
Index

- Abuse of dominance
 - prohibiting, 300
- “Access, Assess, Act” framework
 - on online disclosures, 4–13
- Access regimes see National Access Regime
- Accessorial liability
 - for enablers of deceptive marketing, 119–123
- Across-Platform Parity Agreements (APPAs)
 - defined, 259
- Advertising
 - online, disguised, 113
- Africa
 - competition law in, 87
- Agency
 - of corporations, 270–278
- Agreed facts
 - treatment of in court, 82
- Air cargo cartels
 - cases against, 312–314
- Air NZ case
 - extra-territoriality in, 293–297, 305–311
- Alternative dispute resolution (ADR)
 - ACCC power to approve collective bargaining, 40
- Android Pay
 - growth in use of, 186
- Anti-competition legislation see Competition law
- Antisteering restrictions
 - credit cards in the US, 319–323
- Antitrust cases
 - credit cards in the US, 319–323
- Apple
 - Apple Pay, 42–44, 186
 - smartphones “bricking” on unauthorised repair, 213–214
- Australian Communications and Media Authority
 - compliance and monitoring arrangements, 62–64
- Australian Communications Consumer Action Network
 - on variation to compliance and monitoring, 62–64
- Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC)
 - air cargo cartel cases, 312–314
 - Apple case, 213–214
 - cases brought by, 243–245
 - egg marketing cases, 201–204
 - Flight Centre case appeal, 216–222
 - lessons from actions of, 303–304
 - offers Immunity Policy, 34–38
 - policy on consumer information, 4–13
 - power to approve collective bargaining, 40–45
 - price monitoring by, 136–138
 - Sea Swift* case, 223–227
 - seeks injunctions, 78
 - submission on setting pecuniary penalties, 67–68
- Australian Competition Tribunal
 - 2016 activities, 145–148
 - appeal in camera repair case, 214–215
 - cases brought in, 243
 - regarding merger authorisations, 280–285
 - Sea Swift* case, 223–227
- Australian Financial Services Licences
 - for digital finance suppliers, 193
- Australian Hotels Association
 - collective bargaining applications, 41–42
- Australian Journal of Competition and Consumer Law
 - 25th anniversary edition, 3
 - “Report from China”, 181
- Australian Privacy Principles
 - digital wallet use and, 188

Banking industry

collective bargaining applications, 43–44
fees in as penalties, 46–52

Barriers to entry

costs of entry vs, 225–226

Benefit, quantifying

NZ competition law, 173–175
when setting pecuniary penalties, 65–70

“Big data”

extracting value from, 124–135

Breaches of confidentiality

digital finance suppliers, 189

Bundling arrangements

Russian competition law case, 165–166

Business see also Corporations dispute resolution in business community, 163

legal meaning of, 18–19

Cartels

air cargo, 312–314
criminal prosecutions, 53–61
extra-territoriality in, 292–300
leniency offers, 22–39
Prysmian case, 274–275

Causation

judicial definition, 178

China

competition law, 181
Tetra Pak case, 234

Cloud-based transactions see Online transactionsCollective bargaining

ACCC power to approve, 40–45

“Commercial”

legal meaning of, 18–19

“Commercial use”

acquisition for outside business context, 17–18

Communications Compliance

obligations of, 62–64

Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (CCA)

amendments to, 298–300
Harper review and, 286–291

Competition and MarketsAuthority (UK)

“Access, Assess, Act” disclosure
framework, 4–13

Competition law see also Cartels; Consumer protection applications to the ACT in 2016, 145–148

effect of new technology, 231–232
EU e-commerce sector inquiry, 241
in Africa, 87
in China, 181
in New Zealand, 173–175
in Russia, 164–168
in South Korea, 315–318
MFN clauses under, 259–269
price monitoring in, 136–139
triggers for activating, 153–162

Competition law review see Harper Review of competition lawCompliance issues

telecommunications industry, 62–64

Conduct

as “spectrum of dealings”, 252–253 characterisation in online transactions, 99 characterisation in setting penalties, 68, 73–74

Confidentiality issues see Disclosure issues; Privacy issuesConsent to online privacy policies, 150–152

“Consumer contract”

vs “small business contract”, 14–21

Consumer protection

banking fees not punitive, 46–52
communication of privacy information, 149–152
digital wallets, 183–195
disguised online marketing, 113–123
ethical egg labelling, 196–212
implications of “big data”, 124–135 litigation, 213–223
NZ competition law, 169–176
providing consumers with information, 4–13

Contracts

- changing unfair terms for small businesses, 301–304
- “giving effect to” a provision, 251–258
- legal status of disclaimers in, 83–84
- restraint of trade clauses, 95–96
- sales restrictions in, 240–242
- unfair term provisions, 14–21

Corporations

- agency of, 270–278
- online disclosures of corporate information, 4–13

Corrective notices

- ACCC seeks publication of, 77

Credence claims

- ethical egg labelling, 196–197

Credit cards

- history of payments, 185
- US laws, 319–323

Criminal prosecutions

- cartel conduct cases, 53–61

Customer switching

- policies to facilitate, 11–13

Damages

- follow-on damages in African law, 91

Data collection and analysis

- digital wallet use, 187–188
- in online marketing, 124–135

Deceptive conduct see Misleading or deceptive conductDeclaratory relief

- ACCC seeks, 77

Deterrence

- a primary objective of setting penalties, 71–78

Detriment, quantifying

- when setting pecuniary penalties, 65–70

Digital wallets see Online transactionsDisclosure issues see also Privacy issues

- online disclosures of corporate information, 4–13

Disguised marketing see Marketing, onlineDispute resolution see also Alternative dispute resolution (ADR)

- in business community, 163

Distribution strategies

- European e-commerce sector, 240–241

“Dominance”, concept of see Abuse of dominanceDrip pricing

- as prosecutable offence, 8–9

E-commerce see also Online transactions

- EU inquiry into sector, 239–242

Egg marketing

- free-range labelling, 196–212
- outdoor stocking density, 209–210

Employment contracts

- restraint of trade clauses, 95–96

Energy industry regulation

- year in review, 79–81

Enforcement

- under Harper recommendations, 286–291

“Engaging in conduct”

- as applied to online transactions, 99

ePayments Code

- provisions of, 191–192

Ethical egg labelling

- consumer protection, 196–212

Europe

- e-commerce sector inquiry in EU, 239–242
- narrow MFNs in, 263–264
- triggers for activating competition law in EU, 158–160

Evidence

- Chinese anticompetition cases, 237–238

Exclusionary rules

- credit cards in the US, 321

Extra-territoriality

- in Air NZ case, 305–311
- in cartel conduct cases, 292–300

False representation see Misleading or deceptive conduct

Financial transactions see also Online transactions

means of exchange, 184–186

Flight Centre case

High Court allows appeal, 216–222

MFN clauses in, 267–269

Follow-on damages see Damages

Foreign jurisdictions

liability to prosecution for cartel conduct in, 30–31

Fraud

identity theft, 190

“Free range” eggs see Egg marketing

“Full Harper” see Harper Review of competition law

Game theory

leniency offers in cartel conduct cases, 22–39

“Giving effect to” a provision

in contracts, 251–258

Google

Google Wallet replaced by Android Pay, 186

Russian competition law case, 164–168

Harm, theory of

Russian competition law case, 166–168

Harper Review of competition law amendments to extra-territorial provisions, 298–300 changes to enforcement and remedies, 286–291

impact on NCC, 230

High Court decisions

Air NZ case, 296–297, 308–309

banking fees not penalties, 46–52

Flight Centre case appeal, 216–222

Identity theft

fraud via, 190

Immunity Policy

ACCC offers, 34–38

“Influencers”

online marketing by, 113–123

Information

“big data” versus, 125–127

reliability of reviews, 10–11

Infrastructure regulation

price monitoring in, 136–139

“Instinctive synthesis” process in imposing civil penalties, 84–86

Internet see Online transactions

“Knowingly concerned”

judicial definition, 177

Law reform see also Harper Review of competition law

NZ competition law, 175–176

Leniency offers

cartel conduct cases, 22–39, 89–90

Chinese anticompetition cases, 237–238

Liability issues

for enablers of deceptive marketing, 119–123

in private anticompetition cases, 29–30

triggers for activating competition law, 153–162

Loyalty discounts

Tetra Pak case (China), 235–236

MacGen case

authorisation of mergers in, 284–285

Malware issues

digital wallet use, 189–190

Market power see also Abuse of dominance

effect of new technology, 231–232

Marketing, online

disguised viral, 113–123

proving misleading or deceptive conduct, 97–112

Markets

defining, 305–311, 313–314
 South African enquiries into, 90
 territoriality of, 292–300

Means of exchange

financial transactions, 184–186

“Merchantable quality”

judicial definition, 178

Mergers

authorisations and notifications regarding, 279–285
 South Korean law regarding notification of, 316

MFN clauses see Most Favoured Nation clausesMisleading or deceptive conduct false differentiation of identical products, 140–144

 in online transactions, 97–112
 NZ law relating to, 169–176
 where there is disagreement as to fact, 83–84

Monitoring arrangements

telecommunications industry, 62–64

Most Favoured Nation clauses

under competition law, 259–269

National Access Regime

NCC activities under, 228
 price monitoring in, 136–139

National Competition Council (NCC)

activities under National Access Regime, 228

National Gas Law applications

NCC activities, 230

New Zealand

consumer protection laws, 169–176

Newcastle Shipping Channel

regulation of, 138–139

Non-discrimination rules (NDRs) see Antisteering restrictionsNurofen case record penalty imposed on appeal, 140–144

Online information see InformationOnline transactions

Apple Pay, 42–44
 “big data” collected from, 124–135 cloud-based, 188–189
 communication of privacy information, 149–152
 user protection in digital wallets, 183–195
 disguised marketing in, 113–123
 “person” as applied to online transactions, 98–99
 proving misleading or deceptive conduct, 97–112

Open Banking initiative (UK)

proposal for endorsed, 5–6

Open source software

data collection and analysis, 128–129

Overseas conduct see Most Favoured Nation clausesParent companies control over subsidiaries, 270–278

Parity issues

when setting pecuniary penalties, 68

“Particular purpose”

judicial definition, 177

PayPal

growth in use of, 186

Penalties

banking industry fees as, 46–52 criminal cartel conduct convictions, 54–55 deterrence a primary objective of, 71–78 establishing quantifiable benefit or detriment, 65–70
 for abuse of market power, 288 for cartel conduct, 38
 for illegal practices in South Korea, 316–317
 for underquoting, 84–86 “instinctive synthesis” process in imposing, 84–86
 misleading marketing, 140–144
 submissions as to amount, 82

“Person”

as applied to online transactions, 98–99

- Phishing scams
 - digital wallet use, 189–190
- Port of Newcastle
 - shipping channel services, 228–229
- Price fixing
 - through MFN clauses, 266–269
- Price information
 - implications of making public, 6–7
 - making effective comparisons with, 9–10
 - transparency in, 240–241
- Price parity clauses see Most Favoured Nation clauses
- Prisoner’s Dilemma
 - leniency offers in cartel conduct cases, 24–29
- Privacy issues see also Disclosure issues
 - communication of privacy information, 149–152
 - digital wallet use, 187–188, 195
- Private litigation against cartels
 - liability to, 29–30, 37–38
- Property Media Group
 - collective bargaining applications, 42–43
- Prysmian* case
 - subsidiary agency in, 274–275
- Public benefit
 - authorisation of mergers based on, 279–285
- Quantifying benefit or detriment
 - when setting pecuniary penalties, 65–70
- Reasonable man
 - ongoing search for, 249–250
- Regulatory regimes
 - digital finance suppliers, 193
 - egg marketing, 201–209
- Remedies
 - Russian competition law, 168
 - under Harper recommendations, 286–291
- “Request”
 - judicial definition, 177
- Restraint of trade clauses
 - in employment contracts, 95–96
- Russian competition law
 - case against Google, 164–168
- Sales restrictions
 - “geo-blocking”, 242
- Samsung Pay
 - growth in use of, 186
- Sea Swift* case
 - authorisation of mergers in, 283–284
 - Tribunal authorises asset purchase, 223–227
- Search and seizure operations
 - in African nations, 90–91
- Security issues
 - digital wallet use, 190–191, 194
- Servcorp* case
 - unfair small business contracts in, 302–303
- Small and medium businesses (SMEs)
 - changes to unfair contract legislation for, 301–304
- South Africa
 - competition law enforcement, 90–91
- South Australia
 - Water Regime, 229
- South Korea
 - amendments to competition law in, 315–318
- Subsidiaries
 - proving agency of parent companies, 270–278
- Tabcorp* case
 - authorisation of mergers in, 280–283
- Technological change see also Online transactions
 - digital wallets, 183–195
 - effect on market design, 231–232
 - extracting value from “big data”, 124–135

Telecommunications industry

communication of privacy information, 149–152
compliance and monitoring arrangements,
62–64

Tetra Pak case (China)

decision in, 234

Tokenisation security

for digital payments, 194–195

Totality principles

in setting penalties, 75–76

“Trade or commerce”

as applied to online transactions, 100–103

Triggers

for activating competition law, 153–162

“Triple A” framework see “Access, Assess, Act” frameworkTying of products or services see Bundling arrangements*Underquoting

penalties for, 84–86

“Undue”

judicial definition, 177–178

Unfair contract legislation changes for small businesses, 301–304

“consumer contract” vs “small business contract”, 14–21

United Kingdom

“Access, Assess, Act” disclosure
framework, 4–13
Open Banking initiative, 5–6 policies to facilitate customer switching, 11–13

United States

criminal cartel conduct cases, 58–61 laws regarding credit cards, 319–323
triggers for activating competition law, 157–158

Victorian Farmers’ Federation

collective bargaining applications, 41

Viral marketing see Marketing, onlineWater Regime (SA)

certification application, 229

Website design see Online transactionsWhistleblowers

South Korean rewards for, 317–318

