
Index to Reports

CRIMINAL LAW

- Evidence – Confessions and admissions – Statements – Voluntary statements – Inducement – Criminal Law Amendment Act 1894, s 10
R v ZD 159
- Evidence – Judicial discretion to admit or exclude evidence – Police interrogation – Propriety of police questioning and other conduct by police – Failure to caution – Where accused questioned as suspect – Cross-examination – Inducement – Totality of inappropriate conduct and breaches of statute – Criminal Code 1899, s 590AA – Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 – Police Powers and Responsibilities Code cl 22
R v ZD 159

PROCEDURE

- Judgments and orders – Amending, varying and setting aside – Setting aside – Default judgment – Whether entered irregularly – Proof of service of originating process – Sufficiency – Where served by post – Affidavit of service made by plaintiff's solicitor – Where acts of compiling correspondence and consignment to post box performed by employees – Failure of affidavit to state source of information deposed to – Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999, r 120
Gabeen Services Pty Ltd v Neverfail Bottled Water Co Pty Ltd 57
- Judgments and orders – Declaratory relief – District Court – Jurisdiction – Declaration as to compliance with notice requirements – Workers' compensation legislation – Where general jurisdiction of court invoked – Meaning of "other written instrument" – District Court of Queensland Act 1967, s 68(1)(b)(xiii)
Glasson v Toll Holdings Ltd 102

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- Personal injury actions against employers – Limitation of actions – Extension of time – Notice of claim – Compliance with statutory requirements – Non-compliant notice – Declaration as to remediation – District Court jurisdiction to make declaration in exercise of general jurisdiction – Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003, ss 275, 275(8), 297 – District Court of Queensland Act 1967, s 68(1)(b)(xiii)
Glasson v Toll Holdings Ltd 102