to page numbers.

Abduction – see Child abduction

Aboriginal culture

- Aboriginal culture and the role of the Full Court, 21–24
- establishing Aboriginal identity, 18–20, 21–24
- relying on s 60CC(6) of the Family Law Act, 18–20

Abuse – see Sexual abuse

Access rights

- Hague Child Protection Convention, 126, 132

ADHD

- Family Tax Benefit and, 180–186

Administrative assessments – see Child support

Adult children

- as case guardians in property proceedings, 41–46, 118–122

Affairs – see Relationships

Airport Watchlist – see Watch List orders (PACE alerts)

Alex, Re

- court authorisation of special medical procedures and, 246–253

Allegations, false – see False allegations

Appeals

- application to amend grounds of appeal, 241–245
- refusal of special leave to appeal regarding ascertaining views of children, 75–79

Apprehended bias

- reference to “battered wife syndrome” by judge and, 237–240

Assisted reproductive treatment – see Surrogacy arrangements

“Battered wife syndrome”

- judge’s enquiry about, 237–240

Beneficial entitlement

- discretionary family trust assets as property of the parties to the marriage, 63–75

Best interests of the child

- ascertaining wishes and views of children, 75–79
- children’s rights to legal representation in child protection proceedings, 94–99
- consent to treatment for childhood gender identity disorder, 246–253
- domestic violence and, 54–55, 197
- no presumptions or preferential position as between parents and non-parents, 174–179

Binding financial agreements

- family violence and, 237–240

Book reviews

- The 1996 Hague Convention on the Protection of Children* book review, 161–162

Bookhurst v Bookhurst

- views of children in, 75–79

California

- surrogacy in, 156–160

Case guardians

- separating interests of, 41–46, 118–122

Case management principles

- false allegations of abuse and, 147–151
- letter regarding, 189–190

Child abduction – see also Hague Child Abduction Convention

- feminisation of, 10–14
- following domestic violence, 191–200
- “grave risk” or “intolerable situation” defence, 191–200
- habitual residence as the sole connecting factor, 4–17
- outcomes post-return to Australia, 201–208
- returning children to Italy, 30–40

Child orders, overseas – see Overseas child orders

Child protection – see also Hague Child Protection Convention

- children’s rights to legal representation in proceedings, 94–99

Child support

- amendments relating to declarations of non-parentage, 100–103
- departure application mandatory considerations, 254–257
- Family Tax Benefit and, 27, 231–233
- Maintenance Action Test, 231
- maintenance income and, 232
- notional assessment, 27
- orders reflecting ex tempore reasons for judgment, 241–245
- reconciliation process, 233

Child support agreements

- drafting, 25–27
- limited agreements and binding agreements, 233

Child Support (Assessment) Act 1989 (Cth)

- jurisdiction under s 116 of CSAA until completion of the judicial process, 254–257
- just and equitable orders pursuant to s 117, 254–257

Childhood gender identity disorder

- court authorisation of special medical procedures, 246–253

Children – see also Adult children; Hague Child Abduction Convention; Hague Child Protection Convention; Parenting orders

- age of, and relocation, 107–111
- ascertaining wishes and views of, 75–79
- benefits from physical separation of parents, 110
- in hiding, return orders and, 30–40
- matters involving children of Indigenous descent, 20
- outcomes post-return to Australia, 201–208
- parenting orders for non-biological children, 112–116
- regular contact with non-resident parent, 107–111
- rights to legal representation in child protection proceedings, 94–99
- spending time with maternal aunt and grandmother, 174–179
- treatment for childhood gender identity disorder, 246–253

Co-mediation

- advantages and disadvantages of, 234–236

Commercial investments

- property to be considered in Pt VIII proceedings, 163–168

Competing forums – see Jurisdictional issuesConnecting factors in international family law

- case for habitual residence, 7–8

Contact arrangements

- supervised contact, 56

Contributions – see Property proceedingsConventions – see Hague Child Abduction Convention; Hague Child Protection Convention; United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child*Costs certificates

- independent children's lawyers, 174–179

Coupledom – see De facto relationshipsCustody arrangements

- children abducted from, and returned to, Italy, 30–40
- Hague Child Protection Convention, 126

De facto relationships

- long-term clandestine relationship, 117–120

Death of party

- property settlement, 43–44

Defence Force Retirement and Death Benefits (DFRDB)

- double counting of, 169–173

Departure applications

- for periodic child support payments, 254–257

“Direct representation”

- children's rights in child protection proceedings, 94–99

Disabled children – see also Marion's Case

- special-needs children resistant to change, 180–186

Discretion, exercise of, 52–59

- discharge of return order and, 30–40
- relocation with young children, 107–111
- versus remittal for retrial, 244–245
- where marriage intact, but physical separation, 41–46, 118–122

Discretionary family trusts – see Family discretionary trusts

Dispute resolution – see Mediation

Disqualification

on the basis of apprehended bias, 237–240

Domestic violence – see Family (domestic) violence

Educational costs – see also Schooling

orders regarding, 244, 254–257

Elderly parties

representation by adult children in property proceedings, 41–46, 118–122

Equitable interests

family property law, 85–86, 90–91

Error of law

reference to “battered wife syndrome” by judge as, 237–240

Evidence

application to adduce further evidence, 57, 112–116
consideration of in relocation decisions, 108–109, 111

domestic violence and, 196–197

on effect of relocation on paternal relationship, 180–186

Ex tempore judgments

orders reflecting reasons for judgment, 241–245

Expert evidence – see Evidence

False allegations

case management principles, 147–151
in family law proceedings, 137–155
letter regarding, 189–190
unacceptable risk and final orders, 151–153

Family (domestic) violence

best interests of the child and, 54–55, 197
binding financial agreements and, 237–240
false allegations of abuse, 137–155
letter regarding, 189–190
“grave risk” or “intolerable situation” defence and, 191–200 property proceedings and, 52–59
views of children addressed by court, 75–79

Family discretionary trusts

as property of the parties to the marriage, 63–75

Family dispute resolution – see Mediation

Family Law Act 1975 (Cth)

adult children as case guardians, 41–46, 118–122
power to alter property rights, 80–93
Pt VII proceedings post-return, 201–208
s 60CC(3)(a), addressing the views of children, 75–79
s 60CC(6), children of Indigenous descent, 18–20
ss 61C, 67ZC, court authorisation of special medical procedures, 246–253
s 68L(3), constitutional validity of, 35
ss 70G–70L, registration of overseas child orders, 219–223

Family Law (Child Abduction Convention) Regulations 1986 (Cth)

return orders and, 30–40

Family Tax Benefit (FTB) entitlements

child support and, 231–233

Fathers – see Parents

FDR (Family Dispute Resolution) – see Mediation

Federal Magistrates

disqualification of, 237–240

Fertility clinics

United Kingdom response to global surrogacy industry, 28–29

Financial agreements – see Binding financial agreements

Financial proceedings – see Property proceedings

Forums – see Jurisdictional issues

Full Court

issues of Aboriginal culture and role of, 21–24

Garning v Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services

children abducted from, and returned to, Italy, 30–40

Gender issues

feminisation of international parental child abduction, 10–14
gender balance as advantage of co-mediation, 234–236
gender identity dysphoria – see Childhood gender identity disorder

Gillick competence

consent to treatment for childhood gender identity disorder and, 246–253

“Grave risk” defence

domestic violence under the Hague Child Abduction Convention, 191–200

Habitual residence

Hague Child Protection Convention, 127, 129
judicial determinations of during return proceedings, 8–10
outcomes post-return to Australia, 201–208
relevance of domestic violence to, 192
returning children to Italy, 30–40
as sole connecting factor in child abduction cases, 4–17

Hague Child Abduction Convention – see also Child abduction

in Australia, 133–136
“grave risk” or “intolerable situation” defence in cases of domestic violence under, 191–200 habitual residence and – see Habitual residence
outcomes post-return under, 201–208
returning children to Italy, 30–40
special medical treatment, 135

Hague Child Protection Convention – see also Child protection

The 1996 Hague Convention on the Protection of Children book review, 161–162
applicable law, 128–129
in Australian law, 123–126
background, 123–124
cooperation between contracting states, 131–132
including abduction and relocation cases, 123–126
international child abduction, 132–133
jurisdictional rules, 127–128
objectives and framework, 124–125, 125
recognition and enforcement, 129–131, 135–136
scope of, 126–127, 230

Home environment – see Habitual residenceImpartiality – see Apprehended bias*Income

child support and, 232

Independent children’s lawyers

costs certificates not available for, 174–179

Indigenous children – see also Aboriginal culture

relying on s 60CC(6) of the Family Law Act, 18–20

Intact marriage

property settlement, 41–46, 80–93, 84, 118–122

International child abduction – see Child abductionInternational conventions – see Convention on the Rights of the Child (UN); Hague Child Abduction Convention; Hague Child Protection Convention*“Intolerable situation” defence

in cases of domestic violence, 191–200

Italian Children Case – see *Garning v Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability ServicesJoint tenants

property to be considered in Pt VIII proceedings, 163–168

Judges

observation of witnesses, 53–54

Jurisdictional issues – see also Habitual residence

connecting factors in international family law, 4–17 convention litigation and, 196–197
forum disputes involving parenting issues, 223–229
international child abduction, 132–134
jurisdiction under s 116 of CSAA until completion of the judicial process, 254–257 “matrimonial cause” in case of forced separation and intact marriage, 42–43, 119
registration of overseas child orders, 219–220

“Just and equitable” requirement

departure from administrative assessment and, 254–257
intact marriage, 43
Stanford v Stanford, 80–93

Kennon principle

adjustment declined, 47
contribution based assessment, 57–58
High Court decision, 63–75

Lawyers – see Legal representationLitigants, self-represented – see Self-represented litigants

Magellan matters

false allegations of abuse and, 143–147
letter regarding, 189–190

Magistrates – see Federal Magistrates

Maintenance income – see also Spousal maintenance

child support and, 232

Marion’s Case

court authorisation of special medical procedures and, 246–253

Marriage – see also De facto relationships; Spousal maintenance property settlement when marriage intact, but physical separation, 41–46, 80–93, 118–122

Mediation

co-mediation in family dispute resolution, 234–236
shuttle mediation, 104–106

Medical procedures which require court authorisation – see Special medical procedures

Mental disability or illness – see Psychiatric conditions

Mirror or complementary orders

domestic violence and, 198–199
registration of overseas child orders, 223

Mothers – see Parents

Non-parentage – see Parentage

Overseas child orders

definition, 219–220
registration of, 219–223

Overseas travel

allowing or disallowing children’s travel, 209–213
passports, 211–212
restraints on child’s removal from Australia, 174–179

PACE alerts – see Watch List orders (PACE alerts)

Parentage

amendments to child support legislation relating to declarations of non-parentage, 100–103

Parentage – continued

intended parentage doctrine in surrogacy arrangements, 158
UK law on assisted reproduction, 28–29

Parental child abduction – see Child abduction

Parental responsibility – see also Shared parental responsibility; Sole parental responsibility

Hague Child Protection Convention, 126, 128–129
treatment for childhood gender identity disorder, 246–253

Parenting issues

forum disputes involving, 223–229
resolution post-return, 201–208

Parenting orders – see also Relocation

appeals, and adducement of further evidence, 53–57
ascertaining wishes and views of children about, 75–79
legislative pathway of Pt VII when relocation, 112–116
orders for substantial and significant time, 180–186
overseas travel and, 212–213
persons “significant” to the child, 174–179
response of UK surrogacy law to the global surrogacy industry, 29

Parents – see Relocation

benefits to children from physical separation of, 110
feminisation of international parental child abduction, 10–14
option for both parents to relocate, 109–110 outcomes post-return to Australia for abducting primary-carer mothers, 201–208 parental establishment for surrogacy in California, 156–157 relocation and father-child relationship, 180–186 risk to parent as risk to child, 191–200
sexual abuse allegations by, 137–155
letter regarding, 189–190

Partiality – see Apprehended bias

Passports

overseas travel and, 211–212

Periodic child support payments

departure application, 254–257

Permanent relocation – see Relocation

Persons “significant” to the child

parenting orders and, 174–179

Primary carers

outcomes post-return for abducting primary-carer mothers, 201–208

Private international law

Hague Child Protection Convention and, 129

Procedural fairness

denial of, 241–245

use by magistrate of extrinsic material, 55–56

Property proceedings

adjustment of 15% to the wife questioned, 180–186

adult children acting as case guardians, 41–46

appeal at same time as parenting orders appeal, 180–186

application to sell home to relocate, 180–186

ascertaining legal and equitable title, 87–91

binding financial agreements and – see Binding financial agreements

child support concurrent hearings, 255

contributions during incarceration, 52–59

discretionary family trust assets as property of the parties to the marriage, 63–75

errors in assessing contributions, 169–173

four-step process in Hickey, 86–87

fundamental propositions in Stanford v Stanford, 80–93

identifying financial resources, 91

order of judicial consideration, 82–83

ownership, in law and in equity, of real property, 163–168

property settlement sought to pay for care, 41–46, 80–93, 118–122

sufficient weight to contributions, 47–51, 52–59

superannuation – see Superannuation assets

treatment of Defence Force Retirement and Death Benefits, 169–173

use of equitable doctrines in, 80–93

Psychiatric conditions

consent to treatment for childhood gender identity disorder, 246–253

psychiatric report as a condition of overnight contact, 75–79

Reasonable apprehension of bias – see Apprehended biasReasons for judgment

orders reflecting ex tempore reasons for judgment, 241–245

sufficiency of, 243–244

Rehearing

versus re-exercise of discretion, 244–245

Relationships – see also De facto relationships; Marriage

long-term clandestine relationships, 117–120

no presumptions as between parents and non-parents, 174–179

property division after relationship breakdown, 84

Relocation – see also Child abduction; Return orders absence of evidence in making findings about, 108–109, 111

age of children and, 107–111

detrimental effects of return, 114

expert evidence against, 180–186

international relocation, 213–219

international responses, 217–219

issues of Aboriginal culture and the role of the Full Court, 21–24

legislative pathway of Pt VII for parenting orders, 112–116

option for both parents to move, 109–110

returning children to Italy, 30–40

special-needs children resistant to change, 180–186

time with family members suspended, 174–179

Remittal for a rehearing

jurisdiction under s 116 of CSAA until completion of the judicial process, 254–257

versus re-exercise of discretion, 244–245

Residence – see Habitual residenceResidential care

property settlement when intact marriage, 41–46, 80–93, 118–122

Return orders – see also Hague Convention on Child Abduction; Relocation application for discharge of, 30–40

outcomes post-return to Australia, 201–208

returning children to Italy, 30–40

undertakings to ameliorate risk, 197–198

Risk

subjective perception of, 195–196

Risk – continued

unacceptable risk and final orders in false allegations of sexual abuse, 151–153 undertakings to ameliorate, 197–198

Schooling – see also Educational costs

information about to persons “significant” to the child, 174–179 mutually agreed school, 254–257

Self-represented litigants

orders submitted by, 241–245

Sexual abuse

false allegations of, 137–155
letter regarding, 189–190
Magellan matters, 143–147

Shared parental responsibility

outcomes post-return to Australia, 201–208
relocation and, 112–116
relocation of child with ADHD, 180–186

Sheldon v Weir

issues of Aboriginal culture and the role of the Full Court, 21–24

Shuttle mediation

pros and cons of, 104–106

“Significant” persons

parenting orders and, 174–179

Sole parental responsibility presumption of parental responsibility applied only to parents, 174–179

Special medical procedures

court authorisation of, 246–253

Special-needs children – see also Marion’s Case

relocation, 180–186

Spousal maintenance

urgent, 254–257

Stanford v Stanford

property settlement when intact marriage and death of party, 41–46, 118–122
the three fundamental propositions in, 80–93

Superannuation assets

calculation errors, 47–51

Superannuation assets – continued

Defence Force Retirement and Death Benefits, 169–173 error in assessment of contributions to, 169–173
identifying interests in, 91
in pools of assets, 169–173
sufficient weight to contributions, 47–51

Supervised contact

practical issues with, 56

Surrogacy arrangements

in California, 156–160
response of UK to global surrogacy industry, 28–29

Surveys

outcomes post-return to Australia, 201–208

Tenants in common

property to be considered in Pt VIII proceedings, 163–168

Therapeutic treatments – see Special medical procedures

Title, legal and equitable ascertaining in family property law, 87–88

Torres Strait Islander children

relying on s 60CC(6) of the Family Law Act, 18–20

Transnational families – see also Habitual residence; International conventions; Relocation

outcomes post-return to Australia, 201–208
transnational mothering and international child abduction, 14–17

Transsexualism – see Childhood gender identity disorder

Travel – see Overseas travel

Trusts – see Family discretionary trusts

United Kingdom

response to global surrogacy industry, 28–29

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child

parenting issues and, 229

Unjust enrichment

family property law, 85–86

Watch List orders (PACE alerts)

- overseas travel and, 212–213
- restraints on child's removal from Australia,
174–179

Witnesses

- observation of outside witness box, 53–54