
Index

Accountants' liability

Travel Compensation Fund v Tambree, 31-42

Advocates' immunity – see Immunity of advocates

Auditors' liability

Travel Compensation Fund v Tambree, 31-42

Breach of duty

foreseeability, 131-134

Child sexual abuse

benefits of pursuing civil actions, 48 difficulties of suing in tort, 45-48
limitation periods, 46-48
repressed memory – see Repressed memory syndrome

Choses in action

conversion, 175-176

Consumer protection

negligent misstatement – see also Negligent misstatement
Fair Trading Act 1987 (NSW), 33-34
Fair Trading Act 1989 (Qld), 34-35
Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth), 32-33

Corpses

interference with, 63-66

Duty of care care – see Economic loss; Immunity of advocates; Negligent misstatement; Non-delegable duties; Public authority liability; Wrongful life actions

Economic loss

pure, 5-7

Economic torts

intention and unlawful means, 175
restoring confidence in, 172-176
“unlawful means”, 173-175

Employers

non-delegable duties – see Non-delegable duties

Environmental protection legislation

non-enforcement (Canada), 107-126
discretion, 110-112
government liability principles, 124-126
tort law analysis, 112-124

Evidence – see Repressed memory syndrome

Foreseeability – see Breach of duty

Forgetting – see Repressed memory syndrome

Immunity of advocates

arguments against, 13-14
arguments supporting, 13
Australian law, 16-19
Canada, 19-20
common law approaches, 16
comparative law, 11-30
England, 20-21
New Zealand, 21-22
securing finality without immunity, 13-14
traditional debate, 13-14
United States, 22-23

Memory – see Repressed memory syndrome

Negligence – see also Duty of care

House of Lords cases decision-making methodologies, 93-106
forms of approach, 95-99
tort of negligence, 104-105
underlying values, 99-104
misstatement cases – see Negligent misstatement

Negligence in sport

rules, guidelines and interpretation, 167-168
schoolteachers' liability for students' injuries, 162-171
causation, 166-167

Negligent misstatement – see also Consumer protection

professional liability to third parties, 31-42

Index

- advertent or inadvertent consequence of
 - consumer protection legislation, 41-42
- known but unintended users, 39-41
- passive sufferers, 39-41
- unintended users, 38-39

Non-delegable duties

- Leichhardt Municipal Council v Montgomery, 71-73

Personal injury

- foreseeability in context of breach of duty, 131-134

Professional negligence – see Negligent misstatement

Public authority liability

- Wednesbury unreasonableness test
 - civil liability legislation, 80-86
 - interpreting wording, 87-90
 - Ipp Report, 78-80
 - operation, 86-87
 - public authority liability, 77-92
 - specified principles approach, 90-92

Repressed memory syndrome

- child sexual abuse cases, 43-62
 - admissibility in civil courts, 58-60
- false memory, 55-58
- guidelines, 60-61
- legislative safeguards, 61
- limitations of human memory, 51
- nature of, 43-44
- oral tradition of court at common law, 49
- organisation of memory, 51-53
- psychology of memory, 50
- repressed memories, 54-55
- secrecy, 44
- witness memory, 44

Schoolteachers' liability – see Negligence in sport

Sporting participants

- educational benefits of sport in society, 168-169
- junior sport, 169-171
- negligence – see Negligence in sport
- rules, guidelines and interpretation, 167-168

Tort law

- comparative analysis, 181-184
- emerging issues, 177-186

Unreasonableness – see Public authority liability

Wednesbury unreasonableness test – see Public authority liability

Wrongful life actions

- birth of disabled child as loss to parents, 141-144
- birth of healthy child as loss to parents, 138-141
- born disabled as cause of action in child, 144
- breach of duty, 155-156
- Canadian cases, 74-76
- causation & remoteness, 156
- characterising loss (damage), 158-161
- damage and damages distinguished, 156-157
- damages
 - assessment, 157-158
- decisions, 144-150
- duty of care, 151-155
 - owed to unborn child, 136-137
- Harriton v Stephens, 7-10
- issues in claims, 150-161
- redressable losses, 137-138
- wrongful suffering, 7-10
- wrongfulness and rightfulness of actions, 135-161

Youth sport – see Negligence in sport