

---

Index

---

Aboriginal people

- communication in criminal justice system, 26-35
  - English language limitations, 26-29
  - interpreters' competence and training, 32-34
  - reluctance to use or act as interpreters, 31-32
  - tactical reasons for not using interpreters, 30-31
- courts, judicial conduct in, 138-143 – see also

Therapeutic jurisprudence

- Elders or Respected Persons, 156-157
- Indigenous Justice Taskforce (WA), 100-107
  - challenges facing, 101-102
  - establishment, 101
  - quantifiable achievements, 104-107
    - additional listings, 104-105
    - assistance provided to victims of crime, 106
    - critical response team, 106-107
    - juvenile justice, 107
    - timeliness, 105-106
    - workload, 104
  - specific actions, 102-104

Administration of justice – see Courts; Judges

Adversarial processes

- alternatives to (book review), 246-248 – see also Alternative dispute resolution; Therapeutic jurisprudence

Alternative dispute resolution – see also

Investigative approach

- book review, 246-248
- building and construction disputes, 119-126
  - compulsory conferences, 119-120
    - procedure, 120
  - concurrent evidence (“hot tubs”), 121-122
  - expert conclaves, 120-121
  - expert evidence
    - VCAT guidelines, 122-124
    - VCAT sample directions, 125
    - VCAT Scott Schedule, 126

Attorney-General

- role in defending judiciary, 160-175
  - arguments for defending judiciary, 168-172
    - counter-arguments unconvincing, 169-172
    - other defenders inappropriate, 172
    - suitability as chief defender, 172-173
  - arguments for not defending judiciary, 166-168
    - more appropriate means, 167-168

Attorney-General – continued

- role in defending judiciary – continued
  - arguments for not defending judiciary – continued
    - practical difficulties, 166-167
    - violation of separation of powers, 166
  - history of office of Attorney-General, 164-165
  - modern Attorney-Generals, 165-166
  - public confidence in judiciary, 162-163
    - criticism requiring response, 163
    - legitimate and illegitimate criticism, 162-163
    - meaning of “public confidence”, 162
  - theory in practice, 173-174

Book reviews

- Judicial Recusal* (Hammond), 187-191
- Non Adversarial Justice* (King et al), 246-248

Building and construction disputes

- alternative dispute resolution – see Alternative dispute resolution

Case management

- meetings, 158-159

China

- fines – see Theft

Client legal privilege

- in-house counsel, 36-57
  - ALRC report, 50-57
    - background, 50-52
    - critical analysis, 54-57
    - final report, 53-54
  - Australian cases, 38-46
    - historical overview, 38-40
    - recent decisions, 40-46
  - other common law jurisdictions, 46-50
    - Canada, 48-50
    - England, 46-48
    - New Zealand, 46
  - privilege doctrine, 37-38

Communication – see Aboriginal people

Conferences

- compulsory, 119-120
- procedure, 120

Constitutional law

- funding of courts, 77-79
- judges' non-judicial functions, 8-10

Counsel – see Client legal privilege*Courts

- funding, 75-87
  - constitutional position, 76-77
  - efficiency, productivity, performance and judicial function, 79-84
  - functions of courts, 77-79
  - judiciary funding; source and accountability, 84-86
- public access to records, 197-231
  - case for reform, 221-222
  - Australian current law, rules and practice, 201-207
    - ACT, 202-203
    - Family Court, 202
    - Federal Court, 201-202
    - High Court, 201
    - NSW, 203-204
    - NT, 205
    - Qld, 205
    - SA, 205-206
    - Tas, 207
    - Vic, 204-205
    - WA, 206
  - Canada, 216-220
  - electronic records and privacy, 229-231
  - England, 210-212
  - New Zealand, 207-210
  - proposals for modern framework, 222-229
    - accessibility of records not accessible as of right, 226-227
      - additional rules limiting public access, 226-227
    - consolidation of legislative prescriptions on public access, 226
    - notice to interested parties or persons, 226
    - register of records subject to suppression, non-publication or confidentiality orders, 227
  - clear and complete definition of court record, 223
  - consolidated legal framework, 222-223
  - criteria governing applications for approval to access, 227-228
  - minimised use of personal data identifiers, 228-229

Courts – continued

- public access to records – continued
  - proposals for modern framework – continued
    - proactive steps to inform and educate participants in court process, 229
  - procedure for seeking access, 228
  - records publicly accessible as of right, 223-226
    - committal and bail hearings, 224
    - exhibits, 225
    - pleadings, 225
    - transcripts, 226
- United States, 212-216
  - federal courts, 212-214
  - State courts, 214-216

Criminal justice system

- Aboriginal people – see Aboriginal people

Delays

- judges' role in reducing, 88-99

Electronic court records

- public access, 229-231

Employment disputes

- investigative approach – see Investigative approach

Ethics

- therapeutic jurisprudence – see Therapeutic jurisprudence

Evidence – see also Expert evidence

- investigative approach
  - testing evidence, 113-114
  - witnesses, 111-112

Expert conclaves, 120-121*Expert evidence – see also Alternative dispute resolution

- investigative approach, 112

Fast track directions (Federal Court), 88-99*Federal Court

- delay reduction, 88-99

Fines – see Theft*Funding – see Courts*“Hot tubs” (concurrent evidence), 121-122*In-house counsel – see Client legal privilege

Indigenous Justice Taskforce – see Aboriginal people

Interpreters – see Aboriginal people

Investigative approach

- New Zealand Employment Relations Authority, 108-118
  - changes proposed, 115
  - establishment of facts, 111-112
    - documentary information, 112
    - expert evidence, 112
    - scope of investigation, 112
    - witnesses, 111-112
  - investigative practice, 110
  - participants' identification of issues, 110-111
  - reception of methods, 114-115
  - representatives' role, 114
  - statutory requirements, 109-110, 116-118
  - testing evidence, 113-114

Judges

- complaints against (Vic), 232-245
  - judicial accountability and judicial independence, 233-234
- Judicial Commission proposal, 242-245
  - contrast in judicial approach, 244-245
- NSW Judicial Commission as model, 240-242
  - reception by judiciary, 241-242
  - work done, 242
- public confidence, 235-236
- status quo as viable option, 236-240
  - complaints procedures, 238-239
  - nature of complaints, 236-238
  - public opinion, 239-240
- defending from criticism – see Attorney-General
- delay reduction, 88-99
- funding – see Courts
- independence – see Judicial independence
- non-judicial functions, 5-21
  - judicial power and executive functions, 13-16
  - non-judicial functions incompatible with judicial power, 16-20
  - separation of powers, 10-13
  - State and Commonwealth constitutional provisions, 8-10
  - State courts, 5-7
  - State judges exercising coercive administrative functions, 20-21
  - WA, 7-8
- recusal (book review), 187-191

Judicial administration – see Courts; Judges

Judicial commissions – see Judges

Judicial decision-making

- New Zealand Disputes Tribunal – see Judicial officers
- therapeutic jurisprudence – see Therapeutic jurisprudence

Judicial independence

- therapeutic jurisprudence – see Therapeutic jurisprudence
- Victoria, 233-234

Judicial officers

- New Zealand Disputes Tribunal
  - successful judicial practice of referees, 22-25
    - audi alteram partem, 24
    - clear and transparent process, 23
    - engaging with parties, 22-23
    - expression of decision, 25
    - focus on relevant issues and law, 23
    - foreshadowing essential elements of decision, 24
    - honesty with parties, 23-24
    - pre-hearing preparation, 22
    - responding to appeals, 25

Judicial practice – see Judicial officers

Lawyers

- in-house counsel – see Client legal privilege

Legal professional privilege – see Client legal privilege

Litigation

- delays, reducing, 88-99
- path dependency, 176-186

Natural justice – see Procedural fairness

New Zealand

- New Zealand Disputes Tribunal
  - successful judicial practice of referees – see Judicial officers
- New Zealand Employment Relations Authority
  - investigative approach – see Investigative approach

Path dependency

- effect on actors in litigation, 176-186

Privacy

- court records, 229-231

Problem solving – see Therapeutic jurisprudence

Procedural fairness

psychology of, 127-128

Public access – see Courts*Public perceptions – see Procedural fairness*Records – see Courts*Recusal – see Judges*Sentencing

finer – see Theft

therapeutic jurisprudence – see Therapeutic jurisprudence

Small claims courts

New Zealand Disputes Tribunal – see Judicial officers

Theft

finer as penalty in Australia and China, 58-70

judicial practices, 65-68

factors considered, 67-68

proportion of fines used in theft cases, 65-67

legislation, 59-65

definition of theft, 59-60

jurisdiction over theft, 60-62

sentencing: fines for theft, 64-65

sentencing: role of fines, 62-64

Therapeutic jurisprudence – see also Alternative dispute resolution

judicial conduct, 133-159

changing judicial roles, 134-147

Indigenous sentencing courts, 138-143

judging, 143-147

problem-solving courts, 134-138

ethical challenges, 154-159

case management meetings, 158-159

content of proceedings and sentencing decision, 155-156

Elders or Respected Persons, 156-157

interaction outside courtroom, 154-155

limits of therapeutic judging, 157-158

judicial values, 147-154

care ethic, 151-154

impartiality, 149-151

independence, 148-149

integrity, 151

Victoria

judicial commission – see Judges

Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal

Domestic Building List – see Alternative dispute resolution

Witnesses

investigative approach, 111-112