
Index

Aboriginal people – see also Gibson case (WA); Interrogation; Police interviews access to dispute resolution, 131–132

Advocates’ immunity future (Australia), 98–121

Attwells v Jackson Lalic Lawyers Pty Ltd, 110–113

conclusion, 121

future of immunity, 115–121

concept of finality, 115–117 legislative encroachment, 117–121

uncertainty as to protected conduct, 117

Kendirjian v Lepore, 113–115

post-D’Orta decisions, 104–110 breadth of causes of action, 104–107 breadth of conduct, 107–109

narrow approach, 109–110

transformation of immunity, 104

pre-D’Orta decisions, 99–104

D’Orte-Ekenaike v Victoria Legal Aid, 101–104

Giannarelli v Wraith, 100–101

origin of doctrine, 99

Alcohol

Gibson case (WA), 22

judicial alcohol use & dependence, 161–162

Alternative dispute resolution (ADR)

cultural considerations (literature review), 122–138

Family Dispute Resolution Professionals (FDRPs), 122–130

accreditation & obligations, 122–123

analysis of culture & parties’ expectations prior to mediation, 125–128 attitudes to culture, 123–125

children’s rights to culture, 128–129

co-mediation, 129–130

money, 136–138

conclusion, 138

East Asian children, 136–137

intergenerational succession in Chinese-Australian family businesses, 137–138

Western dispute resolution models, 130–136 culturally & linguistically diverse (CALD) communities’ access to services, 132–133 culture as excuse in family disputes, 133–134 faith-based ADR, 134–136

Indigenous Australians’ access, 131–132

tokenism or inclusiveness, 130–131

Appeal

Gibson case (WA), 34–35

court orders, 35

Arraignment

Gibson case (WA), 31–32

Aviemore Review (WA), 33–34

Barristers – see Counsel

Behaviourally anchored description

judges’ roles, 220–225

Clinical neuropsychologist

expert evidence in Gibson case (WA), 34

Clinical psychologist

expert evidence in Gibson case (WA), 34

Co-mediation

family disputes, 129–130

Communication – see also Silence, right to judicial, 210

skills, 211–212

Conferences with lawyers

Gibson case (WA), 26–27, 30

Confessions

false – see False confessions

Gibson case (WA), 36–37

Conviction

- Gibson case (WA), 31–32
- wrongful conviction, 41–42

Corruption and Crime Commissioner (WA)

- Gibson case, 32

Counsel

- evidence
- Gibson case (WA), 35
- immunity – see Advocates’ immunity

Court systems

- governance, 69–97, 169–203
 - judicial control of court administration, 72–82
 - arguments in favour, 72–75
 - judicial administrative accountability, 77–82
 - developing effective system, 77
 - judicial independence, 77–81
 - new elaboration, 81–82
 - problems associated with, 76–77
 - models of court governance, 82–97
 - Australian federal courts (autonomous model), 82–84
 - Canada (executive/guardian model), 91–92
 - England & Wales (minority partnership model), 89–91
 - Ireland (majority partnership model), 86–88
 - Netherlands (Judicial Council), 92–97
 - integrated internal governance model, 94–96
 - Minister, 96–97
 - policy frameworks, 97, 170–189
 - South Australia (Judicial Council), 84–86
 - Victoria (case study), 71–72
 - conclusion, 200–208
 - Court Services Victoria, 189–200
 - outline, 71–72
 - policy framework (Judicial Council), 170–189
 - aims & competences, 170–172
 - functions & internal court administration, 174–181
 - Minister’s role, 181–184
 - model framework in motion, 189
 - relationship with executive &

- stakeholders, 184–189
- representation on, 172–174

Cultural context

- alternative dispute resolution – see Alternative dispute resolution (ADR)
- Gibson case (WA), 4

Dispute resolution – see Alternative dispute resolution (ADR)

Drunkenness

- Gibson case (WA), 22
- judicial alcohol use & dependence, 161–162

Electronically recorded interviews (EROIs)

- application to exclude
- Gibson case (WA), 27–30

Emotion – see under Judicial officers

English language

- Gibson case (WA), 4, 7–8, 22

EROIs – see Electronically recorded interviews

Expert evidence

- Gibson case (WA), 34

False confessions

- coerced, 40–42
 - Gibson case (WA), 22–43
- compliant police-induced, 40
- Gibson case (WA), 37–38
- internalised police-induced, 40–41
- voluntary, 40

Family Dispute Resolution Professionals (FDRPs) – see under Alternative dispute resolution

Female lawyers, 44–50

- conclusion, 50
- feminine suitability, 47–49
 - commercial lawyers, 48–49
 - criminal lawyers, 47–48
- professional problems, 44–47
 - enforceable rights, 47
 - glass ceiling, 46–47

identity & gender roles, 46 visibility, 59–50

Gibson case (WA), 3

background, 6–7
communicating right to silence to Aboriginal suspects, 4–21 conclusions, 18–20, 42–43
discussion, 36–42
evidence of understanding in responses, 14–15 impact of decision, 17–18 judicial decision & beyond, 16–17 legal context, 4
police interviews & coerced false confessions, 22–43
postscripts, 20, 43

Hearings (Pre-trial)

Gibson case (WA), 22, 27–28

Incriminating statements

Gibson case (WA), 22

Indictments

Gibson case (WA), 27–32

Indigenous people – see Aboriginal people

Interpreters

Gibson case (WA)
evidence, 35
interview friend, 12–14
whether required, 11–12

Interrogation – see also Police interviews choosing not to answer questions, 10–11 guidelines for interrogating Aboriginal people, 4

Interview friends

Gibson case (WA), 12–14

Interviews

electronically recorded (EROIs), 27–30 police – see Police interviews
voluntariness
Gibson case (WA), 22

Judges – see also Judicial officers roles, 207–225

court participants, 215
guiding principles, 209 implications for therapeutic jurisprudence, 220 interaction with therapeutic jurisprudence, 214 judicial communication, 210
legal actor contributions behaviourally anchored description, 220–225
court checklist, 222–225 legitimacy of justice & procedural justice, 212–213
social distancing, 213–214
stages of interaction, 210–212 communication skills, 211–212 solution-focused judging, 210–211 therapeutic alliance, 217–218 importance of, 218–219
measuring, 219–220
therapeutic jurisprudence, 208–209 therapy outcomes, 215 types of therapy, 215–217
stress – see Judicial stress & wellbeing

Judicial Councils – see Court systems

Judicial officers – see also Judges; Magistrates conduct guidance & emotion, 226–239

conclusion, 238–239
current guidance & future directions, 230–238
AIJA Guide/ABA Code, 230–232 benchbooks, 232–233
disciplinary & complaints bodies, 236–237 extra-curial judicial comment, 233 judicial appointment & assignment, 238 judicial education, 233–235 judicial performance evaluation, 235–236 perceptions & experiences of judicial officers, 229–230 control of court administration – see Court systems
stress – see Judicial stress & wellbeing

Judicial stress & wellbeing

- empirical research (Australia), 141–168
 - analysis, 153–162
 - alcohol use & dependence, 161–162
 - burnout, 157–159
 - depressive & anxious symptoms, 156–157
 - non-specific psychological distress, 154–146
 - perceived stress & wellbeing, 153–154
 - secondary traumatic stress, 159–161
- discussion, 162–167
 - future research, 166–167
 - key findings, 163–165
 - strengths & limitations, 165–166
- methodology of study, 143–147
- survey, 147–153

Language – see Linguistics

Lawyers – see also Counsel; Solicitors

- conferences with – see Conferences with lawyers
- female – see Female lawyers
- immunity – see Advocates’ immunity

Legal actor contributions – see under Judges

Linguistics – see also Interpreters; Pintupi language

- Gibson case (WA), 4
- English-language proficiency, 4, 7–8, 22

Magistrates

- stress – see Judicial stress & wellbeing

Manslaughter

- Gibson case (WA), 22
- instructions to plead guilty, 31
- offer to plead guilty, 30

Mediation – see Alternative dispute resolution (ADR)

Miscarriage of justice

- Gibson case (WA), 22

Money – see under Alternative dispute resolution (ADR)

Murder

- Gibson case (WA), 22
- indictment, 27–31

Neuropsychologist, clinical

- expert evidence in Gibson case (WA), 34

Pintupi language

- use of interview friends, 12–13

Police interviews – see also Interrogation

- Gibson case (WA), 22–26, 38–39
- with Aboriginal suspects, 5–6

Pre-trial hearings

- Gibson case (WA), 22, 27–28

Psychologist, clinical

- expert evidence in Gibson case (WA), 34

Psychology – see Judicial stress & wellbeing

Public opinion

- sentencing, 54–55

Right to silence – see Silence, right to

Sentencing

- aggravating or mitigating factors
 - judges’ & jurors’ views, 51–66
 - appellate guidance, 52–54
 - mental disorder & intellectual disability, 52–54
 - addiction & intoxication, 53–54
- conclusion, 66
- discussion of findings, 62–65
 - mental & cognitive impairment, 62–64
 - substance abuse, 64–65
- public opinion, 54–55
- study method, response & analysis, 55–56
- study results, 56–62
 - relevance of different factors, 56–58
 - views in offender’s specific case, 58–62

Silence, right to

- communicating to Aboriginal suspects, 4–21
 - checking suspect’s understanding, 14–15
- communicating right to silence, 8–11
- right to silence in police interviews, 4–5

Social distancing

judges' roles, 213–214

Solicitors

evidence

Gibson case (WA), 35

Therapeutic alliance – see under JudgesTherapeutic jurisprudence

judges' roles, 208–209, 214, 220

Understanding of rights

Gibson case (WA), 4, 14–15

Unlawful killing

Gibson case (WA), 31

Victoria

court governance – see Court systems

Vulnerable suspects

Gibson case (WA), 38

Witness statements

application to exclude

Gibson case (WA), 31

Women – see Female lawyers*Wrongful conviction

Gibson case (WA), 41–42

