

APRIL 2024

The Authorised Law Reports of the Supreme Court of Western Australia

THE WESTERN AUSTRALIAN
REPORTS
2021

EDITOR

ERIC HEENAN SC

REPORTER IN THIS PART

ETHAN HEYWOOD

VOL 59 — PART 2

PAGES 69-142

The mode of citation of this part will be:
59 WAR

---

---

TABLE OF CASES REPORTED

Part 2 — Pages 69-142

Electricity Networks Corporation (t/as Western Power); Herridge Parties v .....	69
Herridge Parties v Electricity Networks Corporation (t/as Western Power) .....	69
Legal Profession Complaints Committee; Young v .....	1
Young v Legal Profession Complaints Committee .....	1

(Cases in bold reported in this part)

---

---

© State of Western Australia 2024
This publication is copyright. Except as permitted under the Copyright Act 1968, no part of this publication may be reproduced or communicated by any process without the prior written permission of the Attorney General of Western Australia.

THOMSON REUTERS

2024 Thomson Reuters (Professional) Australia Limited
ABN 64 058 914 668

Lawbook Co.

Published in Sydney

ISSN 0083-8764

INDEX

Part 2 — Pages 69-142

APPORTIONMENT OF LIABILITY BETWEEN CONCURRENT WRONGDOERS

Whether a claim in nuisance based on a failure to take reasonable care is an apportionable claim — Whether trial judges' apportionment between concurrent wrongdoers reflected the extent of their contribution to the Plaintiff's loss.

Herridge Parties and Others v Electricity Networks Corporation
(t/as Western Power) and Others ..... 69

DAMAGES

Whether trial judge erred in failing to award damages for physical inconvenience.

Herridge Parties and Others v Electricity Networks Corporation
(t/as Western Power) and Others ..... 69

NEGLIGENCE

Duty of care — Occupier of premises privately owned jarrah power pole — Where use of power pole exceeded service life and affected by bio-deterioration — Where power pole fell and started bushfire — Whether trial judge erred in finding occupier liable in negligence — Whether occupier owed duty of care to inspect and maintain power pole — Whether occupier breached duty by failing to procure inspection of power pole — Whether the breach caused the Plaintiffs' loss.

Herridge Parties and Others v Electricity Networks Corporation
(t/as Western Power) and Others ..... 69

Duty of care — Public authorities — Non-delegable duties — Where operator of electricity distribution system placed service apparatus it owned on privately owned consumer power pole — Where network operator engaged independent contractor to undertake work on service apparatus including service cable supported by consumer's pole — Where independent contractor failed to adequately inspect power pole when conducting work — Whether network operator owed a non-delegable duty to ensure independent contractor took reasonable care to inspect the consumer's pole to see that it was in a safe and fit condition for use in the supply of electricity — Whether network operator took reasonable care in the selection and engagement of independent contractor and auditing of independent contractor's work — Whether trial judge erred in finding duty not non-delegable and effectively delegated — Whether network operator had sufficient control over risk of harm to give rise to non-delegable duty.

Herridge Parties and Others v Electricity Networks Corporation
(t/as Western Power) and Others ..... 69

INDEX

NEGLIGENCE — continued

Duty of care — Public authorities — Whether operator of electricity distribution system owed to persons in the vicinity of its electricity distribution system a duty to take reasonable care to avoid or minimise the risk of injury to those persons, and loss or damage to their property, from the ignition and spread of fire in connection with the delivery of electricity through the electricity distribution system — Whether network operator breached that duty of care by failing to have a system for undertaking the periodic inspection of wooden poles owned by consumers and used to support live electrical apparatus forming part of network operator's electricity distribution system — Whether alleged duty incompatible with statutory provisions regulating the powers, functions and duties of network operator — Whether case advanced on appeal falls within the scope of the case pleaded by the Plaintiffs at trial.

Herridge Parties and Others v Electricity Networks Corporation
(t/as Western Power) and Others ..... 69

WORDS AND PHRASES

“Claim” — Civil Liability Act 2002 (WA), s 5AI.

Herridge Parties and Others v Electricity Networks Corporation
(t/as Western Power) and Others ..... 69