
Index

Administration of justice – see Judicial administration

Bangladesh

- judicial independence, 237–252
- apex court decisions in post-separation era, 241–243
- constitutional status of judiciary and separation, 238–240
- constitutionality of Emergency Power Rules indemnity clauses, 244–248
- exclusion of court jurisdiction under state of emergency, 240–241
- human rights dimensions of apex court decisions, 248–249
- post-general election developments, 249–250

Book review

- Lessons from the Australian Constitution* (Cannon), 60

Case management, 211–218

- changing role of judiciary, 212–213
- diversity, 213–214
- entrenchment of judicial case management, 211–212
- judicial and legislative endorsement, 215–216
- significance of legislative endorsement, 217
- systematic evaluation, 214–215

Conferences

- pretrial – see Pretrial conferences

Constitutional law

- book review, 60

Costs

- case management – see Case management
- containing, in time of economic crisis, 205–210
- discovery, 126–129

Courts

- debt collection – see Debt collection
- performance measurement – see Performance measurement
- therapeutic jurisprudence – see Therapeutic jurisprudence

Debt collection

- minor claims (Queensland), 186–199
- court decisions, 189–190

Debt collection – continued

- minor claims (Queensland) – continued
 - jurisdiction, 186
 - Magistrates Court civil cases, 189
 - minor and small claims, 187–188
 - study, 190
 - methodology, 190–195
 - results, 195–198

Discovery

- reforms, 116–135
 - abuse of process, 132–135
 - ambit of discoverable documents, 118–121
 - appointment of independent persons, 124–126
 - conferral, 129–132
 - judicial case management, 121–122
 - limiting costs, 126–129
 - Victorian expansion of individual docket system, 122–124

Economic conditions

- implications for administration of justice, 205–210

Evidence – see Expert evidence

Excellence – see Performance measurement

Expert evidence

- advocacy, 40
- civil justice system problems, 40
- concurrent evidence (“hot-tubbing”), 49–52
 - critique of, 50–52
 - Federal Court, 49
 - Land and Environment Court of New South Wales, 49
 - New South Wales Uniform Civil Procedure Rules, 49
 - procedure, 48–49
- joint conferences, 52–59
 - critique of, 54–59
 - New South Wales, 53–54
 - procedures, 52
 - United Kingdom, 53
- joint experts appointed by parties, 41–48
 - critique of, 43–48
 - New South Wales, 42–48
 - procedure, 41
 - Queensland, 43
 - United Kingdom, 41–42

Expert evidence – continued

- proliferation of experts, 39–40
- reform in Australia and United Kingdom, 39–59
 - impetus for, 39–40
 - objectives, 40

Financial conditions – see Economic conditionsGermany

- civil code system
- pretrial conferences, 234–235
- victim–offender conferences, 87–88

Global financial crisis – see Economic conditionsHobart Magistrates Court – see Mental health*Judges

- communication with juries – see Juries
- decision-making – see Judicial decision-making
- decision to become, factors affecting, 14–15
- independence – see Judicial independence
- mentoring – see Judicial mentoring
- national survey (2007), 5–21
 - administration, 20
 - analysis, 20–21
 - development, 7–8
 - findings, 9–20
 - representativeness, 9–10
- personal and social characteristics, 10–12
- professional background, 12–14
- skills, 16–17
- speeches – see Media
- work satisfaction, 17–18
- work stress, 18–19

Judicial administration

- economic crisis and, 205–210

Judicial decision-making

- reasons for decisions – see Reasons for decisions

Judicial independence

- Bangladesh – see Bangladesh
- judges' speeches, 165–167

Judicial mentoring

- Churchill Fellowship report, 219–229
 - age, culture and personality, 220–221
 - aim and interviews, 219–220
 - biases, 220
 - collegiality, 221
 - confidentiality, 221
 - enthusiasm, 221

Judicial mentoring – continued

- Churchill Fellowship report – continued
 - euphemisms and meaning, 221–222
 - heads of jurisdiction, 222
 - incentive, 222–223
 - induction processes, 223
 - international – non common law, 223–224
 - issues, 227–228
 - judicial educators and colleges, 224–225
 - literature, 225
 - matching of mentors and mentees, 225
 - mentor and mentee training, 225
 - monitoring and evaluation, 226
 - natural mentor types, 226–227
 - personal needs, 227
 - recommendations, 220
 - resources, 227
 - stress, 228
 - structure, 228–229
 - values, 229

Judicial officers

- law reform suggestions by, 141–143

Juries

- judges' communication with
- judicial attitudes to, 65–84
- juror selection and orientation, 67–69
- jury deliberation, 81
- jury instructions, 78–81
- novel approaches, 82
- preliminary communications, 71–78
- professional development of judiciary, 69–71

Law reform

- calls for, in reasons for decisions, 141–143

Litigation funding

- uncertainties and controversies after Fostif decision, 101–115
 - Fostif litigation, 104–106
 - lingering uncertainties and controversies, 106–114
 - assignment of bare right to litigate, 106–107
 - distribution of “access to justice”, 110–111
 - efficacy of existing regulation, 113–115
 - intermeddling, 111–113
 - trafficking in litigation, 107–110
- maintenance and champerty, 103–104
- rise of litigation funding companies, 102–103

Magistrates courts

- debt collection – see Debt collection
- mental health – see Mental health
- pretrial conferences and sentence indications, 230–236

Media

- discourse analysis of judges' speeches, 144–168
 - archaeological context of justice debate, 157–161
- court-media relations topics, 153
- judicial concerns/stresses, 163–164
- major topics and themes, 154–155
- media
 - criticism of judges, 164–165
 - magic bullet or minefield, 161–163
 - public perception and, 152–153
- parallel “justice” discourses, 155–156
- politics and separation of powers, 165–167
- public confidence and courts, 144–149
- repetition of ideas, 167
- sentencing and discourse of time, 149–151
- study overview, 151–152

Mental health

- Hobart Magistrates Court's Mental Health Diversion List, 178–185
 - applications for referral, 179
 - bail conditions, 180
 - commencement, 178–179
 - data summary sheet, 184
 - discussions between referral and appearance, 179–180
 - eligibility to appear, 179
 - evaluation, 180–182
 - expressions of support, 182–183
 - future, 183
 - prosecution process flow, 185
 - victims, 180

Mentoring – see Judicial mentoring

Newspapers – see Media

Performance measurement

- courts, 22–38
 - accessibility and cost, 28–29
 - community confidence, 30–32
 - defining excellence, 22–38
 - concept of excellence, 33–34
 - efficiency, 29–30
 - open justice, 26–28

Performance measurement – continued

- courts – continued
 - performance assessment regime, 34–38
 - substantive justice, 24–26
 - timeliness, 28

Press – see Media

Pretrial conferences

- magistrates courts, 230–236
 - German civil code system, 234–235
 - sentencing principles, 233–234
 - South Australian experience, 231–233
 - costs, 233
 - victims, 232–233
 - states other than South Australia, 233

Problem solving – see Therapeutic jurisprudence

Reasons for decisions

- calls for law reform in, 141–143

Restorative justice – see Victim offender conferences

Sentencing

- indication schemes
 - magistrates courts, 230–236
 - Supreme Court (Victoria), 169–177
 - advantages of legislative foundation, 172
 - concerns, 171–172
 - Criminal Procedure Legislation Amendment Act 2008 (Vic), 172
 - features of legislated scheme, 175–176
 - indictable proceedings, 170
 - particular protections, 173–175
 - reasons for extending, 172–173
 - Sentencing Advisory Council recommendations, 170–171
 - sunset clause, 177
- intuitive synthesis, 233–234
- judges' speeches, 149–151

South Australia

- pretrial conferences, 231–233
 - costs, 233
 - victims, 232–233

Stress – see Work stress

Therapeutic jurisprudence

- Hobart Magistrates Court's Mental Health Diversion List, 178–185

Therapeutic jurisprudence – continued

victim offender conferences – see Victim offender conferences

Victim offender conferences

court processes, 85–100

changes to procedure in common law courts, 86–87

examples, 88–98

German model, 87–88

role of courts, 85–86

social psychology of procedural fairness, 86

Work stress

judges survey (2007), 18–19