INTERPRETATION

Long term agreement for the transportation of gas on a pipeline — Where respondents entitled to impose charges relating to firm forward haulage supply and unnominated pipeline imbalances — Where Queensland Nickel Pty Ltd executed agreement in its capacity as manager of the Joint Venture and as agent for and on behalf of the appellants in that joint venture — Where Queensland Nickel entered into voluntary administration — Nickel refinery no longer consuming gas — Invoices issued to the appellants for transport charges when no gas consumed — Whether appellants or Queensland Nickel liable to pay invoices — Whether “QNI” in the relevant clause meant Queensland Nickel alone or encompassed Queensland Nickel and the appellants — Each of Queensland Nickel and the appellants liable for charges.

QNI Resources Pty Ltd & Anor v North Queensland Pipeline No 1 Pty Ltd & Anor 276

Where daily firm commitment for gas transport on pipeline — Highest priority service — Where gas transport agreement imposed imbalance charges if nominated offtakes and inputs did not balance — Where imbalance charged at 200% of daily firm forward tariff — Whether the imbalance charge was a penalty — Where unused pipeline capacity did not automatically make that capacity available to other users — Where appellants remained entitled to use reserved capacity — Where parties had agreed a contractual allocation of the risks and burdens of imbalances on the pipeline — Where difficult to ascertain the damage the respondents might sustain by imbalances — Burden imposed by imbalance charges not out of all proportion with the benefit of protecting of the relevant interest — Imbalance charge not a penalty.

QNI Resources Pty Ltd & Anor v North Queensland Pipeline No 1 Pty Ltd & Anor 276

Whether gas transport agreement contained implied obligation of good faith — Whether obligation of good faith breached by respondents — Whether obligation of good faith should be implied in all commercial contracts — Where intermediate appellate courts have refused to recognise an implied term to act in good faith — No term should be implied until ruling by the High Court — Whether a good faith obligation can implied as a matter of law or fact — No such term implied.

RESTITUTION

Involving Crown or public authorities — Mistake — Mining royalties mistakenly paid to Crown — Whether claim precluded by statute — Mineral Resources Act 1989 (Qld), Ch 11 — Taxation Administration Act 2001 (Qld), s 36.

Glencore Coal Queensland Pty Ltd v State of Queensland & Anor 321

STATUTES

Acts of Parliament — Interpretation — Particular classes of Act — Fiscal Acts.
