
Index

Aboriginal law, rights and justice

- Aboriginal Community Assembly releases recommendations to Aboriginal Treaty Working Group, 87
- Constitutional recognition of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island people
 - Joint Select Committee, 173, 264
- High Court's first sitting in Northern Territory, 356
- incarceration rate
 - ALRC inquiry, 176
- Torres Strait Islanders
 - first MP elected, 87
- treaty process
 - legislation (Vic), 176, 264

Advisory opinions

- High Court
 - no leave to commence proceedings seeking, 89

Appeals

- grounds
 - "reasonable internal relocation test", 273
- High Court jurisdiction cannot be used in place of statutory appeals process, 90

Asylum seekers — see Migration law

Australian Capital Territory

- interpretation of legislation by reference to statutes of other states, 358

Bill of Rights (NZ)

- declaration of inconsistency
 - statutory power to make, 181

Book reviews

- The Constitution of Environmental Emergency* (Stacey), 351–355
- The Law of Deliberative Democracy* (Levy & Orr), 83–86
- Political Jurisprudence* (Loughlin), 173–175
- Religious Freedom and the Australian Constitution – Origins and Future* (Beck), 261–263

Bougainville

- referendum, 356

Cabinet documents (NSW), 118–132

- conclusion, 132
- Legislative Council access, 119–126
 - Egan v Chadwick, 284–286
- scrutiny gap, 129–131
- "true" cabinet documents, 126–129

Coercion – see Federalism

Compulsory acquisition approved form of notice, 365–366

Constitution (Cth)

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people recognition

Joint Select Committee, 173, 264

federalism – see Federalism

head of state – see Head of State (Australia)

Indigenous recognition

Joint Select Committee, 173, 264

political communication – see Freedom of political communication

proportionality, 11–16

“Australian proportionality”, 15–16

Brown v Tasmania, 11–12

conclusion, 16

McCloy approach, 13–14

reformulating Lange test, 12–13

rejecting proportionality analysis, 14–15 religious freedom (book review), 261–263

s 44 – see Elections

tribunals – see Tribunals

Constitution (PNG)

Bougainville referendum, 356

Constitutional justice

limits, 63–82

conclusion, 81–82

political liberalism & social contract, 71–81

legitimacy, 71–74

socioeconomic rights & social minimum, 74–78

substantive equality & positive action, 78–81 theory of justice & classical liberal conception of constitution, 65–71 classical liberal distinction, 66–71 principles of justice, 65–66

right of Manus asylum seekers to seek damages for breach of constitutional rights (PNG Supreme Court), 90

Counter-Terrorism

legislative impact of Parliamentary Joint Committee, 287–294

Courts

attempted interference by government in proceedings, 366

Court of Appeal (Nauru), 269

Federal Circuit Court & Family Court merger, 269

live streaming of proceedings (WA), 269

Criminal law

permanent stay of proceedings (Nauru), 358–359

Delegation

construction of provisions delegating legislative power (NSW), 266–267 legislative instruments (Senate Standing Committee), 88–89, 177–178, 267

migration regulations, 178 to person other than public official, 365

UK Parliamentary Committee report on subordinate legislation, 266

Deliberative democracy

law of (book review), 83–86

Democracy

deliberative (book review), 83–86

political parties – see Political parties

Economics – see Socioeconomic rights; Taxation*Elections

“common informer” challenges, 180–181 conflicts of interest (s 44), 17–23

disqualifications & resignations, 3–10

Constitution, s 44(ii), 3

Constitution, s 44(iv), 7–8, 88, 177

Constitution, s 44(v), 3–4 foreign citizenship, 4–9, 177

future amendment of s 44, 9–10

High Court finds UK law did not “irremediably prevent” citizenship renunciation, 265

High Court refusal to re-open s 44 decision, 359

“office of profit under the Crown”, 88, 177 referendum on s 44 recommended, 265

political donations, 265

Queensland

first Torres Strait Islander MP elected, 87

systems

mechanisms to control anti-democratic parties 320–326

Employment law

arbitral award of Fair Work Commission, 359 fees for access to Employment Tribunals (UK), 97–103

significance for Australian employment law, 101–103

Supreme Court decision, 98–100

power of Commission to review workplace discrimination (Vic), 360

Environmental law

emergencies (book review), 351–355

Equality – see Constitutional justice*Executive

Department of Home Affairs established, 89

gun laws (Tasmania) & intergovernmental agreement, 179

Henry VIII clause (NZ), 241–260

conclusion, 260

definitions, 243

opposition to, 243–251

statutory examples, 251–260

Prime Ministerial change, 357

Federalism

legislation operating outside territorial limits, 357

Murray-Darling Basin Commission, 357

Federalism – continued

- prohibition on coercion, 47–62
- conclusion, 62
- US, 52–57
- Australia constitutional values and, 57–62
- Williams decision, 49–52

Finance – see Taxation

Freedom of information

- Council’s handling of request for information (NZ), 273–274

Freedom of political communication

- public servants, 327–350
 - conclusion, 349–350
 - constitutional limitations, 335–341
 - constitutional review inquiry directed at statutory burden, 345–349
 - regulation of political expression, 330–335
 - validity assessment, 341–345

Freedom of religion – see Religious freedom

Freedom of speech

- public service employees, 269–270

Head of State (Australia)

- methods of appointment, 147–172
 - arguments for Australian head of state, 148–151
 - conclusion, 172
 - constitutional issues for republican head of state, 161–165
 - failure of 1999 referendum model, 151–153
 - main models, 153–161
 - moving forward, 167–171
 - structural & conceptual issues, 165–167
- process of debate, 277–278

High Court

- advisory opinion
 - no leave to commence proceedings seeking, 89
- appeals from Supreme Court of Nauru, 180
- electoral decisions – see Elections
- first sitting in Northern Territory, 356
- jurisdiction cannot be used in place of statutory appeals process, 90
- Kable doctrine – see Legislation
- mandatory visa cancellation, 180
- original jurisdiction matters & State tribunals, 179–180
- UK citizenship renunciation, 265

Hong Kong

- socioeconomic rights – see Socioeconomic rights

Human rights — see also Freedom of speech; Religious freedom

- agency powers to access electronic data, 360–361
- Australia’s detention of stateless person, 87
- Human Rights Committee on Australia’s human rights record, 87–88

immigration “fast track” program, 90
 national security offences, 182
 New Zealand – see Bill of Rights (NZ)
 power of Commission to review workplace discrimination (Vic), 360
 religious freedom – see Religious freedom
 right of Manus asylum seekers to seek damages for breach of constitutional rights (PNG Supreme Court), 90
 statutory instruments
 “alcohol protection orders” (NT), 270

Immigration – see Migration law

Indigenous people

Australia — see Aboriginal law, rights and justice

Individual rights – see Human rights

International law – see also Human rights

Australia’s detention of stateless person, 87
 Timor Sea dispute treaty signed, 176

Judicial officers – see also Courts; High Court apprehended bias (NSW), 93

 former Australian judge appointed to Supreme Court (Nauru), 179 Law Council concern over judicial independence, 89 reasons for judgment incorporation of materials & statutory requirement of brevity, 366 publishing substantive further reasons, 363

Judicial power

Revenue Commissioner’s power to issue assessments, 358
 tribunals – see Tribunals

Judicial review

Administrative Appeals Tribunal review of, 272
 anti-dumping decision, 183 building security of payment legislation, 183–184 fast track migration, 183–184
 interrogating circumstances of crime (VCAT), 271–272
 magistrate’s conduct, 91
 procedural fairness for self-represented litigant, 361 search warrants, 91
 statutory test for re-opening investigations (Coroner’s Court, Vic), 271

Judiciary – see Courts; Judicial officers

Jurisprudence

political (book review), 173–175

Justice

constitutional – see Constitutional justice

Legality

- principle(s) of
 - general right of accused to have evidence admitted, 268
 - Radford* (Parole Board) case, 188–189
 - rationales, 204–205
 - seminar (2018), 187
 - three variants, 196–205
 - triggers, 196–198
 - Unison* case, 187–189, 190–195

Legislation

- delegated – see Delegation
- drafting guidelines (NZ), 266
- incorporation by reference
 - legislative instruments, 267
- interpretation – see Statutory interpretation
- invalidation of State legislation (Kable doctrine), 111–117
 - conclusion, 117
 - expansion of doctrine, 113–114
 - High Court decisions, 111–112
 - reasoning of French Court, 114–116
- operation outside territorial limits, 357

Legitimacy

- constitutional justice, 71–74

Liberalism

- constitutional – see Constitutional justice

Marriage

- same-sex marriage
 - legislation, 88

Migration law

- asylum seekers & refugees – see also Nauru; Papua New Guinea
 - blanket policy to confiscate mobile phones in detention centres, 267–268
 - “reasonable internal relocation test”, 273
- detention of stateless person, 87
- immigration “fast track” program
 - judicial review, 183–184
 - Parliamentary Committee concerns, 90
- mandatory visa cancellations, 180
- Migration Review Tribunal
 - apprehended bias, 92–93
- visa applicant’s opportunity to consider material, 362

National security

- offences, 182

Nauru

- appeals against decisions of Nauru refugee tribunal, 92, 184
- appeals from Supreme Court to High Court of Australia, 180

Court of Appeal established, 269 former Australian judge appointed to Supreme Court, 179 permanent stay of criminal proceedings, 358–359

New South Wales

apprehended bias (judicial officers), 93 cabinet documents – see Cabinet documents delegation of legislative power, 266–267
legislation operating outside territorial limits, 357
police statutory powers of arrest, 356
procedural fairness
 identity of complainant withheld in public interest, 272–273

New Zealand

Bill of Rights
 statutory power to make declaration of inconsistency, 181 disability support service entitlements, 178–179 drafting legislation, 266
freedom of information, 273–274
Henry VIII clause – see Executive party-hopping – see Political parties
Treaty of Waitangi – see Treaty of Waitangi disputes

Norfolk Island

complaint against Australian control, 184

Northern Territory

“alcohol protection orders”, 270
High Court’s first sitting in, 356

Ombudsman

attempted interference by government in court proceedings, 366

Papua New Guinea

Bougainville referendum, 356
refugee compensation claim, 359–360
right of Manus asylum seekers to seek damages for breach of constitutional rights (PNG Supreme Court), 90

Parliament

ineligibility for election to – see Elections
Joint Committee on Intelligence and Security legislative impact, 287–294

Police

judicial review principles applicable to search warrants, 91 statutory powers of arrest, 356

Political communication – see Freedom of political communication

Political donations

conditions (Vic), 265

Political jurisprudence

book review, 173–175

Political parties

- anti-democratic, 310–326
 - indirect mechanisms based on electoral system, 320–326
 - models to control (defensive democracy), 314–320
- party-hopping (NZ 1999–2018), 206–223
 - conclusion, 222–223
 - law as answer to political problem, 215–222
 - political behaviour & law, 206–207
 - political problem & legal solution, 209–215
 - proportional representation, 207–209

Procedural fairness

- appeals against decisions of Nauru Refugee Tribunal, 92, 184
- Board of Inquiry review of council's practices (Tas), 92
- identity of complainants withheld in public interest, 272–273
- interest-only approach, 24–46
 - abandonment of gradation, 31–34
 - conclusion, 46
 - gradation (legitimate expectations), 26–31
 - going forward, 43–46
 - problems with approach, 34–43
- judicial review, 361
- Parole Board (Qld), 184
- “scissors & paste” approach to submissions (WA Court of Appeal), 272
- visa applicant's opportunity to consider material, 362
- will dispute, 361–362

Property

- unjust acquisition & intergovernmental agreement, 181

Proportionality – see Constitution (Cth)

Public servants

- freedom of political communication – see Freedom of political communication

Queensland

- elections
 - first Torres Strait Islander MP elected, 87
- Parole Board
- procedural fairness, 184
- Revenue Commissioner's power to issue assessments, 358

Reasons for judgment – see Judicial officers

Refugees – see Migration law

Religious freedom

- Australian Constitution (book review), 261–263
- review panel, 182

Republic

- head of state – see Head of State (Australia)
- process of debate, 277–283
 - addressing concerns, 278–279

principles, 280–283
 Uluru Statement model, 279–280

Rights

socioeconomic – see Socioeconomic rights

Retrospectivity – see Statutory interpretation

Same-sex marriage

legislation, 88

Self-represented litigants

procedural fairness
 judicial review, 361
 provocative & confrontational, disrespectful & disruptive, 362–363
 will dispute, 361–362

Social contract – see Constitutional justice

Socioeconomic rights

Hong Kong, 133–146
 conclusions, 146
 Kong Yunming case, 135–139 standards of review after Kong Yunming, 139–146
 political liberalism & social contract, 74–78

South Australia

Murray-Darling Basin Commission, 357

State enterprises

Murray-Darling Basin Commission, 357

State tribunals – see Tribunals

Statutory interpretation – see also Legality

blanket policy to confiscate mobile phones in detention centres, 267–268 disability support service entitlements (NZ), 178–179 police powers of arrest, 356 reference to statutes of other States, 358 retrospectivity, 224–240
 “always speaking” approach, 235–239
 conclusion, 239–240
 parole provision, 268 illegal retrospectivity, 224–228 presumption against legislative retrospectivity, 229–235

Tasmania

gun laws
 intergovernmental agreement, 179
 procedural fairness
 Board of Inquiry review of council’s practices, 92

Taxation

GST distribution
 States’ responses to suggested changes to GST, 91 horizontal fiscal equalisation, 270–271

Territories

Norfolk Island complaint against Australian control, 184

Terrorism

legislative impact of Parliamentary Joint Committee, 287–294

Timor-Leste

treaty over Timor Sea, 176

Treaty of Waitangi disputes (NZ) arbitration & litigation, 295–309

conclusion, 308–309

cross-claim disputes, 296–301

substance & procedure in arbitration, 301–308

Tribunals

absence of applicant, 363

jurisdictional error, 364–365

State

interrogating circumstances of crime (VCAT), 271–272

judicial power & Constitution, 104–110 consequences of Burns v Corbett, 105–106 constitutional boundaries, 110 constitutional landscape, 104–105

responses to Burns v Corbett, 106–110 jurisdiction if not properly constituted (Vic), 183

original jurisdiction of High Court, 179–180

United Kingdom

citizenship renunciation, 265

fees for access to Employment Tribunals – see Employment law subordinate legislation, 266

United States

prohibition on coercion, 52–57

Australian constitutional values and, 57–62

Victoria

Aboriginal treaty process

legislation, 176, 264

Coroner's Court

statutory test for re-opening investigations, 271

judicial review

interrogating circumstances of crime (VCAT), 271–272

political donations, 265

power of Commission to review workplace discrimination, 360

tribunals – see Tribunals

Waitangi – see Treaty of Waitangi disputes (NZ)

Western Australia

live streaming of court proceedings, 269

procedural fairness

 “scissors & paste” approach to submissions, 272

will dispute, 361–362

